Methodist Times:—"We have tested the book in many places, and found it to be invariably accurate. Its production must have been a work of immense labour on the part of the compiler, and should considerably minimise the labour of the student. It has called for no remarkable scholarship, but an immense capacity for diligent, painstaking patience and perseverance. With this book at hand there should be no difficulty in ascertaining the actual teaching of the Bible on any given subject. We are not acquainted with any book like it of equal value."

The Representative Session assembled on Tuesday, July 22, and concluded its business on Saturday, July 26. The Pastoral Session assembled on Tuesday, July 29, and completed its business on Wednesday, August 6. At the end of each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

SECTION I.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. I. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional or public interests, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries, and shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio Members: the President of the Conference, Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS; the Ex-President, Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D.; the Secretary of the Conference, Rev. (3) Twelve Laymen in or near London:

Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A.,
Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart.,
Mr. George Corderoy,
" Walford D. Green, M.P.,
" Henry Holloway,
" William A. M'Arthur, M.P.,
Mr. Robert W. Perks, M.P.,
" Digby F. Shillington,
" J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
Sir Clarence Smith,
Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
His Hon. Judge Waddy, K.C.

(4) Eight Laymen from the Country:

Mr. John Cooper,
Rt. Hon. Sir Henry Fowler, G.C.S.I., M.P.,
Mr. Charles Heap,
„ William Hunt,
Mr. William Middlebrook,
„ Ebenezer Parkes, M.P.,
„ Walter Runciman, M.P.,
Sir George Smith.

The Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

2. The Extraordinary Committee, which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional interests, and shall meet whenever the Ordinary Committee or the President of the Conference shall convene it, shall consist of all the Members of the Ordinary Committee; the Chairmen of Districts; the Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds, though not Members of the Ordinary Committee; with the following gentlemen selected from the Lay Representatives to the Conference elected by the several District Synods:

Mr. Josiah Gunton,
„ William J. Davey,
„ John E. Stafford,
„ John Perkins,
„ William Brownscombe,
„ Richard Lowman Skinner,
„ Thomas May,
„ George Dicker,
„ Ernest Collas,
„ William Beckley,
„ Charles Vivian Thomas,
„ Alfred Dingley,
„ Frederick W. Brown,
„ Charles W. Slater,
„ Edward Rees,
„ William O. Williams,
„ Tilden J. Bisseker,
Mr. Edward Stocker,
„ Charles S. Denniss,
Dr. Arthur T. Wilkinson,
Mr. William Tattersall,
„ John James Sanderson,
„ William Middlebrook,
„ David L. Winter,
„ J. Tudor Walters,
„ Walter T. Small,
„ George H. Bradford,
„ Robert Kay,
„ Thomas Cradock,
„ George Parkinson,
„ Mark H. Mills,
„ Richard Qualthough,
„ Joseph J. King.

The Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

3. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee.

4. The Conference instructs the Committee to press forward by all means in its power a Bill for the enfranchisement of leasehold chapel and school property, and to secure a special return, in conjunction with the Chapel Committee, through the District Chapel Secretaries, of all leasehold chapels and schools, together with particulars in each case as to the length of the lease and the number of years it has to run.

5. The Conference refers back to the Committee of Privileges the questions dealt with by the following Bills :

(1) Places of Worship (Sites) Bill.

(2) Rating of Places of Worship and Schools Bill.

6. The Conference again directs the Committee to consider during the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan Methodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itinerancy, and to take such legal action as may be advisable in order to the removal of such disadvantages.

7. The Conference instructs the Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate to furnish each year, in September, to the Secretary of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners.

8. Roman Catholic University for Ireland.—The Conference again directs the Committee of Privileges to co-operate with the Committee of Privileges appointed by the Irish Conference in opposing the Establishment and Endowment out of Public Funds of a Denominational University in Ireland.

9. The Conference expresses its satisfaction that the Government of India has decided that Garrison Churches in India, to be erected in future out of the public funds, shall not be consecrated, but shall be available for use by all the Denominations. But, in view of other matters, which have not yet been dealt with, the Conference refers the matter back to the Committee, to act in conjunction with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, as may seem desirable.

10. Burial Laws.—Clause 8 of the Burial Act, 1900, is as follows : "The notice to be given of intention to bury in a burial-ground maintained by a burial authority shall be given at such a time and to such a person as the burial authority may direct; and so much of Section 1 of the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880, as requires forty-eight hours' notice to be given in any such case shall be repealed."

The Title, Duties, and Composition of the Ordinary and Extraordinary Committees of Privileges.

1. The Conference resolves that no change be made in the title of the Committee of Privileges.

2. Its duties are thus defined:

(1) The Ordinary Committee shall have full power to take action on all national occasions, and in all cases affecting the interests, duties, rights, or privileges of our Church; but it must act in conformity with any existing resolution of the Conference.

(2) In all cases where proposed legislation or administration affects the interests of any department managed by a Special Committee appointed by the Conference, the Committee of Privileges shall act in consultation with the particular Committee in such manner as the President of the Conference may direct; and a joint meeting may be summoned by the Secretaries of the Committee of Privileges of that Committee and of the Committee of the department affected, if directed by the President of the Conference, in order to determine what action shall be taken.

3. The Minister and Layman appointed on the Extraordinary Committee from each District shall be nominated yearly by the Synods.

N.B.—The Chairman of any District who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to attend and to vote with the Committee.

4. Day of Intercession.—The Conference appoints the first Monday in October to be observed throughout the Connexion as an Annual Day of Intercession for Foreign Missions; and recommends that Sermons be preached on the previous Sunday, setting forth the duty of the Church to Christ and the heathen world.

5. Missionary Advance.—In the judgment of the Conference, the hour is come for the Wesleyan Methodist Church to adopt solemnly, in the faith and fear of God, a more energetic and aggressive policy with regard to Foreign Missionary Work. While rejoicing in manifold and widespread tokens throughout the Connexion of revived interest in the Missionary cause, yet having regard to the growth of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, the increased wealth of its people, and the large number of Chapels and Halls erected during recent years, the Conference cannot but regard as unsatisfactory and humiliating the fact that for more than a generation the Home income of the Foreign Missionary Society has remained stationary; and recognising also the vast areas of the world still unevangelized, and the unparalleled opportunities now presented in all parts of the Foreign field where the Society's agents are at work, the Conference is strongly of opinion that the call of God is clear and loud for immediate and continuous advance.

The Conference is convinced that such advance is only possible by such an increase in the spirit of devotion to Christ and of loyalty to His commands as will secure year by year an adequate supply of workers and of funds.

The Conference therefore directs that a series of Missionary Conventions, on a large scale, be held during the coming year, at selected centres throughout the country, and on dates convenient to the localities; the whole to be under the personal direction of the President of the Conference.

(1) Conventions shall be held as follows:

Oxford District	October 1, 1902.
Whitby and Darlington District ...	October 8, 1902.
Manchester District	October 29, 1902.
Carlisle District	October 30, 1902.
Devonport and Plymouth District ...	November 5, 1902.
Halifax and Bradford District	November 26, 1902.
Bristol and Bath District	December 3, 1902.
Nottingham and Derby District ...	December 11, 1902.
Birmingham and Shrewsbury District...	January 14, 1903.
Liverpool District	February 9, 1903.
Hull District	February 12, 1903.
The three London Districts (joint Convention)	March 10, 1903.

(2) The Conventions shall consist of three Sessions, of which one shall be for Ministers alone. Admission to the other Sessions shall be by ticket only, and the main aim shall be to secure the attendance of all who hold office in the Church.

(3) No collections shall be taken, except for the expenses of the Conventions.

(4) All the Ministers of the District shall attend all the Sessions of the Convention.

(5) Each September Synod shall decide the place at which its District Convention shall be held.

(6) The District Foreign Missions Committee, enlarged by the September Synod so as to include representatives of all classes of lay officers, shall be an Arrangements Committee to make, in consultation with the General Missionary Secretaries, all arrangements for the Convention.

(7) This Committee shall arrange for the due observance, in all the Circuits of the District, of the week preceding the Convention as a week of Missionary Intercession.

6. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry.—The Conference directs that in every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer. (1901.)

7. Women's Auxiliary.—Communications to be addressed to Mrs. WISEMAN, 25, Queen's Avenue, Muswell Hill, London, N.

(7) The thanks of the Conference are presented to the various Officers and Committees of the Fund, and to the District Treasurers of the Maintenance Section, for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices; also to Mr. Henry Whinnerah, Honorary Auditor of the Trinity Hall School Accounts.

(8) The General Committee shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 21, in Bath; on Friday, March 27, 1903, in Southport; and on Friday, June 26, in London.

2. Income of the Fund.

The Conference directs:

(1) The amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's Fund (Maintenance and Education) shall be as set forth in Schedule B.

(2) Ministers in Departments, and those without pastoral charge, shall be assessed for the Maintenance Section of the Fund at £20 each, and shall pay the assessments for which they are liable in respect of this Section to the Rev. G. STRINGER ROWE.

(3) No children's allowances can be claimed by Ministers on whose behalf the ordinary assessment has not been paid.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion with the Conference shall subscribe half a guinea per annum; and the payment by Ministers in Circuits and Departments, having children at the Schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of half a guinea.

(5) The Education Section of the Fund shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of the Maintenance Section. The extra charge upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister is therefore £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards.

3. Maintenance Section.

The Conference directs the General Committee of the Fund to consider and report upon the question raised by the following Resolution of the Conference of 1893:

That for the next ten years the twentieth year of maintenance allowance be withdrawn. This decision shall be reconsidered at the Conference of 1903, or earlier, if the state of the Fund should warrant it.

4. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent to the Rev. William Foster, B.A., Colwyn Bay, Denbighshire. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Boys shall not in general be admitted before the age of ten.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governing Body under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governing Body to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25. Such parents receive the privileges detailed in § 6 (p. 24).

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Headmaster, Mr. WALTER P. WORKMAN, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 6 (4), p. 25).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governing Body. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
Boys recommended by the Governor and Headmaster as being "near to winning a Scholarship"	£25
For all others	£30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (see § 2 (4), p. 20).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

(9) Travelling expenses shall be at the rate of one guinea per term, or three guineas per annum.

5. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September, and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. RALPH M. SPOOR, 90, Cheriton Road, Folkestone. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

(2) Entrance Examination.

Reading: A few lines of poetry selected by the examiner.
Writing (Small Hand): Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading-book. This will also be a test of spelling.
Arithmetic: The Four Simple Rules and the Four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures).
Geography: Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, and particularly of England.
Grammar: To parse simple sentences correctly and readily.
History: To have a fair knowledge of Bible History and of the History of England.
Plain Needlework.

The Examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School.

Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School. In special cases, when, in the opinion of the Governing Body and the General Committee, it is deemed desirable, the term of residence "on the foundation" may be extended from four to six years.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ... £22
For all others £30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships, or have secured an extra year, shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (see § 2 (4), p. 20).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 4 (6), p. 22) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(6) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall shall be divided into three terms.

(7) Travelling expenses shall be at the same rate as for Kingswood (§ 4 (9), p. 23).

6. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided (1) that the child is "on the foundation," and (2) that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held.

N.B.—All applications in respect of the return of Educational Allowances should be made to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, The Avenue, Blackheath, S.E.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, The Avenue, Blackheath, S.E., a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. WILLIAM TUNSTILL, of Nelson, and Mr. JOHN COOPER, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

5. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK is the General Secretary of the Chapel Committee.

and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., for their valuable services for many years as members of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes.

The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, of Manchester, Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, of Morley, and Mr. JOHN BAYLEY LEES, of Handsworth, Birmingham, are appointed Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes under the provisions of the Deed dated October 4, 1866, and enrolled in Chancery December 14, 1866, in succession to the Rev. David J. Waller, D.D., LL.D., Mr. William Tunstill, and Mr. Alexander M'Arthur, D.L., who have retired.

All communications are to be addressed to the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Central Buildings, Oldham Street, Manchester, Secretary to the Board.

GIFTS OF CHAPELS AND OTHER TRUST PROPERTY.

The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented—

1. To the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Williamson Lamplough, of Blackheath, Kent, for the gift of a Chapel at Sunfields, in the London (Blackheath) Circuit.

2. To Mr. Isaac Hoyle, of Wimbledon, for the erection of a Class-room at Summerseat, in the Bury (Lanc.) Circuit, at a cost of £550.

3. To Messrs. John Thomas Field and Charles E. Field, of Skelmanthorpe, for the gift of a Chapel-keeper's House at Skelmanthorpe, in the Denby Dale Circuit, at a cost of £350.

Returns of Accommodation in Wesleyan Methodist Chapels and other Preaching-Places.

The Conference notes with thankfulness that there has been an increase of 506 Chapels connexionally settled during the ten years, and an increase of 173,142 in the sitting accommodation provided. The actual sitting accommodation now provided by Wesleyan Methodist Chapels in Great Britain is, according to these returns, 2,187,505 sittings.

Ministers' Houses.

The Conference authorises the Chapel Committee, out of the funds which may be at its disposal for loans on interest, to advance, in such cases as it deems expedient, a loan on Ministers' Houses at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of two-thirds of the cost, the balance being previously raised; on the condition that in addition to the interest, a sum shall be repaid half-yearly to the Committee sufficient to extinguish the loan in twenty years. It is calculated that payments at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum on the amount borrowed would cover both principal and

2. The Lay Treasurers and the Honorary Lay Secretary of this Fund, for the time being, are ex officio members of the Scotland District Synod during the transaction of the Financial and Statistical Business of the District.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism and the cause of Christ generally, calls on all Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees and all others interested in the one hundred and fourteen Chapels already aided by this Fund, to sustain it to the utmost of their power, that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis. It trusts also that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily assist their London brethren in this movement.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurers, His Hon. Judge WADDY, K.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., and to the Committee of the Fund, for their services during the past year.

4. The following are re-appointed the Officers for the ensuing year: viz. His Hon. Judge WADDY, K.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., Treasurers; Rev. JOHN BOND, General Secretary; Sir CLARENCE SMITH, Rev. WILLIAM D. WALTERS, Rev. THOMAS E. WESTERDALE, and Rev. JABEZ INGRAM, Assistant Secretaries.

The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

1. The ex officio Members: viz. the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers, General Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries of this Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the Secretary of the Home Mission Fund.

2. The elected Members:

(1) By the Conference: fifteen Laymen of the London Districts who are Annual Subscribers, and such a number of Ministers as will equalise the number of Laymen and Ministers; including the Chairmen of the three London Districts, namely—the Rev. Josiah Banham, George Charter, William J. Cooke, Robert Culley, George Denton, John H. Goodman, William Middleton, Isaiah Parker, and T. Wynne Jones.

The following are the fifteen laymen:

Mr. Abraham J. Brook,
„ Samuel J. Cole,
„ William Colman,
„ John Gibbs,
„ Thomas Holloway,
„ George W. Kilner,
„ George W. Munt,
„ Henry T. Northcroft,
Mr. William R. Rider,
„ James Smith,
„ Henry Somerford,
„ Charles J. Thomas,
„ John W. Thomas,
„ W. Lisle Williams,
„ Richard E. Withers.

(2) By the London District Synods: four Ministers and four Laymen in each District, at its September District Synod.

HOME MISSION FUND.

Q. VI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Home Mission Fund, and other Home Mission Affairs?

A. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

I. Financial Statement.

1. The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1900–1901, and Report of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1902.

2. The Conference rejoices to learn that a further advance in the income of the Fund is reported, largely owing to the improved interest taken in Home Missionary Meetings, and also to the increased number of such meetings. The Conference again calls attention to recent legislation which requires that a Home Missionary Meeting shall be held, and a collection at such meeting made, in every chapel and preaching-place in the Connexion, and expresses the earnest hope that alike for the benefit of our Churches and the support of the Fund every effort will be put forth to make Home Missionary Meetings instructive and effective.

II. Grants.

1. The Committee has voted £7,464 4*s.* to dependent Circuits, £5,624 towards the support of Home Missionary Ministers for the ensuing year, and £3,173 to District Home Mission Committees.

2. The applications for aid in several other cases have been postponed pending further inquiry.

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

1. Thirty Circuits are under pledge to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these, seventeen will duly fulfil their obligations; viz. London (Clapham), London (Tooting), London Mission (South), London (Lewisham), Penzance, Weston-super-Mare, Birmingham (Belmont Row), Birmingham (Wesley), Birmingham (Smethwick), Crewe, Oldham (Wesley), Bury, Leeds (Brunswick), Sheffield (Carver Street), Peterborough, Middlesbrough (Wesley), Connexional Evangelist.

2. In eight other cases compensation for delay will be paid to the Fund.

3. Additional houses will also be provided in the following cases: London (Kilburn and Hampstead) and Hull (Queen's Road) at the end of three years; London (Wandsworth Road Mission) at the end of the second year; Nottingham (Albert Hall) and Newcastle Mission at the beginning of the first year. Also, previously due: Tonbridge (1901), Treorky (Welsh) (1899), Nottingham (Tennyson Street) (1901), and Loughborough (1901).

IV. Alteration, Amalgamation, or Division of Circuits.

Ordnance Road, Waltham Abbey, and Cheshunt to be separated from the London (Tottenham) Circuit and united with the Hertford Circuit and the North-West Essex Mission, the united Circuit to be called the "London (Hertfordshire Mission)."

Leatherhead, Effingham, and Cobham to be transferred from the Woking Circuit in the Second London District to the Dorking and Horsham Circuit in the Third London District.

Deptford and Lower Deptford to be transferred from the London (Brockley) Circuit to the London Mission, and called the "London Mission (Deptford)."

The Brockley Circuit and Hither Green Mission to be united to the Lewisham Circuit, and the united Circuit to be called the "Lewisham and Brockley Circuit."

Dorking to be separated from the Redhill Circuit and united with the Horsham Circuit and the three places transferred from the Woking Circuit as above, the new Circuit to be called the "Dorking and Horsham Circuit."

The Sussex Mission (East) and the Sussex Mission (Central) to be united, and called the "Sussex Mission."

East Grinstead and Crawley Down to be separated from the Tunbridge Wells Circuit and united to the Sussex Mission.

The St. Neots, St. Ives and Huntingdon, and Ramsey Circuits to be united, and called the "Huntingdonshire Mission," with Huntingdon as the centre and head of the Mission. This union to take effect at the Conference of 1903.

The Ashford, Lydd, and Tenterden Circuits to be united, and called the "Kent Mission."

The Ticehurst and Staplecross Circuits to be united, and called the "Ticehurst Circuit."

The Norwich, North Walsham and Cromer, and the Holt Circuits to be united under the title of the "Norwich, North Walsham, and Cromer Mission."

Methwold, and places formerly in the Methwold Circuit, to be transferred from the Thetford to the Downham Circuit.

The Poole and Wareham Circuits to be united, and called the "Poole Circuit."

The Dartmouth and Brixham Circuit to be united with the Torquay (Wesley) Circuit, and called the "Torquay (Wesley) Circuit."

The Buckfastleigh, Ashburton, and Kingsbridge and Salcombe Circuits to be united, and called the "South Devon Mission."

The Ross, Monmouth, and Chepstow Circuits to be united, and called the "Wye Valley Mission."

Rumney to be transferred from the Cardiff (Welsh) to the Cardiff (Roath Road) Circuit.

The Llanelly and Carmarthen Circuits to be united, and called the "Llanelly and Carmarthen Circuit."

Claybrooke to be included in the Hinckley Circuit.

The Oswestry, Newtown, and Welshpool Circuits to be united, and called the "Severn Valley Mission."

Ravendale, in the Caistor Circuit, to be tranferred to the Grimsby (Duncombe Street) Circuit.

V. Connexional Evangelists.

The Conference consents to the re-appointment of five married Ministers and one unmarried Minister as Connexional Evangelists, if the Pastoral Session of the Conference has a sufficient number of Ministers at its disposal for the purpose.

VI. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management of these Missions, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed :

First London ...	...	... London (Hertfordshire Mission).
Second London	...	... Wandsworth Road Mission.
Second London	...	... Surrey and North Hampshire Mission.

Macclesfield	... Hanley (Cauldon Road) Mission.
Liverpool	... Severn Valley Mission.
Halifax and Bradford	... Bradford Mission (Eastbrook Hall).
Nottingham and Derby	... Nottingham (Halifax Place) Mission.
Hull	... Hull Mission.
Whitby and Darlington	... Wensleydale Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne ...	... Newcastle Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne ...	... Sunderland (Sans Street) Mission.
Scotland	... Paisley Mission.
Scotland	... Vale of Leven.
Scotland	... Ayr Mission.
Scotland	... Perth Mission.

VII. Commissions.

1. Chatham.—The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Commission, as under, to consider and deal with the pressing need that exists for the establishment of a Central Mission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Rochester and Chatham Garrison Circuits, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, John Bell (B), Walford Green, John Hornabrook, Jabez Ingram, Simpson Johnson, W. Rodwell Jones, Charles H. Kelly, Peter Thompson; with Messrs. Walter W. Berry, William Brownscombe, Alfred G. Curtiss, Henry Holloway, George Lidgett, B.A., James Osborn, J. Crowle Smith, James E. Vanner, Ezra T. Wilks, and Peter F. Wood. The Rev. James Fletcher, Convener.

2. Portsmouth District.—The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Commission, to inquire into the condition of Methodism and advise the Circuits and Synod thereon with special reference to the Circuits brought under the notice of the Conference by the reports of previous years. The following is the Commission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the members of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), John Hornabrook, Simpson Johnson, W. Hodson Smith; with Messrs. Alfred E. Booth, George Curtis, Francis Darracott, T. Morgan Harvey, William Hedges, and John E. Stafford. The Rev. W. Langdon Brimmell, Convener.

3. Oxford District.—The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Commission, as under, with the same instructions as last year: The Members of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Lay Treasurer and General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), James Chapman, John Hornabrook, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Simpson Johnson, Enoch Salt, Dr. Stephenson, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.; with Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Arthur W. Black, J. Calvert Coates, William Hedges, Thomas Mace, John H. Mason, and William Mewburn. The Rev. T. Hardy Banks, B.A., Convener.

4. Channel Islands.—The Conference appoints a Commission to visit the Channel Islands as early as possible, with a view to the better working of Methodism in the District. The Commission, which shall consist of Rev. Dr. Allen, James Critchison, John Gould, and Allen Rees, with Messrs. Thomas Barnsley, J. Wilcox Edge, George W. Munt, and Isaac H. Holden, shall meet the members of the Synod, and report to the Conference on all the questions at issue. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

VIII. Division of the North Wales District.

The Conference approves the division of the North Wales District, to take effect at the Conference of 1903, in harmony with a scheme to be prepared during the year, and approved by the North Wales Synod and the Welsh Wesleyan Assembly.

IX. South Wales.

The Conference appoints the following Committee to obtain information respecting the alleged overlapping of the English and Welsh Circuit in South Wales, and to report its recommendations thereon to the Home Missions Committee and the Conference; viz. Rev. Thomas Champness, Charles H. Floyd, John Hornabrook, Rice Owen, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Thomas Rippon, Peter Jones Roberts, and Owen Watkins; with Messrs. Charles W. Early, Edward Jones (Ystumtuen), Thomas C. Lewis (Llandudno), John Littlejohn, Robert H. Posnett, Charles W. Slater, William H. Smith, and Thomas Walker. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

X. Methodism in Sheffield.

The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Committee, as under, for the management of the Sheffield Mission, including Albert Hall and Ebenezer Chapel, and with the same power as last year to select a site for, and undertake the erection of, Central Mission premises in Sheffield, if it be thought desirable to do so; and to negotiate for the transfer of any old chapels in Sheffield that may need to be worked as Missions: The Chairman of the District, the Superintendents of the Sheffield Circuits, the Ministers appointed to the Mission, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund; with Messrs. John Aizlewood, John Chapman, Thomas Cole, Thomas Cole, jun., T. Skelton Cole, William Easton, John B. Eaton, Henry Emmerson, Joseph Goodall, Joseph J. Greaves, John Gregory, Albert Heath, Richard G. Holland, S. Meggitt Johnson, James Lamb, Frederick Laycock, LL.B., William Loxley, Samuel Osborn, William F. Osborn, William Parkin, Abel Priestley, Jonas Redman, William Richards, William A. Roberts, John G. Shillito, Frederick Stacey, William Stephenson, Samuel E. Thompson, Benjamin G. Wood, and W. Hall Wood. The Rev. William J. Boote, Convener.

XI. The Lincoln District.

The Conference appoints a Special Committee to consider the desirability of including in the Lincoln District, as far as possible, all the Circuits situate within the county, and to confer with the Circuits and Synods concerned in order to promote this result: The President and Secretary of the Conference, Rev. Joseph Bush, John Hornabrook, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Henry T. Smart, and Dr. Stephenson; with Messrs. Charles S. Denniss, John Evison, Alfred Jermyn, S. Meggitt Johnson, William Middlebrook, and Thomas Walker; with four Ministers and four Laymen to be chosen by the Lincoln, Hull, Nottingham, and York Synods, respectively, at their September meeting. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

XII. The Irish Grant.

The Conference authorises the Home Missionary Committee to enter into an arrangement with the Irish Conference (or any committee appointed to act on its behalf) for the payment of a capital sum in lieu of the present grant of £800 per annum for Home Mission work and contingent expenses in Ireland, such payment to be a full and final settlement of all claims upon this Conference or any of its Funds in respect of such work and expenses. The amount so agreed upon to be a charge upon that portion of the Twentieth Century Fund allotted to the Home Missionary Committee.

XIII. Re-organisation of the Army and Navy Work.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (see Appendix XIV.) on the proposed scheme for re-organisation, but postpones any definite decision thereon until next Conference. In the meantime the Committees concerned—viz. the Foreign Missionary Committee, the Home Missionary Committee, and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee—shall consider all the details involved in the proposed changes, receive any suggestions that may be made on the subject, and devise some method of providing for the additional charge brought upon the Home Mission Fund, so as to prevent any undue interference with the claims of other branches of our work at home.

XIV. Officers and Committee.

1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. JOHN BOND and Mr. THOMAS WALKER, Treasurers, and to the Committee, for their services during the past year.

2. The Rev. JOHN BOND and Mr. THOMAS WALKER are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., is re-appointed Deputy Treasurer.

3. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Fund; the Secretary of the Connexional Fund; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism; the Treasurers and Secretary of the London Wesleyan Methodist Mission; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society.

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Treasurer's Account for 1900–1, and the Statement of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1902.

2. The Conference is gratified at the satisfactory result of the Annual Collections, and repeats its commendation of the Fund to the generosity of our congregations, and directs Ministers to explain and urge its claims when the Annual Collections are made.

3. In view of the continuous growth of the Connexion, and the increasing demands necessarily made upon this Fund for Connexional purposes, as well as grants for afflictions, funeral expenses, supplies, circuit travelling, and similar purposes, the Conference re-affirms the old-established rule that self-supporting Circuits should bear such expenses in respect of their own Ministers without having recourse to this Fund.

4. The Conference directs :

(1) That the Annual Collections be taken in all our chapels not later than the month of April, and the amount remitted forthwith to the Deputy Treasurer.

(2) That all applications for Grants for Supplies, Circuit Travelling, Removals, Furniture, and Afflictions, be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, whose recommendations shall be reported to the May Synod.

5. Any balance of income over expenditure shall, until the Conference further directs, be invested annually for the purpose of establishing a Reserve Fund.

6. The resolution of the Conference of 1900 requiring the payment of £40 annually by Circuits calling out additional Ministers shall be altered so as to allow of the payment for the first four years being made to the Connexional Fund instead of to the Home Mission Fund; and the sums thus paid shall be deposited in a separate account to be opened with the Common Cash Office.

7. The following is the Committee: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; and the

Rev. Josiah Banham,
" John Bell (B),
" John Bond,
" George Charter,
" Albert Clayton,
" Walford Green,
" John Hornabrook,
" Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.,
" Jabez Ingram,
" Simpson Johnson,
" Charles H. Kelly,
" George Lester,
" Dr. Henry J. Pope,
" James Pratt,
" Enoch Salt,
" Alfred Sargent,
" J. Crompton Sowerbutts,
" Dr. Stephenson,
" W. Henry Thompson,
" Dr. Waller,
Mr. Edwin Cannington, Waterloo,
Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart., Chislehurst,
Mr. J. Calvert Coates, London,
" Thomas Cole, Sheffield,
" W. Howell Davies, Bristol,
" Harry Dawson, Huddersfield,
" John F. Haworth, Manchester,
" Norval W. Helme, M.P., Lancaster,
" Henry Holloway, London,
" Isaac A. Mack, Liverpool,
" J. Cory Monkhouse, Liverpool,
" J. Bamford Slack, B.A., London,
Sir Clarence Smith, London,
" George Smith, Truro,
Mr. R. Thursfield Smith, Whitchurch,
Sir William H. Stephenson, Newcastle-on-Tyne,
Mr. Henry Swaffield, Sevenoaks,
" Benjamin Vibert, Newport, I.W.
" Thomas Walker, Bolton,
" William Walker, Whitehaven,
" Edward Wood, Southport,
" Peter F. Wood, Chislehurst.

Mr. THOMAS WALKER is re-appointed Treasurer; the Rev. Dr. HENRY J. POPE, Deputy Treasurer; and the Rev. JOHN BELL (B), Secretary.

8. A Special Meeting of the Committee shall be held to consider the recommendations as to Grants made by the May District Synods, and any Representative to the Stationing Committee interested in any application of any kind shall receive intimation of the meeting of the Committee, and be invited to attend this meeting to state and watch the case.

9. The following are appointed an Emergency Committee, with power to deal with any special cases that may require immediate attention: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer, the Deputy Treasurer, and the Secretary of the Fund; with

Rev. Josiah Banham,
„ John Bond,
„ Walford Green,
„ Charles H. Kelly,

Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart.,
Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
Sir Clarence Smith,
Mr. Henry Swaffield,
„ Peter F. Wood.

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference receives the financial statement of the General Treasurers, showing that while the income from all sources had been £32,502 12*s.* 9*d.*, the expenditure was £33,662 6*s.* 8*d.*, leaving a deficiency of £1,159 13*s.* 11*d.* This is accounted for by the delay in receiving the Class contributions, and by some exceptional payments; but the Conference calls the earnest attention of all the friends of the Fund to the necessity of securing an increased income. The Conference records its satisfaction that £3,170 19*s.* 4*d.* has been received on account of Legacies, and £1,658 19*s.* 11*d.* on account of the Special Effort.

3. The Conference records its thankfulness to God for the gratifying response to the special appeal made in the classes at the December visitation. Twenty-four Districts report a small increase, the largest increase being in the Bolton District. Five report a decrease, the largest decrease being in the Devonport and Plymouth District. Three Districts have not yet completed their returns. The Conference again directs that special attention be given in every Circuit to this important source of income.

4. The Conference regrets that, with a deficiency of £1,159 13*s.* 11*d.* on the income of the year, and having regard to the fact that the payment of the allowances to the Supernumerary Ministers and Widows constitutes the first claim on the Fund, the Committee has been unable to vote in full the special grants for affliction, recommended by the District Synods. Many of the cases were of a distressing character.

5. The scale of allowances made to Widows for the present year shall be ten shillings for each year the husband spent in the full work of the ministry, with a bonus of fourteen pounds.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their services during the year.

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER for their assiduous and valuable services as General Treasurers, and they are re-appointed for the ensuing year.

8. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, when needed.

9. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the Members during the visitation of the Classes in December; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

10. The following are appointed the Committee of Management: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN L. BARKER, the General Treasurers; together with the

Rev. Dr. Allen,
" John Bell (B),

N.B.—(1) For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution, see Question XXXVIII.

(2) For the Resolutions of the Conference on the Report of the Special Committee, see p. 109.

13. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) A minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on inquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, all Students who are able, either themselves or by their parents and friends, to add, to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs the President to inform the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept and application made to those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

EDUCATION.

Q. XI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-school Union; and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix III.)

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and to Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY Treasurers of the Fund.

Mr. PETER F. WOOD is appointed a Treasurer, who shall have charge of the Sunday-school Union branch of the finance.

4. The Education Committee shall consist of the following:

5. The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

6. Administrative Resolutions. — The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all cases of difficulty in carrying on our Connexional Day Schools that are likely to result in the closing or transfer of such Schools, before such action be initiated the District Education Committee shall be consulted; it being understood that such consultation shall not interfere with the direction of the Conference requiring consultation with the General Education Committee.

(4) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz. that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(5) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(6) (i) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council—to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing,—the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto: the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School Management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

7. The Conference further directs as follows:

(1) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(2) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(3) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(4) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(5) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

8. Resolutions of 1891 and 1895.—The Conference directs that its declaration made in 1891, and repeated in 1895, be reprinted as follows:

(1) That the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education is the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family. This is of special importance in rural districts, where our people have no alternative to the compulsory attendance of their children at Anglican schools.

(2) That there should be no increased grant of public funds, whether from the local rates or from the imperial taxes, to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management.

(3) That no National System of Education which shall exclude from the Day Schools the Bible, and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers, suited to the capacities of children, will meet the necessity of the country.

(4) That our Connexional Training Colleges should be maintained in full vigour and efficiency.

(5) And, lastly, with respect to our Connexional Day Schools, the Conference repeats its often declared sense of the great services they have rendered to Methodism, and to the sacred cause of National Christian Education; and it emphasises their special importance in those localities where it is impossible to establish School Boards acting in districts of sufficient area, and having under their control Christian unsectarian schools.

9. Resolution of 1899.—That in any National System of Education, the Bible and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers suited to the capacities of children will meet the necessity of the country, and that the introduction of any Catechism into the Board Schools is highly objectionable.

10. Sunday Schools.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

11. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

12. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in our chapels.

13. The Conference directs that the District Education Committee be consulted before a Sunday School is closed.

14. Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

15. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 10 in each year.

16. District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

17. Admission to the Training Colleges.—The Conference resolves that, after provision is made in the Training Colleges for eligible Wesleyan candidates, the members of other Methodist Churches may properly be welcomed to fill any vacant places, if they are prepared to attend the appointed religious services connected with the Colleges, on the distinct understanding that they are not expected to sever their membership with their own religious communities, or to receive any token of membership with the Wesleyan Methodist Church during their residence in the Colleges.

SECONDARY EDUCATION.

1. The Conference resolves that the Secondary Education Committee, appointed by the Conference to deal with all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary Schools, shall also have charge of Middle-class Education; and that in the constitution of the Committee not less than one-third of the number shall be members of the General Education Committee.

2. The Conference appoints the following Committee on Secondary Education:

The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; and the

The Rev. Dr. WALLER and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., are the Secretaries and Conveners.

3. The Conference receives the Report of the Middle-class Schools Committee.

4. The Conference refers to the Secondary Education Committee the question of establishing all or any of the Wesleyan Middle-class or other Proprietary Schools on a more strictly Connexional basis, either as separate institutions, or by bringing all or any of them under a single Connexional control. For this purpose the Committee is authorised to prepare forms of Trust Deed or of documents forming companies.

If the Special Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund appointed for the administration of £200,000 for Educational Work should resolve to apply any of its funds to the establishment of such Schools, or for placing Wesleyan Middle-class or other Schools on a more strictly Connexional basis, it is empowered to examine and settle any such forms of Trust Deed and document, and if approved to act upon the same in establishing such Schools.

5. The Conference again refers to the Committee all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary and Middle-class Schools, including the constitution and equipment of the Connexional Middle-class Schools.

6. The Committee is authorised to invite, if thought desirable, the co-operation of representatives of the various Boards of Directors, and of the Head Masters and Head Mistresses.

7. The Conference approves the new constitution of Woodhouse Grove School as embodied in the Memorandum and Articles of Association settled by Mr. P. W. Bunting, subject to such alterations in detail as may be arranged between the Middle-class Schools Committee and the Directors of the School, after the approval of the Board of Trade has been obtained.

8. The following Directors of the Middle-class Schools are appointed :

Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited	Rev. Edward J. Brailsford, „ J. Charles Trafford.

Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited	Rev. Dr. Waller, „ Edward J. Brailsford, „ William Slack, „ W. Arthur Labrum.
East Anglia Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited ...	Rev. Dr. Waller, „ John Gould.
Woodhouse Grove School, Limited	Rev. Marshall Hartley, Mr. Samuel Wright.
Cheshire and North Staffordshire Wesleyan Middle-class School Association, Limited	Rev. H. Epworth Thompson, „ James Kent.

Queenswood School, Limited ...	Rev. Dr. Waller, „ Marshall Hartley, Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.
Bromyard Wesleyan Methodist High School for Girls, Limited	Rev. Dr. Waller, Mr. John W. Sankey.

The Conference receives with pleasure the Reports of WESLEY COLLEGE, SHEFFIELD, and QUEEN'S COLLEGE, TAUNTON, Limited. Although not Connexional Schools, these were established primarily in the interests of Methodism, and are under Methodist management. Each has rendered invaluable service to the cause of Christian education and to the Methodist Church.

The Conference re-appoints the Rev. J. Agar Beet, D.D., and Mr. Obed Hosegood, Directors of Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of The Children's Home and Orphanage?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of The Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of The Children's Home.

3. The Conference rejoices in the steady growth of The Children's Home. It recognises the large additional annual expenditure which must be involved in the extensions now in progress, or about to be undertaken, especially in the care of crippled and afflicted children, and commends the Home to the generous support of Methodist congregations and Sunday schools.

4. The Conference sanctions the Incorporation of The Children's Home, if such a step is considered desirable by the General Committee.

5. The Conference gratefully acknowledges the gift by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, of Bolton, of a House for Girls at the Lancashire Branch.

6. Messrs. James E. Vanner and Thomas Barton Holmes are re-appointed the General Treasurers. The following are appointed Local Treasurers for the ensuing year: Messrs. RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and re-affirms its steadfast belief in the divine authority and perpetual obligation of the Lord's Day, and the conviction of the necessity that all effectual defence and assertion of the Lord's Day Rest must proceed on that basis.

2. In view of the many facilities and temptations to Sunday desecration now prevailing, of the active and well organised opposition strenuously offered to the Lord's Day as a religious and divine institution, and of the great laxity of practice among many professing Christians, who in some cases give up part of the day to amusements such as golf, lawn-tennis, etc., the Conference urges the necessity of a stricter consistency in the avoidance of all that is incompatible with the sacredness of the day of rest and worship, and the special importance of the more careful and frequent instruction of the young in our Day and Sunday Schools on this vital question.

3. Mr. J. CALVERT COATES is re-appointed Treasurer; the Rev. JAMES FINCH and Mr. JOSIAH GUNTON are re-appointed Secretaries; and the following is the Committee for the next year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., Temperance Secretary; and the Secretaries of the Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday of November in each year, special reference be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of intemperance.

3. The Conference repeats the expression of its sympathy with the aims and efforts of the Central Association for stopping the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on Sunday, and with its "Forward Movement," and instructs the Temperance Committee to continue its co-operation with the Association, and to communicate from time to time with the District Synods with a view to bringing increased influence to bear on the Government and Members of Parliament in favour of such Sunday Closing for England as has been granted to other parts of the United Kingdom to the great benefit of their religious and social life.

4. The Conference, while adhering to its declarations in relation to entire Sunday Closing and Local Option, nevertheless declares its strong conviction that the Minority Report of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Licensing Laws provides a satisfactory basis for a large and efficient measure of Temperance reform; and urges all the friends of the Temperance cause to unite in seeking to obtain legislation upon the general lines of that Report.

5. The Conference again calls attention to its recommendation that in all our Bands of Hope the Quarterly Ticket of membership shall be used, and that this ticket shall be given not only to those who are members of the Band of Hope in the ordinary way, but also to any young people in our Sunday Schools who may for various reasons be unable to attend Band of Hope Meetings, but who are willing to enrol themselves in the Sunday-school Teacher's Pledge-Book.

6. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit; and the Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Connexional Temperance Secretary not later than the end of September; but where no Circuit Temperance Secretary is appointed, the Superintendents of Circuits are directed to send to the Connexional Temperance Secretary by the same date the names and addresses of all the Secretaries of Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies in their respective Circuits.

7. The Conference deeply deplores the widespread prevalence of Betting and Gambling and kindred practices, and expresses its grief that the newspaper press of this country stimulates these vices by the publication of sporting items, and its satisfaction that The Daily News has set a noble example in resolving not to publish this kind of information. It declares its hope that before long there may be some effective legislation for the suppression of these evils, and especially for prohibiting the publication of betting items by the newspapers. The Conference urges all our people to exert themselves in all possible ways for the suppression of this vice, and especially by the use of the Anti-Gambling Pledge published by the Book-Room, and by seeking to influence Parish, District, and County Councils to use their powers against the practice of gambling in public places.

8. The Conference welcomes the Report of the Select Committee of the House of Lords on Betting; and although the Conference would desire to see recommendations going more directly to the heart of the question, it nevertheless believes that legislation upon the lines of the Committee's suggestions would tend considerably to diminish the evil; and resolves that a memorial, signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference, be forwarded to the Prime Minister urging his Majesty's Government to embody the recommendations of the Committee in a measure to be laid before Parliament at the earliest possible moment.

9. The Conference recommends that, in places where it is impossible to form an adult Temperance Society holding frequent meetings, a society shall be formed by the appointment of a secretary and by keeping a roll of abstainers.

10. The Conference declares its opinion that it would be a great boon if the railway companies would provide refreshment-rooms in which no intoxicants shall be sold, and that the friends of temperance would do well to exert themselves in this behalf; and calls the attention of the shareholders and directors of railway companies to the fact that there is danger of illegal sale of liquor in dining-cars.

11. The Conference re-affirms its strong conviction that in the settlement of South Africa care should be taken to secure the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors to natives; and directs that a memorial in this sense, signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference, be sent to the Colonial Secretary; and that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Prime Minister, to Viscount Milner, and to the Governor of Cape Colony.

12. The Conference is gratified that his Majesty's Government has introduced a Licensing Bill for the removal of some of the evils connected with the Liquor Traffic in this nation; and resolves that a petition in support of this Bill be signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference, and duly forwarded for presentation to Parliament.

The Conference at the same time declares its earnest wish that the clause concerning Grocers' Licences may be restored to its original form; and directs that a copy of this Resolution shall be sent to the Home Secretary.

13. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio Members: the President of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee, the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Sunday-school Union, one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee, and the Secretary of the Social Purity Committee.

together with three Representatives each, to be chosen by the Wesley Societies at Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh.

3. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. JAMES MOULTON, Secretary.

4. The Conference gives power to the Committee to meet occasionally for purely educational purposes, and to add to itself for these purposes persons interested in other Educational Institutions, their number not to exceed six.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of vice, and will strenuously withstand any policy which involves such regulation.

3. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and now adopted in Gibraltar, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything of the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

4. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible-classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of watchful care over all moral interests, and of exercising an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

5. The Conference reminds Wesleyan Methodists throughout the country that the return of the troops from South Africa will be attended with serious temptation of various kinds to the men, and urges upon them the duty of seeking, especially in regard to declared Wesleyans, to surround them with friendly and healthful influences, in order to lessen these dangers, as far as possible.

6. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee.

together with Mrs. Sheldon Amos, Miss Margaret Anderson, Miss Florence Bennett, Mrs. Percy W. Bunting, Miss Dewhirst, Mrs. Hogg, Mrs. Hugh Price Hughes, Miss Simmons, and Miss Agnes E. Slack.

7. Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. J. SCOTT LIDGETT, M.A., Secretary to the Committee.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Local Preachers?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference repeats its recommendation that wherever practicable Local Preachers, after being received on full plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service.

3. The following is the scheme as finally adopted by the Conference:

I. The District Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) At the September Synod of each District a Local Preachers' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers, and six Local Preachers. If any Local Preachers be chosen who are not already Members of the Synod, they shall by this appointment become Members.

(2) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the Members of the District Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

(3) Each Synod shall appoint a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(4) At the September Local Preachers' Meeting in each Circuit, a Circuit Secretary shall be appointed, and his name and address shall be forthwith sent by the Superintendent to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(5) The Superintendent shall also send to the Lay Secretary, quarterly, a Circuit Plan containing the full postal address of each Local Preacher.

(6) Immediately after the March Local Preachers' Meeting, the Circuit Secretary shall forward, on prepared forms, to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee, the various statistical facts relating to the Local Preachers in that Circuit. The required statistics shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the Circuit Secretary, and the schedule signed by both.

(7) The District Local Preachers' Committee shall prepare a Report based upon the statistics so furnished, and relating to the work of the year, to be presented to the May Synod.

(8) Immediately after the May Synod the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees shall be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, which shall report thereon to the Conference.

(9) It shall be the duty of the District Local Preachers' Committee to inquire whether the directions of the Conference with regard to the mental and theological culture of Local Preachers have been observed in the various Circuits of the District, and to take necessary steps to assist in carrying out those directions.

(10) The District Local Preachers' Committee is empowered to establish and conduct Voluntary District Examinations of Local Preachers in Theology, Biblical Study, and Homiletics.

(11) Subject always to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee shall endeavour to promote the interest and efficiency of Local Preachers' Meetings in all practicable ways, by suggesting subjects for discussion, providing deputations to visit such Meetings, and otherwise.

(12) Subject to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee may initiate and promote arrangements providing for the ministrations of Local Preachers in Circuits other than their own, especially with a view to the advantage of the neediest and poorest Circuits; and may also undertake arrangements for Special Missions and Services where desired.

II. The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) The Connexional Committee shall consider the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees received from the May Synods, and prepare thereon a Report for presentation to the Conference.

(2) The Committee shall also furnish a List of Books for guiding the Studies of Local Preachers, and prepare a scheme of Voluntary Examinations with the necessary Examination papers.

(3) The subject of the Theological Reading of Local Preachers shall also be dealt with by this Committee, together with the working out of the scheme of the Committee which reported to the Conference in 1894 on "A Course of Reading for Local Preachers" (Minutes, 1894, pp. 462–5).

(4) A Lay Treasurer, and a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, shall be annually appointed by the Conference.

(5) The following is the Committee:

(i) The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Officers of the Committee; with

WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Wesley Deaconess Institute, and directs that an abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix XII.)

2. The Conference expresses its satisfaction at the work done by the Wesley Deaconesses in various Circuits and Missions in this country, as well as in the Colonies of South Africa and New Zealand, and among the heathen in Ceylon; and recognises the advantage to the Church of having at command an Order of godly women who have been specially trained for their work and are under Connexional control.

3. The Conference is gratified that through the liberality of a few friends a commodious building has been purchased for the Training School and Central Offices of the Order, and other purposes connected therewith, and presents its hearty thanks especially to the two gentlemen whose handsome gifts made this purchase possible.

4. The Conference is glad to be informed that about £300 has been added to the yearly income by subscriptions and contributions of Associates. It recognises the necessity for a reliable income for this work, and commends it to the sympathy and liberality of the Methodist ministers and people.

5. The Rev. Dr. STEPHENSON is re-appointed Warden of the Institute; the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON and Dr. ARTHUR E. GREGORY are re-appointed Secretaries; Sister DORA STEPHENSON is appointed Corresponding Secretary; Mr. FRANCIS HORNER and Mr. ALBERT W. BAIN are re-appointed Treasurers.

with power to add to their number.

3. The Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY is re-appointed the Treasurer, and the Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK (B) Honorary Librarian and Secretary.

ŒCUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, considers it unnecessary at present to take up the question of a future Œcumenical Conference.

2. The Conference appoints the following as its representatives upon a Commission charged with the care of this business :

The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; James Chapman, Dr. Stephenson; Messrs. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, Robert W. Perks, M.P., Sir Clarence Smith, His Honour Judge Waddy, K.C. The Rev. James Chapman, Convener.

CONCERTED ACTION.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves that a Tabular View of Methodist Statistics, similar to that found in the Methodist Kalendar, be included in the published Minutes of the Conference. (See Appendix XX.)

3. In order to the further promotion of concerted action the Conference agrees :

That a United Committee be annually constituted by the appointment of Representatives by the several Conferences for the purpose of mutual defence, in the following proportions : viz. Wesleyan Methodists, 16; Primitive Methodists, 8; United Methodist Free Churches, 6; Methodist New Connexion, 4; Bible Christians, 4; Methodist Reform Union, 1; Independent Methodists, 1.

4. The members appointed by this Conference, as its proportion of the United Committee, are the following : The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; John Bond, Robert Culley, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Silvester Whitehead; and Messrs. Percy

W. Bunting, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, William Hunt, Williamson Lamplough, Charles T. Owen, Robert W. Perks, M.P., H. Arthur Smith, M.A., and Charles C. Sutch. Rev. John Bond, Convener.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Fourth Report of the Committee, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix XIII.)

2. The Conference records its gratitude to Almighty God that His blessing has so richly attended the work of the year. The Conference learns with satisfaction that £892,348 11*s.* 4*d.* has been received, and that additional promises have been recorded.

3. The Conference again acknowledges the services rendered by Ministers and Laymen, and especially by Officers and Members of District, Circuit, and Local Committees throughout the year, and particularly in connexion with the organisation of the successful Simultaneous Collection on December 29 last.

4. The Rev. Dr. Davison, Ex-President of the Conference, is appointed a Trustee of the Central Premises in London.

5. With a view to the early administration of the Fund, the Conference makes a special appeal to the Circuits which have not yet completed their promises and aims to do so.

6. The administration of the Fund shall begin as soon as possible after outstanding promises have been fulfilled.

7. Until a Million sterling has been received in contributions and interest the principal of the Fund shall remain at interest or be invested as directed by the Conference; but in the meantime the Executive Committee is authorised to meet such demands of Administrative Committees for extension purposes as are in its judgment advisable.

8. Arrangements shall be made by the Executive Committee for the publication of a full Report of the Fund. The Report shall contain names of contributors in every Circuit and the amount of their Contributions. Ministers and Circuit Officers of the Fund are requested to furnish to the Executive Committee all information necessary for the work.

9. In addition to the power already given to the Executive Committee to deposit the moneys of the Fund with Banks and to lend money to his Majesty's Government upon the security of Treasury Bills, the Executive Committee is authorised to invest moneys in Debenture or Guaranteed Stocks of British or Indian Railways which are guaranteed by the British or the Indian Government.

10. The Conference, learning that a site for the proposed monumental Connexional building in London has been provisionally secured by the Trustees appointed by the Conference of 1900, pursuant to the power conferred upon them by the Conference of 1901, and that such site comprises a larger area than will be required for the Connexional building, authorises the Trustees to complete the purchase, and confers upon them also the following powers:

(1) To appropriate such part of the said site as they may deem expedient for the Connexional building.

(2) To sell or let on building lease on such terms as they may think expedient any parts of the site not appropriated for the Connexional building.

(3) To exchange any portion or portions of the site for other land, and to purchase any other pieces or parcels of land which they may think convenient to be held with the site.

(4) To lay out, construct, and dedicate to the public on such terms as they may think expedient any street or streets which they may deem advantageous for the development or use of the site.

(5) To pull down any of the buildings on the site.

(6) To buy up any rights or easements in any way affecting the site.

(7) To borrow money on mortgage or charge on all or any part of the site.

(8) To take the conveyance of the site or any part thereof in the names of all or any of the Trustees.

(9) The Conference empowers the Trustees to appoint Secretaries and Treasurers, and directs that any resolution passed by a majority of the Trustees present and voting at a meeting of the Trustees summoned by one of their Secretaries on fourteen days' clear notice, shall be considered the act of the Trustees.

(10) The Conference instructs the Trustees to settle and submit for the consideration of the next Conference a scheme of Trusts upon which the Connexional building may be settled, which Trusts shall be in accordance with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1899.

11. The following are appointed the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. Q. XXI. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent to the annual District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XXII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Synods, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. Lay Representation in Synods (see pp. 110, 111).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., for the ability and impartiality with which he presided over the sessions of the last Conference, and for the eminent services he has rendered to the Connexion throughout the year.

2. Mr. J. Bamford Slack, B.A., is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held in Belfast in June, 1903.

3. Mr. John Barnsley is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly, to be held in Pontypridd in June, 1903.

4. The Rev. Walford Green is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See p. 113.)

5. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1903.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1903.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Legal Conference, resident in Great Britain, who is unable to attend the Conference.

6. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

7. The Rev. George Denton is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex officio member of that Session.

Nomination Committee.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of (a) the sixteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference who retire in 1904; viz. the Right Hon. Sir Henry Fowler, G.C.S.I., M.P., Messrs. William Middlebrook, John R. Barlow, B.A., J. Tudor Walters, Joseph Beckett, Josiah Gunton, Lewis Williams, Thomas F. C. May, T. Skelton Cole, Isaac H. Holden, Alfred Brookes, John S. Randles, M.P., William J. Davey, Charles S. Denniss, Charles E. L. Gardner, Henry B. Law; (b) sixteen Ministers appointed by the Conference in its Pastoral Session; and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister, and one Layman.

2. Mr. Peter F. Wood is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. James Chapman, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) to convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Monday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence some Ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed Representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the Constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable; but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Synod, and every change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible: the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and postal address of each Layman.

N.B.—A complete List of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new members, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees.

The Custody of Connexional Documents.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and repeats the instructions contained in Standing Order No. 10.

2. The Committee shall consist of the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; and the

Rev. Joseph Bush,	Rev. Ralph M. Spoor,
„ Walford Green,	Mr. John Gibbs,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ William Perkins,	„ Alfred Hartley,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,	„ George W. Munt,
„ Dr. Rigg,

3. The Rev. JOSEPH BUSH, WALFORD GREEN, and Dr. RIGG are re-appointed to examine the documents already lodged with the Custodian, and to define somewhat more clearly and fully what documents relating to the growth and history of our Church ought to be deposited with the Custodian of Connexional Documents.

4. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Custodian and Registrar, and also Convener of the Committee.

Office of the Theological Institution, Children's, and Auxiliary Funds.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VIII.)

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

Common Cash.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IX.)

2. The Committee is re-appointed, and consists of the Officers of the various Connexional Funds included in the arrangement.

3. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such; and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; with

Rev. Josiah Banham,	Mr. J. Calvert Coates,
„ Albert Clayton,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ Henry Holloway,
„ Allen Rees,	„ George W. Munt,
„ Dr. Waller,	„ Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. ALLEN REES is the Convener.

Compulsory Supernumeraryship.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

3. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

4. The following is the Committee:

Rev. Walford Green,	Mr. John L. Barker,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,	„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ G. Stringer Rowe,	„ Thomas Walker.
„ Peter Thompson,

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

Training and Equipment of Class-leaders, etc.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference refers the whole subject for further consideration during the year to the following Committee:

The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Joseph Bush,	Mr. Thomas Barclay,
„ William Collett,	„ Thomas J. Blaydes,
„ John W. Crake,	„ William J. Davey,
„ James Cuthbertson,	„ Thomas H. Deakin,

„ J. Harrop Taylor,	„ William H. Smith,
„ William L. Watkinson,	„ Charles V. Thomas,
„ W. Charles Williams,	„ J. Wesley Walker.

The Rev. WILLIAM COLLETT is the Convener.

3. The Conference re-affirms the following Resolution of 1891: For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-school Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be occasionally held. (Minutes, 1891, p. 329.)

Conference Arrangements.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves: (1) That in order to afford sufficient time for the proper discharge of the business of the Conference, an Evening Session be held on each day of the Representative week, if necessary.

(2) That the reception of Representatives from other Conferences take place in the Conference Chapel itself, on the Thursday of the Representative week, in the Evening Session.

(3) That, as a rule, one member of the Irish representation and one from the South African Conference be heard annually, one from France every alternate year, and Representatives from the General Conferences of the American M.E. Churches, of Canada, and of Australasia, whenever they are appointed. Visitors from the Annual Conferences of the countries last named shall only be introduced to the Conference.

(4) That Deputations from other Churches be received in the last hour of the morning Session of the third day of the Conference.

Methodism in Cambridge.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, with the same instructions as last year; viz. to consider

(1) How it is possible to obtain in Cambridge a Church Building worthy of Methodism and suitably near the Colleges; and

(2) How such ministerial oversight can be given to the growing numbers of Methodist undergraduates, that they may not only be retained or won as members of our Church, but also, when qualified, led to join the ranks of our ministry.

3. The Conference authorises the General Chapel Committee to give such financial assistance as may be found necessary to enable this Committee to secure a site in Cambridge suitably near the Colleges.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Dr. Allen,
„ William T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D.,

Mr. James E. Vanner,
„ Thomas Walker,
„ William E. Walker,

and the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Cambridge Circuit.

The Rev. WILLIAM BRADFIELD, B.A., is the Convener.

The Theological Institution.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee.

2. The Conference resolves: (1) That no change be made in the existing Connexional provision for the training of Candidates for the Ministry, which involves the sale or the alienation from its present and historical uses as legally determined by its trust deeds of any of the Colleges included in our Theological Institution.

(2) That as soon as practicable the term of residence of Students at the Theological Institution be extended to four years.

(3) That some method be adopted of bringing the four Branches of the Institution into closer association for the purposes of tuition. The special missionary character of the Richmond College need not interfere with its being worked in harmony with the arrangements proposed. With a view to the gradual accomplishment of this close association of the Colleges for educational purposes the Conference directs:

i. (a) That the course of study at the several Colleges be so arranged as more fully to meet the cases of Candidates of different attainments.

(b) That in the allocation of Candidates due regard be had to the principle of sending men to that College whose course will best meet their special needs.

(c) That, as at present, every Student be taught the Greek Testament; and that, in the case of such Students as are not recommended by their Tutors to take Hebrew or Latin, arrangements be made for special instruction in the English Bible, English Literature and History, Philosophy, and kindred subjects.

(d) That as far as possible those Candidates who are likely to matriculate be sent to the same College, at which special provision shall be made for their help.

(e) That Students pursuing a University career in Arts study at the College to which Candidates for matriculation are assigned; that Students pursuing a University course in Divinity study at one or more of the other Colleges; and that in each of these Colleges suitable arrangements be made for the instruction of these Students.

(f) That Students preparing for the final B.D. examination be as a rule sent to the same College.

ii. (a) That in view of the increasing need of specialisation in Biblical and Theological studies arrangements be made as soon as possible for the appointment of Tutors to devote themselves respectively to Hebrew and Old Testament studies, to Greek and New Testament studies, and to Church History and Patristic Literature; and that as a step towards this end, the staffs of Richmond, Headingley, and Handsworth Colleges be placed on a level with the staff of Didsbury College.

(b) That in every College where the number of Tutors makes it practicable, one Tutor devote himself mainly to Hebrew and Old Testament subjects, and another to Greek and New Testament subjects; and that, where this is not immediately possible, additional help be given by the appointment of Assistant Tutors.

iii. The Conference refers these directions to the General Committee of the Theological Institution with a view to their being carried out with as little delay as possible.

Lay Representation in Synods.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Home Mission Committee on this subject, as follows: That the provision for Circuit Representation in Synods presents several gross and unjustifiable inequalities, which are calculated to detract from the influence and efficiency of the Synod. Under the existing regulations, Circuits, or even Mission Stations, having only one minister, and in some cases very few members, send three Lay Representatives to the Synod, whilst no Circuit, however large the number of its ministers and members, can send more than four. The result is that some small dependent Circuits find it difficult to send three suitable persons, whilst influential and responsible Laymen from the larger Circuits are excluded. In view of these facts the Committee is of opinion that this question cannot be settled by any special provision in favour of large amalgamated or Mission Circuits, and that it should be determined on general grounds of fairness and equity to all the different classes of Circuits. The Committee is further of opinion that it is undesirable to increase the total representation, and that a reasonable balance can only be secured by lessening the representation in the class of Circuit first named, with a view to its proportionate increase in the other class of Circuits.

2. The Conference provisionally adopts the following scheme:

(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds in the following proportion; viz. (1) Circuits having one or two ministers shall elect one representative; (2) Circuits having more than two ministers may elect one additional representative for each minister in full connexion over the number of two.

The Volume of Agenda.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee to consider whether the Agenda for the Representative Session cannot be completed at an earlier date than hitherto, so that it may be sent to members of the Conference some days in advance of the date of assembling.

2. The following is the Committee: The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Joseph Bush, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Waller; Messrs. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., George Lidgett, B.A., and J. Bamford Slack, B.A.; with Rev. RALPH M. SPOOR, Convener.

Education Bill, 1902.—The Conference once more declares that the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education is the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family. The Conference, therefore, deeply regrets that the present Education Bill is intended to destroy the School Board system, and to make no adequate provision for the just claims of those parents who do not desire their children to be driven into denominational schools. The Conference has no wish to abolish the denominational schools, or to prevent them from being used, with equitable restrictions, for the purpose of giving denominational education to those children whose parents desire it. But the Conference expresses once more its deep conviction that no increased grant from public funds should be made to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management. If, however, denominational schools are to be almost wholly maintained from imperial taxes and local rates, the irreducible minimum of the rights of conscience and of public justice demands that at least a majority of the local education authority and of the governing Committee of every school shall consist of publicly elected persons.

Memorandum of Agreement.—The Conference adopts the following revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Fund by (a) Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and (b) married men received as Candidates:

(a)	1. To the Home Mission Fund ...	£160.
	2. To the Fund for the Maintenance of Ministers' Children ...	£25 4*s.* for each child.
	3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows Fund ...	£7 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.
(b)	To the Fund for the Maintenance of Ministers' Children ...	£26 5*s.* for each child; thus placing such child on the Fund.

Restoration of Peace.—The Conference expresses its deep thankfulness to Almighty God for the restoration of peace in South Africa, and earnestly prays that with the termination of war there may commence a new era of prolonged prosperity throughout that part of his Majesty's dominions.

Conference Railway Facilities.—The Conference desires to express to the British Railway Companies its cordial thanks for the reduced fares which they have granted, and which have induced many members of the families of delegates, and others also, to attend the Conference meetings, who otherwise would not have travelled. The Conference urges upon the Railway Companies the importance of continuing this facility, feeling assured that it will lead to a substantial increase in their revenues.

Transfers from Welsh to English Work.—In future no transfer of a minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Missionary Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings, and has approved the same.

District Missionaries.—The Conference rescinds the Regulations for the Employment of a District Missionary. (Minutes, 1878, p. 229.)

The Auxiliary Fund.—In order to harmonize legislation affecting the Auxiliary Fund Collections, the Conference formally repeals the rule passed in 1885, which fixed the September Visitation of the Classes as the time for bringing the claims of the Auxiliary Fund before the members.

District Committees.—The Conference directs that the Regulations in regard to the District Committees having charge of Foreign Missions and Education shall apply also to the District Temperance and Local Preachers' Committees, namely: That one Lay member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of four-fifths of the Synod.

Q. XXVIII. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, forty:

(1) Austin Davey: born on August 16, 1829; and died at East Grinstead, September 6, 1901. He owed his conversion, under God, to his mother, a devoted Methodist. After doing good work as a local preacher and class-leader in the Kendal Circuit, he entered our Ministry in 1858, and rendered faithful and fruitful service for more than forty years. He was eminently simple-hearted and sincere, faithful to Christ and to his own Church, fearless where duty was concerned, useful and exemplary. His sermons were evangelical and practical. He spoke out of the abundance of the heart, and his words were often uplifting and comforting. His visits to the homes of the people won him their esteem and affection. In sickness and trouble he was a true messenger of comfort. He taught the young people to love our hymns and to sing them to his favourite tunes. He shone most in his own home, where his genial humour and unruffled temper endeared him to all. His children were early led to join their father's Church. As a Supernumerary at East Grinstead he rendered very efficient service for four years. He was deeply interested in village Methodism, and eagerly sought out openings for extension. As physical strength failed God filled his heart with comfort; he thought much of that promise, "Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him," and would say how highly God valued our love and what honour He set upon it. The last evening of his life he chose as the hymn for family worship :

> Sun of my soul! Thou Saviour dear,
> It is not night if Thou be near.

He was too weak to sing, but the hymn was his own heartfelt experience. In his last illness he often asked that Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" might be read to him. Its hope was fulfilled. He knew "no sadness of farewell." Peacefully he passed into the presence of his Lord in the seventy-third year of his age and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(2) Alexander Hoskings: born in Penzance on February 26, 1833. His parents were devoted Methodists, and as the result of God's blessing on their training, from seven years of age he knew and loved the Lord Jesus Christ. In youth he was studious, and as secretary of the Sunday school, leader of a young men's Bible-class, and organist of the chapel, found ample opportunities for usefulness. In 1860 he became a Candidate for the Ministry, and was at once sent from a solicitor's office into a Circuit. For some years he laboured in home mission stations with marked success, and subsequently, wherever appointed, in a quiet, unostentatious, self-forgetting spirit, he did noble and enduring work. In discharging the duties of his vocation he was uniformly diligent and faithful. He would not render to the Lord of that which cost him nothing. In evangelistic services he delighted. His supreme and constant aim was to be doing good. His preaching was pointed, practical, profitable, and his addresses to children were bright and attractive. He was a true pastor of the flock, full of sympathy with personal and domestic affliction, and his visits to the sick and sorrowful were greatly blessed. In 1900 he became a Supernumerary, and went to live at Haslemere, in the Surrey and North Hampshire Mission. For a few months he was able to watch over and minister to the little Church, in the brightening prospects of which he took the deepest interest. On September 19, 1901, he removed to Midhurst, and two days afterwards, calm and trustful, with a smile on his countenance, "he fell asleep," in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry.

(3) William Charles Sheppard: born August 21, 1873. He was trained for the Lord in a Methodist home. At the age of fifteen he was converted, and shortly afterwards entered on Christian work. He preached his first sermon in the kitchen of a farmhouse in the village of Stratton-on-the-Fosse. For eighteen months he was in charge of one of our gospel cars, and was the means of winning many for Jesus Christ. In 1899 he was accepted by the Conference as a Candidate for the Ministry and appointed to the Tredegar Circuit. He was greatly beloved by the people. In 1900 he was sent to Handsworth College. Early in 1901 his health failed, and on October 6, 1901, he died at his home in Radstock. His disposition was full of brightness, sweetness, and simplicity. His devotional instincts were exceedingly strong. He had a passion to live to preach the gospel. A few days before he died he was heard to say, in prayerful meditation, that he would be satisfied if God would grant him ten years in which to proclaim His truth. When it became evident that his desire was not to be granted, he expressed full resignation to the will of God, and he died in great peace and in the hope of everlasting life.

(4) Stephen Cox, born at Tipton in 1827, was the son of Mr. Thomas Cox, whose home was conspicuous for its hospitality, high-toned piety, and family religion. The fact that four out of five of Mr. Cox's sons became Wesleyan Ministers reveals the character of the religious training Stephen Cox was privileged to receive. Early in life he decided for Christ. Answering the call of the Holy Spirit he gave himself to the work of preaching, and was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in the year 1851, being sent to the Didsbury Branch of the Theological Institution. He began his circuit Ministry at Scarborough in 1854, and for forty-three years discharged the varied duties of his office with integrity, enthusiasm, and success. In 1893 he was elected into the Legal Conference, and subsequently, for a short time, was Chairman of the Exeter District. In 1897 he became a Supernumerary at Portishead, in the Clevedon Circuit, where he rendered excellent service. In 1900 he removed to Bristol, continuing to preach up to the full measure of his strength. On Children's Sunday, October 20, 1901, he conducted the evening service in Trinity Chapel, Bristol, preaching with great spiritual power and closing the service with a prayer-meeting. Going home, he retired to rest, and soon fell asleep. In the morning his daughter found him lying in the sleep of death. Strength and gentleness were combined in his character. He was a man of deep convictions, who held tenaciously to the principles of Wesleyan Methodism. To the last moment of his life his keen sense of duty was not dulled. His personal sorrows deepened his sympathy for others, and fitted him to minister consolation. He won the goodwill of all sorts and conditions of men. He has left behind him the memory of a life spent in the service of others—the life of one who had been made meet to be a partaker "of the inheritance of the saints in light."

(5) William B. Le Bert: born at Plymouth on June 18, 1817. He was of Huguenot descent, his ancestors having been driven from their native land by religious persecution. Converted to God in his youth, he early became a member of the Methodist Church. Under the influence of a godly class-leader of remarkable gifts, Mr. Nicholas Stapleton, his religious life was quickened, and his thoughts turned towards Christian service. In a theological class conducted by that devoted man, he had as fellow-members several young men who have rendered distinguished service to Methodism, including the late Rev. Joseph West and Dr. William B. Pope. Passing over to Ireland, he became a teacher, and entered the Ministry of the Irish Conference in 1844 For thirty-eight years he rendered faithful service, marked by quiet heroism and uncomplaining self-sacrifice, in wide and laborious circuits, enduring hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. For his efforts in opposition to the Maynooth grant his life was threatened. His preaching was evangelical, expository, and fruitful. Unassuming and sensitive, his bearing was that of a Christian gentleman. He was intensely loyal to his brethren. In 1882 he retired from the active work, and, after several years' residence in Ireland, removed to Liverpool. His last years were spent in the Bootle and Waterloo Circuits. He retained his deep interest in the welfare of Methodism as long as he lived. His last illness, which was of brief duration, was cheerfully borne. When the end drew near, one of his sons reminded him of the necessity of trust in Christ. He replied, "Whom have I in heaven but Thee?" and added, "There is none to trust in but Jesus." He passed to his reward on Tuesday, October 29, 1901, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(6) Henry Bone: born at Budock, near Falmouth, May 9, 1840. His parents were earnest Methodists, whose house was constantly visited by Methodist preachers. Though the formation of his character was greatly influenced by these surroundings, it was not till he was eighteen years of age that he was decidedly converted to God, in a service conducted by the Rev. Anthony Taylor. He as regularly observed the anniversary of that event as he did that of his natural birthday. In 1864 he was accepted for our Ministry and sent to Richmond College. With the exception of three years at Hackney, the whole of his ministerial life was spent in the north of England, his first Circuit being Bacup. At the Hull Conference of 1898 he was elected by nomination a member of the Legal Conference. His religious experience was earnest and joyous, and deepened with the lapse of time. He was an effective platform speaker, and by his evangelical ministry many were brought to God. As a Superintendent he was firm and kind, and was greatly beloved in his Circuits; to his colleagues he was brotherly and considerate. His love for Methodism was intense, and to its doctrines and polity he was heartily attached. Whilst in Hull he suffered a severe illness, from which he never fully recovered. For a while after his appointment to the Leeds (Chapel Allerton) Circuit his health appeared greatly to improve, but the improvement was not maintained. In spite, however, of suffering and increasing weakness, sustained by his natural buoyancy and the love of his work, he bravely continued it until within a few days of his death. The end came, as he undoubtedly would have desired, whilst he was in harness. He died in great peace at Chapel Allerton, November 11, 1901.

(7) Joseph Hammond: born at Delph Hill, near Bolton, October 25, 1838. He had all the blessings which are the portion of those who have godly parents. In early life he gave his heart to God and began soon after to work for his Lord. At seventeen he was a local preacher. It was evident to all who knew him that he had intellectual and spiritual gifts, which fitted him for special usefulness. To the call of the Master and of the Church he gave a whole-hearted response. After three happy years at Didsbury, he was sent to the West Indies in 1863. He laboured in the Antigua District for seven years, winning in all the islands where he lived the high esteem of the white population and the love and reverence of the coloured people. He took the deepest interest in the social and spiritual welfare of those committed to his charge. His ministry was faithful and fruitful, and he instructed and trained many natives for the Ministry and for work in the Church. He was pre-eminently a preacher, and delighted to unfold and enforce the truth of the gospel. His ministry was also a ministry of consolation.

During his later years his sight suffered greatly, and he was thrown upon his store of reading and rich experience, which he utilised in many ways in a ministry that was most helpful to thoughtful men disquieted by the problems of the day or suffering from the sorrows of life. At the Conference of 1901 he was stationed at Rawtenstall, where he soon endeared himself, as a preacher and pastor, to the people. On Sunday, November 10, 1901, he preached twice. On the following Wednesday, as he was preparing to go to Blackburn, the pain from which he had been suffering for some time suddenly became acute, and in a few hours he passed away. He leaves to his many friends and the Church he loved the memory of a well-spent life.

(8) THOMAS RICHARDS: born at Penzance in the year 1830. His parents were heartily attached to the Wesleyan Church, and under their training and Christian influence he gave his heart to God when only fourteen years of age, and soon after became a local preacher. At the age of twenty-six he yielded to the call of the Church, and was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference of 1856. With the exception of one year at Doncaster, the whole of his ministerial life was spent in the south-west, Dorchester and Liskeard witnessing gracious revivals under his ministry. Blessed with a vigorous constitution, he used his strength for the glory of God. He was a diligent pastor, a faithful and earnest preacher, and a loyal servant of Christ and His Church. He became a Supernumerary in 1898, after travelling forty-two years, and made choice of Exeter for his home. Here he continued "in labours more abundant," preaching twice every Sunday, meeting classes, helping young local preachers, and taking an earnest part in general Christian service. On Sunday, November 17, 1901, he preached morning and evening in the Boutport Street Chapel, Barnstaple, and addressed the children in the afternoon. He rose on Monday morning apparently in his usual health, but after taking his seat in the train he was seized by sudden illness, and before the train left the station he had passed away. His Lord had, in a moment, discharged him from service and given him admission to the "saints' everlasting rest."

(9) Robert Eardley, B.A.: born November 10, 1818, became an Itinerant Minister in the year 1857, and died November 18, 1901, in peace.

 Brother Eardley has left among his papers a document in which he respectfully and solemnly entreats the Wesleyan Conference of the year in which he may die, that no further notice be given in the Minutes than the above form. In accordance with that request we refrain from saying what our hearts would otherwise wish to say touching this life of simple, stainless beauty.

(10) John Owen Parry: born at Llanelidan, near Ruthin, Denbighshire, November 23, 1860. He was indebted to his mother for the religious training which led to his conversion. In 1887 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and after three years' training at Didsbury College entered upon Circuit work, and laboured with devotion and acceptance until 1898, when, owing to feeble health, he became a Supernumerary. His mental abilities were of a high order, and he was a diligent student and a hard worker. He set himself vigorously to search after truth, and manifested fearlessness in maintaining it. His thoughtful and cultured preaching was greatly appreciated by his congregations. During his ministry he suffered much from bodily infirmity, and his last illness was long and severe; but he bore it with patience, courage, and unfailing trust in the wisdom and goodness of God. He fell asleep at Towyn, Merionethshire, November 21, 1901, in the forty-first year of his age and the twelfth of his ministry.

(11) Samuel Walker: born at Louth, in Lincolnshire, March 11, 1813. Converted to God in his youth through the Christian influence of the family in which he resided as an apprentice, he joined the Methodist Society, and shortly afterwards became a local preacher. He had a passion for mental improvement, and formed the habit of rising at four o'clock in the morning to study Hebrew and Greek. In 1838 he was appointed to his first Circuit, and for forty-six years laboured with ever-growing acceptance in some of the influential Circuits in the Connexion. In 1884 his active ministry came to an end in Scarborough, where he spent the last seventeen years of his life, in the midst of a people who truly loved him and appreciated his labours. He was a many-sided man, with a wide horizon. But he was essentially a preacher—skilful in phrase, fresh and terse in thought. His sermons sparkled with epigram and proverbial philosophy, which never failed to hold the attention of his hearers, who regarded his lucid expositions as a message to their intellect and heart. Incessant reading in theological, philosophical, and general literature and systematic thinking made him a full and a ready man for both the pulpit and platform, which his eloquence alike adorned. He was highly esteemed by his colleagues, many of whom loved him as a father. His example and counsel inspired them to read the best books, and make the utmost of their opportunities.

As a Superintendent he showed great administrative ability, and a genius not only for managing affairs, but for governing men. He had a charming personality, and a character above reproach. He was everywhere a gentleman, and strove to inspire others with the same spirit. Though possessing great resources of knowledge, there was an utter absence of pedantry in his conversation and manner. His life passion was so to qualify himself for preaching Christ that he could conscientiously say, "This one thing I do." His broad and catholic spirit drew toward him ministers of all denominations, who revered him for his piety and intelligence. As a Supernumerary he continued to preach with unabated acceptance, until infirmity of mind and body compelled him to rest. The closing years of his life were marked by great feebleness and suffering, which made him long for home. During the last three years he was unable to converse with his friends, even upon subjects ever dear to his heart. On Sunday, November 24, 1901, he passed peacefully to his rest, in his eighty-ninth year.

(12) David Barley: born at Spilsby on March 25, 1817; entered the Ministry, 1844; died at Birmingham, November 26, 1901. He was the son of Christian parents, and enjoyed a thoroughly religious training; but it was under the preaching of William Dawson that he was definitely converted to God. After a theological training in the Institution at Hoxton, he was appointed to labour in the West Indies, where he rendered faithful and efficient service for a period of twenty years. In 1865 he left the foreign field, and during the next twenty-five years ministered with much acceptance in some of the most important spheres of labour. The last ten years of his life were spent in Birmingham (Islington) Circuit, where, as a Supernumerary Minister, he went about doing good and winning the affection of the people. The distinguishing marks of his character were conscientiousness and courtesy, simplicity of motive and humility of spirit, tender sympathy with human suffering, and Christian fidelity. His preaching was characterised by plainness of speech, directness of aim, and fervency of feeling. He was powerful in prayer, conveying the impression that he lived in its spirit and was at home in its exercise. While always welcome in the homes of our people, he was specially helpful to the sick and sorrowful. According to the testimony of all who knew him, he was a good man, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost. When his physical and mental energy began to fail, his love for the house of God and its services, the people of God and their fellowship, showed no decline. His fortitude and faith, under the burden of fourscore and four years, were strikingly manifest, and when the end came he gently fell asleep and was gathered to his people.

(13) Joseph Rhodes (A): born at Bradford, Yorkshire, December 18, 1841. His parents were devout Methodists, his father being leader of a large class at Eastbrook Chapel. When about twelve years of age he was sent to school at Stutton, near Tadcaster. Under the influence of his schoolmaster, Mr. Stacey, he and several of his schoolfellows were led to give themselves to the Lord and at once to engage, as they were able, in His service. They met after school hours for prayer and Bible-reading. In their vacation they took an enthusiastic part in meetings held for the inauguration of Juvenile Missionary Associations on the Blake system in Bradford and in other parts of the West Riding. He entered the Ministry in 1863, and was sent immediately into Circuit work. He was a man greatly beloved as a pastor, preacher, and friend. His preaching was simple, fervent, attractive, overflowing with devout affection, bright with anecdote and quotation, and was blessed to the conversion of many. He frequently said, "There is no joy under the stars like that of pointing a seeking soul to the Saviour." He delighted in prayer-meetings and class-meetings, and in the varied duties of a Methodist pastor. Few men have won more affection from those to whom he ministered. His naturally happy disposition made him a welcome visitor, and his simple, cheerful piety deeply impressed all who knew him. He had a passionate love for the songs of Zion, and sang with heart and voice in the sanctuary and in the home. For fifteen years he rendered most efficient service as the Conference Precentor. In 1900 his health, which had been feeble for some years, seriously failed, and he became a Supernumerary. He accepted the divine will with cheerful submission, and, notwithstanding increasing weakness and frequent attacks of severe pain, he rejoiced in the Lord always. Early in the evening of November 29, 1901, as he sat in the family circle singing favourite hymns, his happy, saintly spirit was suddenly called to join the choir invisible. He had dwelt in the land of Beulah, "where the sun shineth night and day," so when the summons came he was ready to depart, and "went through the river singing."

(14) William Parsonson: born July 8, 1825, at Doncaster. He was trained in a godly home. After his school life he entered the town clerk's office, where business habits were formed which helped him in a high degree in his subsequent career. Early in life he received impressions and convictions which issued in his decision for Christ after a sermon by the late Dr. Jobson. He was accepted by the Conference in 1847, and sent to the Shetland Mission, where he laboured for ten successive years, the last three as Chairman of the District. In his subsequent Circuits he won the appreciation and love of all by his singleness of aim and unswerving devotion. His sermons gave evidence of careful preparation, and his appeals were at times most powerful. In 1893 he became a Supernumerary and settled at Great Totham, in the Maldon Circuit, where for five years he did good service as preacher and pastor. He removed to Bilston in 1899 that he might be among friends, whose affection for him was shown in many ways, and among whom he had done some of his best work. As a Superintendent he was judicious, exact, and kind. In his own writing this testimony was found after his death: "I rest my whole soul on Christ alone for full salvation, and look for the glorious hope of eternal life." He died on January 13, 1902, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(15) David Jones (B) (who was also known in Wales by his bardic name, Druisyn): born in Cerrig-y-Druidion, Denbighshire, in 1840. He was converted to God in early life, and soon gave evidence of thoughtfulness and aptitude for service. When about nineteen years of age he began to preach, and was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1861, and appointed to labour at Tregarth. By unremitting attention to study and self-culture he acquired refined tastes, and became a preacher of much precision in thought and diction. His sermons were prepared with conscientious care and exactness, and delivered with clearness and calmness, often with power. They were rich in exposition of the truth, evangelical and practical. As a Superintendent he was methodical and thorough. He had an enlightened affection for Methodist theology, and was a faithful administrator of our discipline. In disposition he was quiet and retiring, but when truth or duty called for it he could speak with firmness and authority. He was a true friend and possessed strong family affections. His demeanour was courteous and dignified. After a brief illness he fell asleep at Widnes on Sunday morning, January 26, 1902. Some of his last words were, "My trust in my Saviour remains immovable"; "My flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever."

(16) Anthony G. Ward: born June 30, 1833, at Plymouth. He was baptized and confirmed in the Church of England, but during a memorable revival in Plymouth was converted to God and joined the Methodist Church, becoming an active worker in the Sunday school and a local preacher. Having been accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, he was sent to Richmond College. His first appointment in 1859 was to the West Indies, where he laboured for five years. On his return home he greatly endeared himself in all his Circuits by his gracious and winning ministry and pastoral fidelity. At the Conference of 1894 he became a Supernumerary and retired to Highgate, where he lived for seven or eight years, winning the respect and affection of all who came in contact with him. He was a Christian gentleman, refined alike in taste and manner. He adorned the gospel he preached by the purity of his life, by the lowliness of his mind, and by his patience in affliction. He loved God's house, and regularly attended its services to the last. On Sunday morning, January 26, 1902, without seeing death, this faithful minister of our Church was called home to God, full of peace and honour, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(17) ABRAHAM PEARCE: born October 20, 1836, at Truscoe, a village in South Cornwall, and died at the residence of his children in Horwich, January 27, 1902. As a boy he had the advantage of Christian home training, and in early youth during a revival in the neighbourhood he was led to definite religious decision. Very early he began to preach, and conducted services night after night with such consuming zeal as to bring on an attack of hæmorrhage which nearly proved fatal. By the Conference of 1859 he was accepted for foreign missions, and after two years at Richmond College sailed to the West Indies, where for twelve years he worked in the islands of the Antigua District, and saw some wonderful revivals of religion. Impaired health compelled his return to England in 1873. Here he laboured for twenty-seven years, mostly in the manufacturing districts of the north.

A diligent student of theology and Methodist polity, he became an able and judicious administrator of Circuit affairs, and witnessed much material prosperity in the erection of chapels and the removing of burdensome debts. While firm in matters of principle, he was kindly and conciliatory to everyone, and his judgments of men and measures were sagacious. In all his Circuits he conducted special evangelistic services, frequently preaching in the open air and holding cottage meetings. He was a diligent pastor, giving special attention to those who were sick or in trouble. His Saturday afternoon meetings for children won him many young friends; everywhere he exercised a singular gift of fervent and appropriate prayer. Considerate of his colleagues and jealous for their good name, he formed with some of them lifelong friendships. An affectionate and careful father, he had the joy of seeing all his children in positions of usefulness in the Methodist Church. At the last Conference impaired health obliged him reluctantly to become a Supernumerary. He still continued to preach, and was full of plans of activity till the last week of his life. On the last Sunday he talked freely and hopefully to his children; he then fell into a deep sleep, during which God called him home. A wise, fearless, tender-hearted man, with a transparent simplicity of character, and unreservedly devoted to his work, he served God and his Church with all his powers.

(18) EBENEZER EVANS: born at Devonport in 1831. His family had been Methodists from the early days of Methodism, and early in life he came to the knowledge of God and devoted himself to Christian work. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1852, and sent to Richmond College, where he spent three years. During the thirty years of his active ministry his ministrations were greatly valued, and he himself was much beloved. He loved his work and gave himself wholly to it, as he had given himself wholly to God. He was a man of more than ordinary gifts, who read widely and thought deeply. His discourses are still remembered after an interval of twenty years, and his terse and epigrammatic sayings quoted. He was in a high degree remarkable for his "gift in prayer." There was a breadth and depth of feeling in his public prayers which showed him to be a man of power and of a deeply devout spirit. In Circuit administration he manifested sound knowledge of our constitution and usage. His colleagues remember him with respect and affection for his sympathy and considerateness. His active ministry was closed prematurely by severe illness, and in 1884 he settled as a Supernumerary at Wrexham, where, with quiet courage, he bore a silence of nearly eighteen years, ministering, as he was able, to the sorrowful and the sick, feeling the warmest interest in all Church affairs, and praying much in secret for the cause to which he had given his life. His last illness was unexpected and short, and on February 6, 1902, he died in the "peace of God" and the joy of eternal life.

(19) Daniel Sanderson: born at Cockermouth, February 9, 1819. His family were members of the Church of England; but having been converted under Methodist preaching, he and his mother cast in their lot with the despised sect amid much opposition and at the cost of his patrimony. As a local preacher his youthful appearance and fine physique attracted attention, and by his clear and practical presentation of the truth he commended himself to the consciences of many, and had the joy of leading them to Christ. With a view to qualify himself for the Ministry to which he felt God's call, he studied for one year in Wesley College at his own cost. In 1841 he was appointed as a Missionary to the Mysore. He speedily acquired a thorough knowledge of the Kanarese language and an unusual facility in the use of it. For twenty-five years he laboured in that province, preaching to the heathen in the streets, in the villages, and among the crowds that assembled in the markets and religious festivals. He also took long tours to regions where the gospel had never before been heard. He compiled a Kanarese-English dictionary; edited translations from Sanscrit into Kanarese of several Hindu works; took a leading part in the Bible Translation Committee; and contributed much to Christian literature for the Kanarese Christian Church. All these works he passed through the press himself, and personally supervised the production of the type. He was on the point of returning to Mysore for further service when he was selected as Governor of Richmond College, in which at that time students designated for foreign work chiefly resided. From 1868 to 1891 he filled this position with conspicuous fidelity, and exerted a godly influence over successive generations of young men. He was a man of wide knowledge, great versatility, and in all things strictly methodical. He was most generous in personal gifts for God's work, but strictly economical in the expenditure of college funds. Having lived a life of stern self-denial, he encouraged all the students to "endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ." He had the grace of lowliness and a kind and tender heart. His preaching was soundly evangelical and eminently practical. For nearly eleven years he lived in retirement, and after a quiet eventide he passed away in great peace on February 10, 1902, having completed the eighty-third year of his age and in the sixty-first of his ministry.

(20) EDMUND B. WARTERS: born at Norton, near Malton, March 3, 1811. Both his parents were devoted Methodists, his father being for many years a successful class-leader and local preacher. The influence of a godly home and the fervent prayers of his father made an indelible impression upon his youthful mind, and resulted in his conversion to God during a mission held at Malton. In 1834 he entered the Ministry, and travelled in Scotland and the north of England throughout his forty-six years of active service. During this long period he commanded the respect of all who knew him by his pure and lofty character and unblemished life. There was dignity combined with real simplicity in his bearing, and he always went in and out among the people as a Christian gentleman. He was an able preacher, putting his whole strength of mind and heart into his pulpit work. His sermons were models of clearness, and were effective and attractive to the congregations to which he ministered. Possessing apt conversational gifts, his extensive information, united with kindliness of manner, made him a welcome visitor to the homes of his flock. Always scrupulously conscientious and painstaking, he proved himself, in the discharge of his duties as Superintendent, to be a faithful and judicious administrator. In 1880 he retired to Howden, and four years later settled in the Kingston Circuit, Hull, where he spent a long eventide, and while health permitted rendered valuable service, endearing himself to the people by sympathetic and wise pastoral visitation. When asked a few days before his death from what text he would preach if one more opportunity were given him, he promptly replied, "Salvation belongeth unto the Lord." On February 15, 1902, this venerable servant of God passed peacefully away in the ninety-first year of his age and the sixty-eighth of his ministry.

(21) WILLIAM GOOD: born April 27, 1854, at Ballineen, near Cork. His early years were spent in connexion with the Established Church, and while an attendant upon its services he was converted to God. Removing to London, he found no religious home until brought into contact with Methodism. Soon after joining our Society he began to preach, and was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1879. For twenty-one years he laboured assiduously in some of our most difficult Circuits, and gained the esteem and love of a wide circle of friends. He was a man of an excellent spirit, and most conscientious in the discharge of his duties. As a preacher he was thoughtful, faithful, and earnest, and many were brought to Christ through his ministry. At the last Conference he was appointed to Willington, in the Crook Circuit, and entered upon his work with new resolves and great hopefulness. His work was beginning to be appreciated and his pastoral care to bear fruit when, after three days' illness, he was taken to his rest on Sunday, February 16, 1902.

(22) JOHN HUGHES, D.D. (GLANYSTWYTH): was a native of Cnwch Coch, Cardiganshire, where he was born in 1842. He was brought early to the knowledge of the truth, and entered our Ministry in 1868, Aberdare (Welsh) being his first Circuit. He was a man of high intellectual abilities and of great moral force. In spite of early disadvantages, he rose to a position of service and honour in the Church. By persistent devotion to study, he acquired wide stores of knowledge, which he consecrated unreservedly to the service of Methodism. He was characterised by a fine combination of strength of intellect, tenderness of heart, and force of will. He was broad, liberal, and progressive in his views, an able and fair-minded debater, a writer of much lucidity and gracefulness, and a preacher of great power. He loved to dwell upon the central truths of the New Testament, and was at his best when expounding some of the rich passages in St. Paul's Epistles. His illustrations were fresh and telling, and his delivery fervent and forceful. His volume of sermons, The Image of the Heavenly, and his other works are regarded as valuable contributions to Welsh literature. As a poet he was not only vivid and picturesque, but possessed an insight into the heart of things. As a man and a Christian he was generous, sympathetic, sincere, and courageous. He was a loving colleague and Superintendent, taking particular interest in his younger brethren. He was undaunted in his fidelity to his convictions, and the weak and friendless found in him a tower of strength. The development of Methodism in Wales lay very near his heart, and he took a prominent part in the formation and inauguration of the Welsh Assembly. He was a strong advocate of temperance reform, and took interest in every movement for the advancement of his countrymen. He was endowed with gifts which eminently fitted him to be a leader of men. He filled with efficiency the office of Welsh Book Steward and Editor, and was at the time of his death President-Elect of the Welsh Assembly. He suddenly expired in the midst of his family on February 24, 1902, in the sixtieth year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry. Like Enoch, "he walked with God" and "he was not, for God took him."

(23) JOHN NELSON: born at Bradford, Yorkshire, in 1820, of an old Puritan stock. He entered our ministry in 1847, and for forty-one years laboured with much fidelity, stimulating many to Christian service by example as well as precept. His work was hard and unobtrusive, but his zeal and patience were unfailing. He thought much on the deep things of God, and to intelligent hearers his sermons were full of suggestion and rich in comfort. He became a Supernumerary in 1888, and four years later under medical advice went to New Zealand, where he spent the last ten years of his life. At Tologa Bay he ministered for three years to a congregation gathered from all Churches, and was regarded with universal goodwill and esteem. His mental vigour was maintained to the end, and his ripe Christian character and many excellences won for him the love of all who knew him. He retained his interest in the work in England, particularly in the Twentieth Century Fund. He spent his last days at Dunedin, where he peacefully passed away on March 7, 1902, in the eighty-second year of his life and the fifty-fifth of his ministry. His last words, "I am perfectly resigned to the will of God," summed up the spirit and temper of his whole life.

(24) Robert Jones (B): born at Llanbedr, Merionethshire, in the year 1822. He had a godly parentage, and at an early age was led to seek and to enjoy a sense of acceptance with God. Soon after his conversion he began to exercise his gifts as a local preacher, and in 1846 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After two years at Didsbury College he began to travel in the North Wales District, the district in which the whole of his ministerial life was spent. At the outset he gave abundant promise of those high qualities which distinguished his ministerial career. He was endowed with strong and vigorous mental powers, which he earnestly and successfully cultivated, as well as with a discerning judgment and a keen insight into human nature. In the pulpit he invariably aimed at a distinct enunciation of central truths, and his ministrations were edifying and at times powerful. He was early appointed Superintendent, and by his discriminating, conscientious, and effective administration fully justified the confidence of his brethren. His genial disposition and sterling integrity won him general respect. By his colleagues he was regarded as a true friend and wise counsellor. He was elected to the onerous and responsible office of Welsh Editor and Book Steward for the years 1863–7, and subsequently for 1886–97. In 1886 he was appointed Chairman of the North Wales District, and his wide and minute acquaintance with the district, his sound judgment, his tact and ready wit, enabled him in that position to render further invaluable service to Welsh Methodism. He retired from the active work in 1897, and peacefully passed away March 13, 1902, in the eighty-first year of his age.

(25) Henry W. Jackson, B.A.: born in Prince Edward's Island, 1824. He was the son of the Rev. George Jackson, who for several years was a Missionary in the West Indies and in British North America, and who completed his ministry in the home work. Educated at Woodhouse Grove and at Old Kingswood, he graduated with honours, taking his degree of Bachelor of Arts at Trinity College, Dublin, and was afterwards appointed second master at Woodhouse Grove. He was early the subject of religious impressions, and during a revival at Kingswood, when thirteen years of age, he experienced the pardoning love and peace of God. Entering the Ministry in 1849, he gave the Church of his choice and love an uninterrupted service of forty-two years. Beloved by his people, he was equally esteemed and beloved by his brethren, who delighted to do him honour. For twelve years he held the important position of Financial Secretary, and twice was elected Chairman of a District. At the Conference of 1883 he was elected by nomination into the Legal Conference. In 1891 he retired from the active work to reside at Formby (Waterloo), where for several years he preached with great acceptance, and rendered most valuable pastoral service. Possessing a peculiar charm of manner and a fervent, cheerful piety, his presence was ever welcomed alike in the pulpit and in the home, and the young people, in whom he always took a loving interest, were especially attracted to himself and his message. In 1900 he removed to Lytham, where the last two years of a quiet and bright eventide were spent. Though no longer able to attend the public means of grace, he bore his deprivation patiently and cheerfully, to the last taking a deep interest in everything pertaining to the work of God; and on March 15, 1902, after a few days' illness, the faithful servant, promoted to the higher service in the Church of the Firstborn, entered into the joy of his Lord.

(26) Frederick F. Edmunds: born at Banbury, April 12, 1821. In very early life he obtained the rest of faith in Christ and commenced working in His vineyard. After three happy years at Richmond, he entered upon Circuit work at Maldon in 1846, and continued to labour with vigour and success for twenty years. In 1868 a serious accident resulted in his becoming a Supernumerary. He spent four years in Runcorn and thirty in Frodsham. Though unable to bear the responsibilities of a Circuit Minister, he preached frequently, and took an active part in local meetings. He was fond of reading, and possessed a remarkable knowledge of the Holy Scriptures. His preaching was thoughtful, vigorous, and evangelical. In his earlier days he was a remarkable soul-winner. During the last year of his life he was unable to preach, but delighted in listening to others, and cherished the hope of again preaching the gospel he loved so well. His last illness was of short duration, and on March 20, 1902, bright with hope and full of faith he peacefully passed away in the eighty-first year of his life and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(27) William Jessop: born in Sheffield on February 28, 1815. The spiritual atmosphere of his home, and the intelligent, earnest, and cheerful godliness of his parents, led him to decide for Christ at the age of twelve. It was in his father's class that he made the surrender and experienced the change which became the spring of all those forces which made the strength and beauty of his life. In his youth he read eagerly and studied hard. Under the strain of severe study his health broke down completely. He recovered, however, began to preach, was nominated to the Ministry by the Rev. R. Reece, and in 1836 was appointed to Louth. His preaching became speedily fruitful in the best results, and he rose rapidly to the Superintendency of most important Circuits, the Chairmanship of some of our largest and most active Districts, the Governorship of Wesley College, and membership in the Legal Conference. The last eighteen years of his life were spent in the restful quietness of a Supernumerary at Woodhouse Grove, but while physical strength allowed he delighted to serve as a preacher and pastor. He was a scholarly man, and refined and courteous in manner. His preaching was largely expository, sustained by a wide and accurate study of theology and the Holy Scriptures, yet so framed in the language and spirit of the times that the people felt he was one of them. He understood well the points of Methodist Church polity, and both as Superintendent and Chairman of a District easily and wisely guided his brethren in administration. He showed vivid appreciation of books, nature, the joyful life of children, the genialities of society; but the fulness of the man, in spiritual insight, wise counsel, and tender sympathy, came out in the class-meeting and the Bible-class. He was a strong man, broad and clear in mental outlook, intense in conviction and sympathy, loving Methodism, her ways and thought, with passionate fervour, yet gentle and sympathetic in his consideration for and interest in other men and other Churches. He stood firmly in the old paths, yet saw his youth and manhood pass away with no impatience or regret; and welcomed new men, new thoughts, new usages, as coming in their own day and by ordinance of God. He died in great peace on April 2, 1902, in his eighty-eighth year.

(28) Joseph Hall: born at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1835. His youth was passed in a Christian home and under godly discipline. He was converted to God and became a member of the Church in early life. His educational advantages were few, but he made good use of his opportunities, and eventually was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry. After spending one year at the Institution, he was appointed to mission work on the West Coast of Africa. At the close of three years' successful toil he returned to his native land. In the Circuits to which he was successively appointed he laboured with much diligence, invariably gaining the esteem of the people and winning souls for Christ. Of modest and retiring disposition, his best qualities were known only to the few who were intimately acquainted with him. He was an ardent Protestant, ever ready to combat Romish errors, and yet singularly free from any trace of bigotry. He loved the Methodist Church, and served its interests in a unique way by the publication of An Alphabetical List of Circuits. His preaching was evangelical, earnest, and practical. His pastoral duties were discharged with diligence and faithfulness. He was a sympathetic and true-hearted colleague, trusted and loved by his brethren. As a Superintendent he was judicious, firm, and considerate. In the prime of life he was compelled by affliction to retire from active work; but though he felt keenly his seclusion, he never murmured, enduring with exemplary patience the will of God. His enjoyment of the means of grace was great, and his attendance at public worship most regular. On Tuesday, April 8, 1902, he suddenly passed away, in the sixty-seventh year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry.

(29) William Foster: born at Crowle on October 5, 1823, into a home permeated with the godly influences of early Methodism. Whilst quite a youth he gave his personal allegiance to Christ, and so clear was the consciousness of salvation that to the end of life his faith never wavered. He joyously responded to a call to the Ministry in the year 1843, and for fifty years laboured with unquenched zeal and single-hearted loyalty for the glory of God and in the interests of Methodism. Physically robust and vigorous, he travelled by choice in country Circuits in agricultural or mining Districts. He was a diligent student of God's word, and so understood the meaning of praying "without ceasing" that men felt that he lived consciously in the presence of the King. His regular habits of visitation, genial sympathy, and unfailing charity gained for him wonderful influence with the people, and especially with the young. His zeal for souls made him ever anxious to make the way to the Cross so clear that no one who heard him could miss it. Relying intimately on the Spirit's help, his ministry was attended by the demonstration of His power in the conversion of sinners and edification of believers. His ready tact and judicious administration secured peace and prosperity in his Circuits. He was an illustration of the combination of gentleness and strength, of forbearance and firmness. His perfect unselfishness, hearty optimism, and loving sympathies endeared him to his colleagues. In his wife he found one whose perfect fellowship and self-denial made the home a sanctuary, and whose steadfast godliness and earnest co-operation rendered invaluable aid to his ministry. They had the joy of seeing two of their sons in our Ministry. In 1891 he was elected into the Legal Conference, and two years later became a Supernumerary. The closing years of his life were full of peace. He rejoiced in the devoted love of children and grandchildren. The mellowed fruits of a perfect Christian character won him many new friends. His presence was considered a benediction to the various Churches where he worshipped. Slowly and almost imperceptibly during the last two years his strength ebbed away, until, at Southport, on the morning of April 15, 1902, he passed painlessly to his reward at the ripe age of seventy-eight years.

(30) William Fern: born at Chapel-en-le-Frith on May 24, 1827. Soon afterwards his parents moved to Sheffield. There, at Brunswick Chapel, he was led to give himself to God at the early age of ten. He laboured in connexion with the choir and Sunday school before becoming a local preacher, and was sent into the Ministry at the Conference of 1849. His Circuits lay in Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Cumberland, and Durham, where labours were abundant and poverty and sorrow far too prevalent. He remained in the "active work" for forty-nine years, until declining health compelled him to become a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1898. The death of his wife, a true and worthy helpmeet, proved a blow from which he never recovered. He had a buoyant disposition and fervid temperament. Definite in his judgments, vigorous in the expression of his opinions, he yet possessed a very tender heart. In his friendships he was loyal, genuine, and faithful. His Bible was his constant companion. He was a devout lover of Wesley's hymns, and delighted in Methodist theology and biography. As a pastor he was diligent, painstaking, and sympathetic. He won the respect and affection of his people, especially of those in distress or trouble. His preaching was racy, homely, and intensely evangelical, characterised by that unction which resulted in the conversion of sinners and the building up of saints. His closing years were marked by much pain, borne with exemplary patience and gentleness. The ties binding him to earth were gently loosened, and it was with joy he heard the summons of his Lord on Thursday, April 24, 1902.

(31) Theophilus S. Gregory, B.A.: born in the island of Nevis, West Indies, on March 15, 1861, and died at Sutton-on-Sea, April 24, 1902. The son of the late Rev. Theophilus S. Gregory, the grandson of the first Rev. Benjamin Gregory, and the great-grandson of Edward Towler, he possessed the characteristics of his line. He was a man of delicate frame and refined sensibility, of shy and modest bearing, of choice mental gifts, and of peculiar sweetness and gentleness of disposition, combined with firmness and force of character. His piety was tender, deep, and steadily cheerful. His preaching had a special charm. It exhibited the thoughtful-ness, exactness, and ripe knowledge of the scholar, united to the spiritual insight and unction of the man of God. His pastoral sympathies were keen and active. He had a hereditary love for Methodist discipline, scrupulously minding every point, great and small, of his responsibilities in Circuit work; he served with acceptance as Financial Secretary in one of his Districts, and was marked out for distinction amongst his brethren. His boyhood, spent chiefly at Woodhouse Grove School, was blameless and diligent, and characterised by a rare unselfishness. He entered the Ministry, after passing through the Headingley College with much honour, in the year 1885. His Circuit career was one of constant usefulness and growing power. Early in 1901 he was assailed by the disease which ultimately proved fatal. Hopes were raised that his removal to a seaside residence would effect a complete restoration, but his strength succumbed to the renewed attack in the following winter. Though labouring for but a few months in the Alford Circuit, he had won the hearts of its people to an uncommon degree. His death at so early an age, and under pathetic circumstances, excited widespread sorrow. "Devout men made great lamentation over him."

(32) JOHN GAY WILSON: born at Malmesbury on October 11, 1807. He was under deep religious impressions from childhood, and often earnestly sought God's mercy; but he found no religious guide till a godly Methodist invited him to his class. He was then sixteen, and at once resolved that this people should be his people. He gave up worldly amusements, and thought that he should soon be a very good Christian. A sermon on "The Wise and Foolish Builders" showed him the way of faith, and he was soon able to rest in the pardoning love of God. He received his first ticket of membership in June, 1824, and in due time became a local preacher at Stroud. There he married and set up in business; but a clear call for the Ministry led him to give up his occupation, and in 1832 he was appointed to Leamington. For forty-one years he rendered efficient service in our Ministry. His people loved him and profited greatly by his earnest and evangelical preaching. He laboured for ten years in Cornwall, and in 1844 had the joy of seeing about a thousand people added to the Church in the St. Just Circuit. He loved his work, and his sermons were full of Christ and powerful in appeal to the heart and conscience.

In 1873 he retired to Redhill, where for a quarter of a century he was greatly blessed both as a pastor and a preacher. He was a man of prayer, and when too feeble to preach he often prayed in public with remarkable vigour and comprehensiveness. His honoured life was greatly prolonged. He could distinctly remember the Peace of 1814, and his recollections of Methodism fifty years ago were deeply interesting. He retained his faculties almost unimpaired to the last. He read with pleasure for six hours a day, and seemed to remember all he read. For many years he lived on the verge of heaven. "When I go to rest at night," he said, "I know it is uncertain where I shall be in the morning. I am just waiting, trusting, hoping, reading my Bible more than busy Superintendents can do; seeing the virtues and defects of the great Bible characters; thinking day and night about the deep things of God."

All who saw him felt that he was fully ready for his translation. On the day before his death he tried to conduct family prayer as usual. Afterwards he sang two or three verses of favourite hymns, the last of which was

O for a closer walk with God.

A few hours later he became unconscious, and on April 26, 1902, he joined the company above in the ninety-fifth year of his age and the seventieth of his ministry. A sweeter old age and one more wholly consecrated is seldom seen, and religion has become more real and precious to many through John Gay Wilson's life.

(33) George A. Currier: born at Swinton, in Yorkshire, April 28, 1856. He had the inestimable advantage of a Christian parentage, his father being a local preacher. He never broke away from the gracious influences that thus rested upon him, and at a very early age joined the Church of his fathers. Before he was sixteen years old he began to preach, and then the call came to devote his whole life to the proclamation of the gospel. He was accepted as a Candidate, and spent three years at Richmond College. Two years of his early life were passed in South Africa, but his health would not allow him to remain there. He then returned to this country, and served with great acceptance in seven Circuits. He was an earnest preacher, a devoted pastor, a capable man of affairs, a kindly and genial colleague, a faithful servant of his Lord. His illness was only of a week's duration, but very painful. It was, however, borne with Christian fortitude. In his last hour of consciousness he gave a beautiful testimony to the nearness of Christ to him. He passed to his reward on April 30, 1902, in the forty-seventh year of his age and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(34) Frederick Hughes Baker: was received as a Candidate for the Ministry in the year 1896, and after spending two years at Didsbury College, was sent to supply the place of the late Rev. James Lewis, at Southport, where he rendered most acceptable service. At the Conference of 1899 he was appointed to Hither Green, and by his diligence and toil in the midst of unfavourable circumstances achieved great success in the establishment of that new cause. He was a young man of much promise, of a beautiful and devoted spirit, a faithful pastor, and possessed preaching gifts of a high order. Towards the close of his second year of labour he was taken seriously ill, and after several months of weakness died at Davos, in Switzerland, on May 7, 1902, in the twenty-eighth year of his age and the fourth of his Ministry.

(35) James M'Turk: born at Birmingham in the year 1840. His parents were devoted Christians, and he was brought up in a truly Methodist atmosphere. The death of his father, during his fifteenth year, led him to more earnest thought about Christ. Some little time afterwards, whilst praying in his own room, the experience of pardon and peace came to his soul. Soon he became a local preacher, and was urged to offer himself for the Ministry. For many months he struggled against conviction concerning his call; but the sacred impressions deepened, until the command to give his life to the preaching of the gospel became irresistible. His was a noble type of Christian character, a beautiful development of the fruit of the Spirit—gentle, strong, real, and specially marked by modesty. He was loved by every minister who knew him, and his memory is precious in every Circuit that was blessed with his presence and work. His pastoral visits were gracious and fruitful in much spiritual good. In all matters pertaining to the administration of Methodism he was wise and faithful. To the work of preaching he gave his best powers. Many are the testimonies borne to his effective application of divine truth to reason and conscience. His knowledge of human need led him to preach the gospel only. Christ was the beginning and the end of his ministry. His personal experience of the Saviour was an abiding factor in all his private and public life. His departure to be with Christ came suddenly. An apoplectic seizure overtook him whilst holding a Trustees' Meeting on May 9, 1902, and the following day he entered peacefully upon the well earned rest of heaven, in the thirty-ninth year of his ministry.

(36) Edward Smith: born at Bolton, March 31, 1849. He spent much of his early life among working men, and gained an insight into their ways and needs which was of great service to him in his ministry. After a successful course at Didsbury College he was stationed at Cheadle in 1871, where he gave evidence of those special evangelistic gifts which became a distinguishing feature of his ministry, and led to his appointment as district missionary in Staffordshire and Lincolnshire, and to the London Mission in St. John's Square, where some of the best work of his life was done. He raised it from a ruin to a strong and vigorous Church abounding in converts rescued from infidelity and sin. Throughout his ministry his preaching was most fruitful in conversions. His sermons were prepared with the utmost care. They were eminently practical and spiritual, and possessed the prophetic note; being delivered with great fervour by a man of commanding personality, they frequently produced a remarkable effect upon his congregation. He was equally powerful as a speaker, and was welcomed on every platform; but in later years his unconquerable aversion to publicity led him to confine his activities within Circuit boundaries. His unceasing pastoral care won him the love of multitudes in every Circuit where he laboured. His sympathetic nature made the afflictions of the people his own. He understood the working man, and was his steadfast friend; and the working man understood and loved him. His devotion to duty was pathetic. In the days of his weakness he still strove to compass all the duties of a Methodist preacher. His fine physique matched a mind the powers of which he diligently cultivated to the last. A man of such individuality naturally had a strong will and made it felt, but he commanded universal respect, and won the passionate devotion of many. At Scarborough, his last Circuit appointment, he preached with wonderful effect. He said to a colleague, "I feel the old power coming back," while a hearer remarked that "he was in his very best form, as in the St. John's Square days." This was the final flash of a burning and shining light. He had suffered from heart disease for years, and the breakdown came on May 18, 1902, when he preached for the last time. In his illness he uttered many terse and characteristic sayings expressive of his faith and hope in Jesus Christ. He composed his own epitaph: "Edward Smith, satisfied with Jesus." On June 6, 1902, he fell on sleep in the fifty-fourth year of his age and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(37) JOHN THOMAS HARWOOD: born at Sneinton, near Nottingham, August 4, 1838, of godly Methodist parentage. Very early in life he gave evidence of true conversion, and began to preach when about seventeen years of age. In 1859 he was accepted by the Conference and sent into immediate work. He never ceased to regret that he had not the advantage of the Institution. He was a diligent student and a good theologian, who delighted in the doctrines peculiar to Methodism. His preaching was eminently practical and successful. Never physically robust, his health gave way while labouring in the Driffield Circuit, and at the Conference of 1874 he became a Supernumerary with the confident hope of being able to resume his ministry after a complete rest. This, however, was not to be. For twenty-eight years he suffered great physical distress and nervous depression; yet he never lost his consciousness of adoption, and always by his resignation and words commended the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. His influence for good was great, especially amongst young people, whom he delighted to have about him. During the last six years of his life he was able to preach occasionally. His deep piety, his intense love for God and the Scriptures, with his earnest longing for the conversion of his hearers, were conspicuous in every service he conducted. He was a real helpmate to the ministers in the Circuit, ever ready to cheer them when discouraged, as well as to counsel and advise. During the last few months of his life he had to bear much pain, and frequently asked the Lord to "finish His work, and cut it short in righteousness," but he always added, "Thy will be done." He passed peacefully away in the early dawn of June 7, 1902, in the sixty-fourth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(38) George Hobson : born at Sheffield in 1839, of Methodist parentage, and educated at Sheffield Grammar School. His father intended him to enter into his own business, but in 1860 the call of God led him to become a Wesleyan minister. He was appointed to Shetland, where several years of his life were spent, and where he became Chairman of the District in 1870. From that time to the close of his ministry he was the Superintendent of some of our most important Circuits in the north of England, in everyone of which he is affectionately remembered for his fine Christian temper, his geniality in the homes of the people, and his wisdom and tact in conducting the affairs of the Church. As a preacher he was both acceptable and profitable. He read widely and carefully, and his sermons were thoughtful expositions of Holy Scripture, faithfully and earnestly applied to the heart and conscience of his hearers. Firmly holding the great evangelical truths of the gospel, he built up the Church in its most "holy faith." In the management of Circuit affairs he displayed great ability. His sound judgment, wise counsel, conciliatory spirit, united with firmness and decision, qualified him to deal skilfully with the most delicate matters. He was beloved by his colleagues, of cheerful, sunny—even playful—disposition ; but always the Christian gentleman. He made many friends, and no enemies. Infirmities, which he was unwilling to acknowledge, beset his last two years. When affliction prostrated him, he bore it with Christian fortitude, in the assurance that failing strength was as a divine promise that he was soon to be admitted to the presence of his Lord. He fell asleep in Jesus at Colwyn Bay on June 14, 1902, in the sixty-third year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry.

(39) George Bowden, D.D. : born at Stockport, August 10, 1829. From his earliest years he was surrounded by gracious influences in his home, and at the age of six became a member of Dr. Osborn's children's class. Dr. Osborn taught him to repeat the hymn—

> My soul, through my Redeemer's care, > Saved from the second death I feel ;

and the remembrance of it some years later was made the means of his conversion. He soon became conscious of a call to the Ministry, and, renouncing the prospects of a successful worldly career, was accepted as a Candidate in 1850, and appointed to Barnsley in 1851. For many years he laboured with great acceptance in some of the most important Circuits of the Connexion. A marked blessing everywhere attended his ministry. The warmth and fulness of his evangelical preaching, the faithfulness of his pastoral care, and his constant and affectionate concern for the children whom he gathered in Saturday afternoon classes like that to which he himself owed so much—all these, accompanied by the spirit of unceasing prayer, led to numerous conversions and stirred many, both young and old, to seek a higher Christian life. He was a man of warm sympathy, sanguine temperament, and unbounded kindliness and generosity. These gifts were at the service of a peculiarly full and unquestioning evangelical experience, and made his ministry an unceasing effort to impart to others, by the help of God, the blessings he so richly enjoyed himself. The remarkable freshness and fervour of his public and social prayer bore witness to his close and unbroken fellowship with God.

In 1885 he was appointed Governor of Kingswood School, a post which he held until 1892. In this office he showed an affectionate care for each individual entrusted to him. His strong sense of the brotherhood of the Methodist Ministry made it a labour of love to watch over each boy in the school. In 1892 he was appointed to the Wilts and Somerset Mission, and in 1895 retired from the active work of the Ministry, residing at Chew Stoke, near Bristol, till 1901, when he removed to Banwell, where he died.

In 1877 he was elected a member of the Legal Conference.

He was Chairman of the Bristol District from 1880 to 1885, and of the Bath District from 1886 to 1894. His influence was strongly felt throughout the Circuits of those Districts. He won the affection and confidence of all who were brought into official relations with him, while he exerted himself ceaselessly in efforts for the fuller apprehension of the Christian life, for the better organisation of aggressive work, and for the extension of Methodism, particularly in the country Circuits. With the ministers of the District his relations were singularly affectionate. He underwent deep chastening at several periods of his ministry, through the total failure of his health; and his closing years were shadowed by the painful illness and death of his wife, to whom he was devotedly attached. These dispensations mellowed his character and deepened his influence. In his comparative retirement he became a trusted friend and counsellor in all local Methodist movements, and especially in the Synod. In the beginning of the present year he was suddenly laid low with illness, and lingered in great weakness for several months. His closing days were marked by calm courage and peaceful faith. "He knows best—it is all right," was a sentence often upon his lips. He passed away on June 19, 1902, in the seventy-third year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(40) James Thomas Hartwell: born at Ashbourne, Derby, November 28, 1817. His parents were members of the Established Church, and among his relatives was Bishop Wilson of Calcutta. At Banbury he occasionally attended Wesleyan services, and in 1836 joined the Society. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1839 and sent to Hayti, where he laboured for thirteen years. He became a most efficient French preacher and was very successful in winning men to Christ. From Hayti he removed to the Bahamas, thence to Turk's Island, where his labours were so beneficial to the people socially, as well as religiously, that he received the official thanks of the Home Government for his services so freely rendered to the little colony. From Turk's Island he went to Antigua, and eventually to Demerara. In labours more abundant he threw himself into every effort for the good of the people. He acquired considerable knowledge of medicine, and became Chairman of the Board of Health and a member of the Quarantine Board; his social instincts found a sphere of labour as Chairman of the Board of Guardians, whilst his passion for education found scope as a member of the Board of Education, a Trustee of Public Libraries, and a visitor of the Normal College. He also founded the High School—the predecessor of Coke College at Antigua. All these duties were added to his labours as Chairman of the District. In his brief visits to England he was engaged in advocating mission work in either England or France. On his return home his first appointment was Gloucester, where the Northgate Chapel stands as representing his service to the Circuit. Thus he laboured for forty-seven years, amid fever, revolutions, hurricanes, and earthquakes, burying some of his loved ones in foreign soil, but still working while it was day. In 1887 he settled as a Supernumerary at Gloucester, where he spent the last fifteen years of his life. Peacefully, joyfully, he anticipated the end, and on Tuesday, June 24, 1902, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, fell asleep.

2. In Ireland, nine:

(1) JAMES EDWARDS: born at Ballyreagh, co. Fermanagh, on March 5, 1829. He became, in early life, the subject of the saving grace of God, in a revival in the Enniskillen Circuit. He joined the Methodist Society, for which he suffered some persecution from his family; but his fidelity to principle and consistent Christian character so impressed his father and other relatives as to lead to their conversion. In 1852 he entered our Ministry and travelled with great acceptance in some of the most laborious country Circuits.

In all he had fruit of his ministry, in several there were remarkable revivals of religion. Eleven years were spent in his native county, and quite near the place of his birth. He was an earnest and soul-saving preacher, a faithful and sympathetic pastor, a true friend, and a man of most unselfish spirit. After forty years of devoted service for God and the Church of his choice, he became a Supernumerary, and settled in Belfast. His last illness, which was painful and protracted, was borne with Christian meekness and acquiescence in the divine will. He was kept in perfect peace, as his mind was stayed upon God. He entered into rest on July 6, 1901, in the seventy-third year of his age and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(2) Charles Baskin: born in the city of Dublin on February 16, 1840. His parents were deeply devoted Methodists, whose home was ever open to the Ministers of our Church. He received part of his education in the old Connexional School, now Wesley College. He was converted when sixteen years old, and at once entered on Christian work in connexion with the Abbey Street Circuit, visiting and giving tracts to the sailors at the docks, and assisting in holding services in various parts of the Circuit. In 1864 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. It soon became evident that he possessed more than ordinary intelligence and ability. He was a sound theologian, and had a firm grasp of Methodist teaching, to which he was ardently attached. As a pastor, he was tender, diligent, and faithful; as a Superintendent, careful and exact; as Secretary and Chairman of Districts, wise and highly efficient. In his Christian character and life he had a stainless record. He cherished a high regard for his ministerial brethren, and was jealously concerned for the honour and prosperity of the Church to which he belonged, while, at the same time, he lived in kindly relations with members of other Churches. He was loved and trusted by our people, many of whom had received blessing and edification under his ministry. For thirty-six years he laboured with uninterrupted and unsparing constancy. In his last days, amid great pain and weakness, he showed a courageous trust in God. He repeatedly quoted the precious words of truth, specially dwelling on "I know whom I have believed," and the twenty-third Psalm. Favourite hymns, such as "Thou Shepherd of Israel and mine," were also frequently on his lips. Not long before the end came he exclaimed, with great feeling, "My Jesus, my precious Jesus, will never leave me." He closed his career in great peace on July 26, 1901, in the sixty-second year of his age and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(3) JOHN CARSON: born at Bellaghy, near Armagh, on January 14, 1836. He came early under spiritual influence, and, at a service conducted in 1854 by the Rev. James Oliver, found peace with God. In 1859 he took an active part in the great revival movement, and was very successful in leading sinners to the Saviour. In the following year he entered the Ministry, and, after some time, was set apart to the work of the General Mission. Not only did he use the special opportunities thus presented with fervent zeal, but, in the details of pastoral work, he succeeded even where others might have failed. Having retired from the full work of the Ministry in 1899, he continued labouring at Donaghmore in the Newry Circuit. During the days of suffering and weakness which followed, he continued thankful and peaceful, knowing whom he had believed. He gave utterance to many bright and loving words, which will live in memory as proving the faithfulness of our Lord in not forsaking His servants in weakness and suffering and in the hour of death. While his wife was showing him the words "Rejoice in the Lord," and he was trying to repeat them, his spirit went to share the joys of heaven. He was a man of sterling character. Uncompromising in principle, he was a model of true manliness. He was no "reed shaken with the wind." With the force of the man, there was also the gentleness of the child. He was a faithful preacher of the gospel, and as a result of his ministry many were won for Christ. He died in Portadown on August 22, 1901, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry.

(4) RICHARD BUTLER: born at Derrylurgan, near Ballyjamesduff, co. Cavan, on February 17, 1839. In early life he was converted to God, under the ministry of the Rev. Alexander Elliott, and soon after was led to exercise his gifts in Christian work. He was accepted for the Ministry by the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Conference in 1865, and appointed to Newtownbutler Circuit. For thirty-five years he laboured with great fidelity and acceptance. Prior to the union of the two Methodist bodies he filled the important office of Chairman of the Enniskillen District. In all his appointments he was greatly beloved, and on more than one occasion was appointed for a second term to the same charge. In every place the work of God, under his care, prospered. He was the means of the conversion of many souls. As a student, he was diligent and discriminating; as a preacher, thoughtful, earnest, and efficient; as a pastor, painstaking, judicious, and sympathetic; as an administrator, prudent and able; and as a friend, reliable. He was pre-eminently a man of prayer, and wherever he went it was manifest that God was with him. In 1900 he became a Supernumerary. In his last illness he suffered much, but endured his trial with great patience and resignation. The Saviour he commended through life sustained and comforted him to the end. In the early morning of August 26, 1901, he fell asleep in Jesus in the sixty-third year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(5) ROBERT DOWLING: born in Dublin, March 14, 1869. He was led to decision for Christ at about the age of sixteen, through wise and kind personal dealing on the part of the Rev. Robert Jamison and the Rev. Charles Inwood. From that time he began to engage actively in the service of Christ, and soon after was appointed as a prayer leader and local preacher. He displayed much diligence in the fulfilment of the duties of these offices until he entered the Ministry. For six years his blameless life, amiable disposition, and instructive preaching earned for him the love and respect of the people. A ministry of much usefulness was anticipated for him; but the great Head of the Church ordered it otherwise, and after more than twelve months' illness he entered on his reward October 29, 1901, in the thirty-third year of his age and the ninth of his ministry.

(6) JOHN WILSON: born at Brankle, near Corlespratten, in the Killeshandra Circuit, August 3, 1827. His father and mother were devoted Methodists, his mother being remarkable for her power in prayer. His literary advantages in early life were few, but he had a great thirst for knowledge, and to the very close of life he gave constant attention to reading. He was converted to God when about twenty-two years of age, under the ministry of the Rev. J. Hiram Robinson; soon after he sought and obtained the blessing of perfect love, which he retained to the end. He was accepted for our Ministry by the Conference of 1852. For forty-three years he laboured with unflagging zeal and marked success. At Donegal he witnessed a glorious revival, the fruit of which is still to be found in many lands. He was a noted evangelist, and his labours in the General Mission were greatly owned of God. By his unfailing hope and mighty faith he turned many a service that seemed likely to end in defeat into a glorious victory. Brotherly, genial, and lovable, no one could detect a shade of envy or jealousy in him. He enjoyed social intercourse, and was youthful in spirit to the end. Wherever he visited he left a blessing behind him. He was fearless in the declaration of all that he believed to be the truth. His character was transparent. He was a lifelong total abstainer and an ardent and successful advocate of the temperance cause. For four years after his retirement he accomplished a blessed work for God, both in the pulpit and in the open air, in the Londonderry Circuit. The last months of his life were spent quietly in Bangor; the tabernacle was gradually taken down, and on November 5, 1901, he passed without a struggle to the Father's house in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(7) FRANCIS DOUGLASS: born at Dungannon, co. Tyrone, on February 19, 1830. Trained in a godly home, where he enjoyed the advantages of Christian precept and example, and familiar from his childhood with the gospel, fervently preached from Methodist pulpits, he made the great decision early in life, and in the year 1854 began his itinerant ministry. From the beginning he walked in his chosen path with quiet devotion, as the voice of God and the Church directed him, labouring in such a fashion as to win the approval of good men. An address presented to him when leaving the Lisburn Circuit bore witness to the "uprightness of his character and his blameless conversation," and added that his public ministrations had been attended by blessing to his hearers, while in the homes of his flock he had borne himself as a devout man and minister, with a special interest in, and care for, the children of his congregations. This is a true description of his whole career. His cup of sorrow was deep, but bereavements and infirmities were borne in a manly, Christian spirit. To the end of life he was deeply interested in all that concerned the welfare of our Church, delighting to be present at public worship, sharing in the blessedness of Christian fellowship, and generously contributing to the Twentieth Century Fund, for the success of which he was profoundly concerned. After a brief illness, this modest, faithful, devoted man passed away from earth, with unshaken confidence in God, at Monkstown, co. Cork, on February 3, 1902, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(8) John Johnston : born at Denamona, co. Tyrone, in 1840. He owed much to the training of a godly mother. When about seventeen years of age he was converted through the instrumentality of the late Rev. James Payne, and at once engaged in Christian work. In 1863 he was accepted as a Preacher on Trial by the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Conference. His one aim throughout his ministry was to advance the interests of Christ's kingdom in the salvation of men and the building up of the Church of his choice. In this work he was much used by God, especially in the Springfield and Pettigo Circuits, where he witnessed very blessed revivals of religion. He was an earnest preacher, a painstaking pastor, a faithful and sympathetic friend. He greatly loved his brethren in the Ministry, and was much loved and valued by them. He entered on his third year in Dromore full of vigour and hope, but ere long his health began to decline, and after a few months of illness, borne with Christian meekness and resignation, he fell asleep in Jesus on April 30, 1902, in the sixty-second year of his age and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(9) Frederick Elliott : born at Glenloughan, near Ballinasloe, co. Galway, in 1817. He was much indebted to the sacred influence of a Methodist home, and was from infancy dedicated to the service of the Lord by his mother. In June, 1838, he was led to Christ, and shortly afterwards began to exhort others to turn to the Lord. God greatly blessed his labours, and many in the surrounding country were brought to decision. The fruits of this revival were seen in different and distant parts of the world. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1842, and next year received an appointment to the Killaloe Mission, in which his labours were much owned of God. He spent forty-two years in active Circuit work, during which he faithfully discharged every duty of a Methodist preacher. He was a judicious and affectionate Superintendent, and as Chairman of a District proved himself a wise administrator. He was a faithful minister of the New Testament, an earnest and impressive preacher, and he had the joy of witnessing extensive revivals in several of his Circuits. He read the best books, and read to purpose. His brethren in the Ministry loved him, and towards the people of his charge he was kind and sympathising. He was zealous for the prosperity of the Church of his choice, and earnestly prayed that the ministers might be filled with the Holy Spirit and have "a burning passion for saving souls." He was a man of prayer who delighted to hold communion with his heavenly Father, and in many instances God was pleased to answer his petitions. In his closing days he often asked to have the word of God and his favourite hymns read to him, his face beaming while he listened, and hours were spent by him in secret prayer and communion with God. To his confidence in Christ he gave no faltering testimony. He entered into rest May 20, 1902, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, four:

(1) PASUPALATI VENKATASWAMI: born at Nellore, in the Madras Presidency, in 1848. He was baptized in connexion with the American Baptist Mission, and received by it into the Church of Christ. Twenty years ago he removed to Hyderabad and took charge of a small school in connexion with the Wesleyan Mission. Soon it became apparent that the conscientious and successful teacher was fitted for a career of wider usefulness, and on the occupation of the Karim Nagar frontier station in 1884 he was appointed colleague to the pioneer missionary placed in charge of the venture. In the struggles and trials of those days he took an unstinted share, and had the joy of witnessing the dawn of a success which preluded the most characteristic and signal triumphs gained in the Hyderabad District. A year ago he removed to Secunderabad, where on Sunday, October 6, 1901, he passed peacefully to the marriage supper of the Lamb, in the fifty-fourth year of his age, and the sixteenth of his ministry. His death was marked by calm confidence and unshadowed content. "Christ is with me"; "He is very near to me"; "The Lord is calling me to Himself,"—these were among the last words he uttered. He was an "Israelite indeed"; straightforward in word and work, and upright almost to the verge of austerity. Falsehood and deceit were utterly abhorrent to him, and his sincere and genuine character and deep childlike piety were qualities that found effective scope in the Indian Ministry.

(2) Frederick Alton Lees: born at Manchester in 1872. When about twenty years of age he became one of a devoted band of workers at "Ebenezer," Red Bank. At a foreign missionary meeting there he was so impressed with the claims of the heathen that he resolved to offer himself for work in Africa. He had the joy of being received at the Conference of 1897 as a Candidate, offering specially for the West Coast, and spent two years at Richmond College, where his hearty, genial, and earnest disposition won him much esteem. In 1899 he was appointed to the Gold Coast District, and at Accra his faithful and zealous ministry was made a blessing to many. While on furlough in 1901 he desired to be transferred to the Lagos District, and in October of that year he took charge of the Ijebu Circuit. With much zest and delightful eagerness he visited all the stations, encouraging and inspiring both members and agents. Alas! it was not to be for long; after three short months, on January 22, 1902, at Lagos, he entered into "the presence of the King" in the thirtieth year of his age and the third of his ministry.

(3) William Shaw Davis: born at Grahamstown in 1832, was the son of the late Rev. William Jefford Davis, one of our missionary pioneers in Kafirland. He spent seven years at Woodhouse Grove School, where he received much spiritual good; but he always attributed his conversion to God to a sermon preached by the Rev. Frederick Mason. The visit of the Rev. William Taylor to the Clarkebury Mission was made an unspeakable blessing to him. It was at that time that he translated into Kafir the hymn called "The Eden Above," which has been the means under God of awakening and bringing thousands of natives to the Saviour. In after-years he composed and translated a number of the hymns in the Kafir hymn-book which have been favourites with our people. In 1871 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. His first appointment was to Shawbury, where four years of self-sacrificing labour had a marked effect on the chief and tribe. After a year at Kamastone he returned to Shawbury, where he established the Girls' Institution, which has proved so great a blessing. After three years at Etembeni, he took charge of the Boys' Training Institution at Clarkebury. His perfect knowledge of the Kafir language and sympathy with the young, coupled with his spiritual character, had a wonderful effect on those who came under his care. Many of them received "the grace of God," and some have entered the Ministry. His character was pure, his conduct exemplary. He was quiet and gentle in his manners. He was an upright, kind-hearted, genuine, unassuming man, and a faithful and useful minister of Jesus Christ. The last two years of his life were spent at St. John's. Though prostrated by weakness, he continued his labour, his last effort being the erection of a beautiful sanctuary which was dedicated to the service of God just three weeks before he died. He fell asleep in Jesus on January 29, 1902, in the seventieth year of his age and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(4) Abraham David: born of heathen parents in Tinnevelly, South India, about the year 1842. When a youth he came under Christian teaching and was baptized. After a short career as a schoolmaster in Tinnevelly, he was appointed headmaster of a school belonging to the Christian Vernacular Education Society in Royapettah, Madras. There he joined the Wesleyan Mission, and was employed for several years, first as a teacher, and afterwards as an evangelist. In these subordinate capacities he did good pioneer work in several places in the Madras and Negapatam Districts. In 1888 he was accepted by the Conference as a Minister on Probation, and from then to the time of his death he travelled in the Madras District. He was a man of considerable natural ability and force of character, an earnest preacher, and a faithful, diligent pastor. He was well read in Tamil literature, and often used his knowledge with effect in dealing with Hindus. The end came suddenly. On March 25, 1902, at the close of the day, after commending himself and his family to God in prayer, there was a sudden failure of the heart, and he peacefully passed away.

The obituary of GEORGE GOWER COCKS, B.A., will appear next year.

Q. XXIX. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXX. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

George Dyer, William T. Haydon, and John S. Vint, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

(1) Jacob H. Samuel, African Minister, who has voluntarily retired.

(2) Giuseppe Grisafi, Italian Minister, who has also retired.

(3) Henry Anaman, African Minister.

3. In Ireland,

John H. Douglas, B.A., who has voluntarily retired.

Q. XXXI. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 909, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers who are or shall be stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and everyone of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXIII. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; the Rev. WESLEY GUARD, nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., or the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, and the Rev. THOMAS RIPPON are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Belfast on Tuesday, June 16, 1903.

Q. XXXIV. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. NENDICK ABRAHAM is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held at Queenstown in the month of April, 1903.

2. The Rev. W. CLARKE MURRAY, D.D., is appointed the President of the next Western West Indian Conference, to be held at Kingston, Jamaica, in March, 1903.

3. The Rev. DAVID J. REYNOLDS is appointed the President of the next Eastern West Indian Conference, to be held in Barbados in March, 1903.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held at Pontypridd in June, 1903. The Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY, the Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., and the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK are appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. ISHMAEL EVANS is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Ramsey in May, 1903.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXV. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

IN THE SYNOD.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works (see p. 323) is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

In the Conference.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXXVI. What is the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report.

The Examination was held on December 6, 1901, and March 25, 1902, one Fourth Year Paper coming as usual on the previous evening, March 24.

The results of the past year's work are summarised below. The Honours List contains 122 names out of a total of 231. The option of taking the New Testament Book in Greek instead of English continues to attract a considerable majority of the Probationers. A further evidence of the appreciation felt for the benefits of the Examination may be seen in the fact that no fewer than twenty-three elected to attempt a higher paper than that for which their tutors returned them, while only three took the contrary course: last year these numbers were thirteen and six respectively. Not all these praiseworthy attempts were successful, but the failures were not reported, according to the new rule. Apart from these, however, there were no fewer than forty-one re-examinations this year, instead of sixteen, a result which would be disquieting if the failures were not so largely found among the Non-Collegiates, from whom it is unfair to expect much in many cases. There are eight failures which stand unredeemed. The case of one Probationer, who has failed in six papers this year, without a single pass, is happily without even a remote parallel in the history of the examination.

There has been an exceptional amount of illness, accounting for nearly all the thirty-five postponed papers, which show an unfortunate contrast to the nineteen of last year. Illness accounts for four out of seven cases in which the full number of papers was not taken. Of the other three, one was a Non-Collegiate in the Fourth Year, for whom special arrangements have been made throughout; one had been appointed on an emergency to do for half the year the work of two ministers; and the other is in the foreign field.

The results for the optional Greek Testament subject (iii. a) and the advanced Hebrew (iv. a) are necessarily given separately, since in estimating Honours or Failure the marks are reckoned as two grades above the figure at which they stand.

The system of marking now adopted stands thus:

Honours Marks.

1* indicating Exceptional excellence.
1 „ Excellent.
2 „ Very good.
3 „ Good.

Pass Marks.

4 indicating Fair.
5 „ Moderate.

Failure Marks.

6 indicating Poor.
7 „ Very poor.

The mark 5 is now defined as implying a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. In papers iii. a and iv. a, the mark 6, defined as twenty per cent. and over, is the lowest allowed to pass.

The general results of the examination are as follows:

First Year.—106 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows:

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are marked as they stand, 154 papers	2	11	18	28	63	31	0	1
In iii (a) and iv (a), 43 papers ...	0	0	10	4	11	11	7	0

The Non-Collegiates wrote 157 papers in the following subjects: Findlay: Epistles of St. Paul; St. Mark's Gospel in English; Psalms, Book I., in English, and Davison: Praises of Israel. The valuation marks of these were as follows:

1*	1	2	3	4	5	Failure
0	7	25	33	59	32	1

Fourteen Non-Collegiates took 37 ordinary papers, for which they received special credit.

Second Year.—49 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows:

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 134 papers	15	20	18	22	26	28	0	5
In iii (a) and iv (a), 45 papers ...	0	0	2	18	12	20	3	0

Third Year.—42 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows:

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 116 papers	4	20	28	25	29	10	0	0
In iii (a) and iv (a), 42 papers ...	0	5	6	11	11	6	3	0

Fourth Year.—36 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows:

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 137 papers	3	22	26	31	40	14	0	1
In iii (a) and iv (a), 31 papers ...	0	0	2	11	12	4	2	0

A few Probationers, of various years, took as a part of their examination the following subjects of the London B.D. course:

No. of Papers Written	Subjects	Valuation Marks
		1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure

N.B.—(1) A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who (i) take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and (ii) obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken.

(2) Those whose average mark does not exceed 1 are placed in the First Class of Honours. Those whose average mark is 2, or between 1 and 2, are placed in the Second Class. Those whose average mark is 3, or between 2 and 3, constitute the Third Class. In estimating the average mark, 1* and 2 will be taken as giving the same total as 1 and 1. Thus an examinee whose marks are 1*, 2, 1*, 2, 1, is placed in the First Class.

(3) The marks of those who take iii. a and iv. a are reckoned for the Honours List as two grades higher than corresponding marks in the English subject.

(4) The names in each year stand in order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another.

(5) In Greek and Hebrew there are two papers—an easier and a more difficult. It is plain that it would not be fair to classify those who took the easier and the harder papers together, without distinguishing them in some way. The Committee has consequently attached diacritic marks to the names in the Honours List as follows: (a) Higher Greek and Hebrew; (b) Greek and Hebrew—one Higher, one Lower; (c) Lower Greek and Hebrew; (d) Greek, but not Hebrew; (e) neither Greek nor Hebrew.

(6) It is of course obvious that failure in any subject altogether disqualifies for Honours.

(7) Those who are marked with a dagger (†) postponed the whole or part of their examination.

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation. In cases of doubt the Secretaries shall have power to appoint assessors.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at the September District Synod for the Examination of Preachers on Trial in the District. The places of Examination shall be chosen with a view to reducing as much as possible the travelling expenses involved. For this purpose it shall be allowed, where deemed advisable, that Probationers from different Districts may be examined in the same centre. Every Probationer may claim the third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Connexional Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide. The Conference recommends that examination centres be so arranged at the September District Synods (or, where necessary, by consultation between the General Secretaries and the District Examination Secretaries) that no Probationer shall have to travel more than thirty miles by rail to his examination.

(4) At the September District Synod a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, with Assistant Secretaries if necessary, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Where the distances allow, at least two Probationers shall be examined at each centre. The Secretaries for adjoining Districts shall confer before the end of September, with a view to fixing suitable centres for the Examination of Probationers stationed near the borders of the Districts. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued shall be forwarded to the Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in two parts, the first in the month preceding Christmas, the second in the spring; and it shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days, which shall be fixed from year to year.

(6) The Examination Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers, shown by numbers, together with such remarks upon them as he may think desirable.

In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Synod, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the Minutes of the District Synod. The Resolutions of the District Synods on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send, in May, to each District Synod having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the Examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. William Perkins, Dr. Rigg, and Dr. Stephenson.

The Rev. Dr. JAMES MOULTON is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

4. The Rev. DR. Moss is appointed, and the Rev. G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., and Dr. JAMES MOULTON are re-appointed, General Examination Secretaries.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a Student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case. In each year two Greek and two Hebrew papers shall be provided, of different degrees of difficulty; and, not later than October 1 in each year, the Committee shall decide, on the recommendation of the Tutors, what Probationers cannot reasonably be expected to take the more difficult papers. If other Probationers wish to take the easier paper in Greek or Hebrew, they shall be at liberty to do so, but will thereby become ineligible for Honours. In the case of Hebrew, the subject set for the easier paper shall be specially selected to suit the acquirements of elementary students. Those who take the advanced paper shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

8. The subject marked iii. in the list for each year may be taken either in Greek or in English by those Probationers who, in the portions of the Greek Testament prescribed for their respective years, take the advanced papers. All who take the subject in Greek shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer of the First, Second, and Third Years respectively to be examined in the four subjects set for his year. Probationers of the First Year who have yet to go to the Institution may take a light course of work specially provided for them, including one Old Testament and one New Testament subject, both in English, and one simple English work in Theology or Biblical History. Those who elect to take subjects from the ordinary list for the First Year shall receive special credit.

10. Probationers of the Fourth Year, and all Candidates for Ordination, shall take in March a paper on portions of Wesley's Works, to be chosen from year to year. Every Probationer of the Fourth Year shall be examined also in the subjects marked i., ii., iii., and iv., in the subjects for his year.

At the discretion of the General Secretaries, some relaxation of the rules in (9) and (10) shall be permitted in the case of candidates for Divinity examinations in the Universities of London and Wales.

11. Whenever a Probationer obtains a lower grade than 5 (see p. 313) for any paper, representing a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both Examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the Examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

12. In the subjects marked iii. a and iv. a (which carry the special recognition referred to in (7) and (8) above), the allowance shall only be made in the case of those who attain the mark 6, which is defined as a minimum of twenty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. Those whose marks fall below this shall be reckoned as having failed. But when any Probationer fails in attempting a subject higher than that which he is required to take, he shall be re-examined in the lower subject, and his previous failure shall not be reported.

13. The second Examination referred to in the last two paragraphs shall take place before the end of April, in order that the District Synod may be made acquainted with the result.

14. In no case shall the Examination, in whole or in part, be postponed without the sanction of the General Examination Secretaries, the Chairman of the District, and the Superintendent of the Circuit. A special report of each postponement shall be presented to the May Synod.

15. Every Probationer shall, not later than September 21, 1902, inform the Rev. Dr. James Moulton, Didsbury College, Manchester, what subjects he will present for Examination.

16. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

17. If any Student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit work later than Christmas Day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but his examination shall be left in the hands of his College authorities, who shall examine him in subjects, generally four, to be chosen by the Tutors. The Examination of men on the President's List of Reserve who have not entered upon the four years of probation shall be arranged on a similar principle.

18. Probationers who leave College for Circuit work before Christmas Day in any year shall take the March Probationers' Examination of their year.

19. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Friday, December 5, 1902, and Tuesday, March 24, 1903. For the Fourth Year there will also be a paper in the evening of Monday, March 23. The Conference directs that these days be kept free from Circuit engagements for the Probationers.

20. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his Examination. In every case, notification should be sent to the Rev. Dr. James Moulton as early as possible. Permission for such postponement shall be given only on the ground of illness, or other serious emergency arising at the time of the Examination.

21. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

22. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. The list for the year 1902–1903 is as follows:

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

(2) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

Preliminary Examination.

2. (1) This Examination shall be conducted before the Session of the District Synod, and include (a) one three hours' paper on the English Bible, requiring a general knowledge of Scripture History, and of the nature and contents of the Old and New Testaments (see new regulations, page 336); (b) one three hours' paper including the following subjects:

(i) An Exercise in English Composition. Four alternative subjects shall be set, from which the Candidate shall choose one. Not more than three-quarters of an hour shall be spent upon this exercise. The subjects will be varied in character, and will represent topics in which preachers should be interested. In marking, regard will be paid to quality rather than quantity.

(ii) English Grammar and Easy Analysis.

(iii) English History and General Geography.

(iv) Arithmetic up to Decimal Fractions.

The questions will be of an elementary character, to be more precisely described in the syllabus supplied to intending Candidates.

(2) The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Edward Brentnall, M.A., J. Henry Greeves, and Harold C. Morton, B.A. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Rev. Josiah Banham, Thomas J. Choate, and James Critchison.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday, April 16, 1903.

(3) Candidates who have matriculated at the London University, or have passed an equivalent entrance examination at any other University in the United Kingdom, or have passed the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examination, or obtained a Queen's Scholarship as Candidates for Admission into a Training College, are exempt from the preliminary Examination.

(4) The maximum for paper (a) shall be 100, and for (b) 100; the marks to be reported separately. The maximum attainable shall be printed against each question. In paper (b), 25 marks shall be assigned to each of the four sections; viz. (1) English Composition, (2) English Grammar and Analysis, (3) English History and Geography, (4) Arithmetic. The marks gained in paper (b) shall be subject to a deduction, not exceeding 10, for faulty spelling. Exemption from paper (b) shall be granted as heretofore. All Candidates must take paper (a). The marks and exemptions shall be reported to the Synods.

(5) In both papers the minimum for a satisfactory examination will be one-half, instead of one-fourth, as hitherto, of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole paper; and no Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the Preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Synod unless in the judgment of the Synod he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

Sermons.

3. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. They are requested not to fix marks of value.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

July Committee.

4. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 12, 1903.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows :

(i) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts ; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society ; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches ; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch ; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee ; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee ; the Rev. Robert Culley ; together with twenty-one other Ministers of the three London Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

(ii) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the PRESIDENT of the Conference ; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts ; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society ; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches ; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch ; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee ; the Rev. T. Galland Hartley ; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

N.B.—1. The elections shall in every case be by ballot.

2. The Tutors of the Theological Institution shall conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

July Examination.

5. (1) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(2) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(3) (i) To correlate the Preliminary and the July Examinations a change of terms is advisable. There will now be four papers in all, which may bear the following titles:

(A) THEOLOGICAL: Part I. (on the English Bible), taken in April.

Part II. (on Christian Doctrine), taken in July.

(B) LITERARY: Part I. (Composition, Grammar, History and Geography, and Arithmetic), taken in April.
Part II. (General), taken in July.

(ii) The written examination papers at the July Committee shall each be set for three hours, as follows:

(A) THEOLOGICAL, Part II.

The questions set shall test the Candidate's knowledge of the leading doctrines of Evangelical Theology as taught in our Church. Special importance will be attached to accuracy in quoting Scripture; and it will be assumed that Candidates have carefully studied Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

(B) LITERARY, Part II. The paper will include:

(α) English Language and Literature.
(β) General History.
(γ) Mathematics:
Higher Arithmetic,
Algebra to Simultaneous Equations,
Euclid, Bk. I.
(δ) Elementary Science and Logic.
Alternative questions will be set in various subjects.
(ε) Latin and Greek.
(ζ) French and German.

(iii) Exemption from the Literary Paper, Part II., shall be granted to all who have passed the Matriculation Examination at the University of London, or some equivalent examination. The claims of any such examination to be recognised for the purposes of this rule shall be decided soon after the May Synods by the Theological Institution Sub-Committee of Studies; and those examinations which they shall approve shall be specified in this list for subsequent years.

(iv) The following scheme is adopted for combining and grading the marks in the above papers for presentation to the July Committee:

Maximum 300 (Part I., 100; Part II., 200).

250 and over = grade			1*	130 and over = grade			4
220	,,	,,	1	100	,,	,,	5
190	,,	,,	2	75	,,	,,	6
160	,,	,,	3	50	,,	,,	7

Under 50 = 0

(4) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(5) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(6) The Rev. Albert Clayton, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Peter Thompson, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(7) All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E.

(8) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Robert Culley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. T. Galland Hartley to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

6. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

7. Candidates from the Three London Districts shall appear before the Northern Section of the July Examination Committee, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts before the Southern Section.

8. Designation of Candidates.

(1) In the form filled in by Candidates for the Ministry, instead of the present query as to the nature of the offer, the following shall be substituted:

'If you are accepted, and sent to the Theological Institution, your designation to Home or Foreign work will not be made till after two years' residence there. You are, however, requested to state now whether

(a) You have at present a strong preference for Home or Foreign work;

(b) You know of circumstances which are likely to make a designation to the Mission field unadvisable.

(2) Toward the end of the College year, the men of the second year in each College shall have opportunity to indicate whether, for reasons stated, they wish to be designated for Home work, or for Foreign work, or desire to leave themselves entirely in the hands of the Church.

(3) This information, together with the recommendation of the College Staff regarding each man, shall be sent to the Designation Committee; which shall thereupon prepare for Conference lists of men whom it recommends for Home and for Foreign work respectively.

(4) In cases where the July Committee recommends a man for immediate service, that Committee shall also advise the Conference as to whether he should be appointed to Home or Foreign work.

9. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the North and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the North or the South Wales District Synod, according as the Examination is held at Didsbury or Richmond.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, if able, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

10. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—(See Minutes, 1886, pp. 203, 204.)

11. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are unanimously declined.

N.B.—When a Candidate has been recommended by a divided vote in the Examination Committee, he shall be only provisionally accepted until the entire list of Candidates has been considered, when the Conference shall finally decide his case.

12. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

13. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

(4) The Conference appoints Didsbury College as the place where Candidates who are members of the Welsh University may qualify for a degree in Theology.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees who are also Members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Quarterly Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee. The Secretaries of the Missionary Society shall be ex officio members of the Discipline Committee of the Richmond Branch.

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Rev. James Chapman, Albert Clayton, Walford Green, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Enoch Salt, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, and Dr. Waller.

„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Henry T. Smart,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ Peter Thompson,
„ William D. Walters.
„ Thomas E. Westerdale.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XLI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) The Book Committee shall consist (a) of the following ex officio members: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents residing in the London and adjoining Districts; the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union, the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Tutors at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and (b) of twenty-five Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident in the Metropolitan Postal and Police area.

(2) A Finance and Consultation Committee, consisting of fourteen Members, including the Officers of the Book-Room, shall be appointed by the Book Committee from its own Members at its first meeting after Conference.

(3) Readers shall be annually chosen by the Book Committee at its first meeting after Conference; and one or more of these shall be selected by the Book Steward to read any Manuscript offered for publication, who shall make confidential reports to the Book Steward and Editor.

The Book Steward shall report to the Committee, and the Committee shall have power to accept or reject Manuscripts.

(4) The Tract Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Book-Room and twelve other Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident within the same area as the London Book Committee. The names of the Tract Committee shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

The Tract Committee shall report, through its Secretary, to the Book Committee.

3. The Book Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Dr. Rigg, Dr. Jenkins, Richard Roberts, John Walton, M.A., Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Walford Green, Dr. Waller, William L. Watkinson, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Frederic W. Macdonald, Ex-Presidents; Arthur Wood, B.A., Secretary of the Tract Committee; Robert Culley, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union; William Perkins, William H. Parkinson, Jabez Parkyn, James Pratt, Allen Rees, Alfred Sargent, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, Alfred H. Vine, John E. Wakerley, William D. Walters, Dr. Wenyon, and Thomas E. Westerdale.

4. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Rev. Frederick B. Cowl, Nehemiah Curnock (B), Josiah Flew, Frank Hall, Simpson Johnson, J. Ash Parsons, Benjamin Robinson, Charles Lee-Dunham, R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A., John E. Wakerley, Thomas E. Westerdale, and Arthur Wood, B.A.

The Rev. ARTHUR WOOD, B.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of the Tract Committee. Communications should be addressed to him at 9, Highbury New Park, N.

5. The old rule as to payment of Ministers' Book Accounts shall be observed; viz. that remittances be made quarterly, and all balances paid at the Conference.

6. For the future the Grants to Connexional Funds shall be paid out of the profits actually made during the Connexional Year then ending, and not out of profits to be made, in part or wholly, during the year then ensuing.

Future Management of the Book-Room.

The Conference provisionally adopts the following Resolutions:

1. Both the Book Steward and the Connexional Editor shall be Ministers.

2. The Book Committee shall consist of an equal number of Ministers and Laymen, resident in London, or elsewhere.

3. The Committee shall consist of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, the Book Steward, the Editor, and twenty-five other Ministers, and an equal number of Laymen.

4. The profits from the trade of the Book-Room shall be devoted as heretofore, unless the Conference in its Representative and Pastoral Sessions shall otherwise direct.

5. Provided always that this new arrangement shall in no way infringe upon or alienate the rights of the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the original and vested properties of the Book-Room estate.

Q. XLII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XLIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at the May Synod, when Ministers only are present?

A. Future Management of the Book-Room (see p. 346).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to its President, the Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, for his clear, evangelical, and faithful sermon, preached in the Central Hall, Manchester, on Sunday morning, July 27, 1902.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., for his glowing, powerful, and profitable sermon, preached in the Central Hall, Manchester, on Sunday evening, July 27, 1902.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., for his illuminating, spiritual, and practical Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers in Gravel Lane Chapel, Manchester, on Monday, August 4, 1902.

Retirement of Senior Ministers.

The Rev. Marshall Randles, D.D.—In granting the request of the Rev. Dr. Randles to become a Supernumerary, the Conference records its high appreciation of his many and varied services during the fifty years of his ministry. A strong and sound preacher, a diligent pastor, wise in counsel, alert and courteous in debate, kind and brotherly, he has won the affectionate esteem of the ministry and laity of our Church throughout the country. He has administered important circuits with a devout activity that has elicited the support of his brethren and promoted the glory of God. No department of the Church's work has been overlooked by him; but especially in moulding our educational policy and in the promotion of our enterprises for the spread of temperance he has been one of our most trusted leaders. Over several of the Synods he has presided with dignity, with consideration of all interests and all dispositions, with patience, good humour, and unfailing efficiency. For sixteen years he has been entrusted with the responsibilities of the tutorship in systematic theology at Didsbury, and in that great trust his loyalty to evangelical truth and to Methodist teaching has been conspicuous. Six years ago he was elected President of the Conference; and "in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God," he "behaved" himself "in the world, and more abundantly" to usward.

The Conference thanks God for the long and faithful service rendered by Dr. Randles, and prays that in his well earned retirement he may be sustained with the richest gifts of comfort and hope, "looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

The Rev. Henry J. Piggott, B.A.—In permitting the retirement of the Rev. Henry J. Piggott, B.A., the Conference places on record its grateful appreciation of his eminent services to the kingdom of Christ during a faithful ministry which commenced half a century ago. After spending nine years in home circuits, in response to the call of the Conference of 1861 he entered upon his life work in Italy, for which, by his gifts and acquirements, he was specially fitted. He has spent forty-one years in that interesting country. Six years he spent in Milan, six in Padua, and then had the joy of preaching to them that are in Rome also. He has had the joy of witnessing the establishment and spread of Protestant evangelical truth in many parts of the priest-ridden land of his adoption. It has been permitted to him to see the darkness of a dominant Romanism give place to the dawning light of the gospel day. The Conference prays that Mr. Piggott may be long spared to afford to infant Churches the benefit of his long experience as pastor, preacher, and General Superintendent of our work in Italy.

The Rev. Henry E. Gregg.—The Conference consents with deep regret to the retirement of the Rev. Henry E. Gregg, who has rendered long and successful service to his Master and to Methodism. His ministry of the word of life has been remarkable for its intense spirituality, evangelistic fervour, and literary beauty and strength. Tenderness and sympathy have characterised his pastoral visits to his people. As Superintendent of important Circuits, and as Chairman of Synod, he has uniformly manifested sound judgment, administrative ability, unostentatious but genuine affection for his brethren, and unwavering loyalty to the Connexion. The Conference prays that he may be spared for further service to the Church of which he has been for so many years a faithful minister.

The Rev. Hugh Hughes.—The Rev. Hugh Hughes has for thirty-six years been a prominent minister in the Welsh work. His preaching has been extraordinary in power and spiritual results. He has combined in a high degree the gifts of teacher and evangelist. Multitudes have been brought to the Saviour by his ministry. The Conference records its sense of the eminent service that he has rendered to Methodism in the Principality, and prays that the rich blessing of God may rest upon him for many years to come.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. ENOCH SALT is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. GEORGE DENTON is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1903; and is an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—1. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year [see Standing Order, No. 28 (2)]: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Charles H. Kelly, Book Steward; William L. Watkinson, Editor;

Rev. James Chapman,	Rev. Dr. Rigg,
„ George Fletcher,	„ Alfred Sargent,
„ Walford Green,	„ John Telford, B.A.,
„ Dr. Jenkins,	„ Alfred H. Vine,
„ Frederic W. Macdonald,	„ Dr. Waller.

The Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener.

2. Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward obituaries of deceased Ministers to the Convener, immediately after the May Synod.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference and twenty other Ministers; five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one by the staff of each College from among themselves; and one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly. The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work (see p. 339).

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve.

(4) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Walford Green,
" Charles H. Kelly,
" Frederic W. Macdonald,
" Dr. Henry J. Pope,
" Dr. Randles,
Rev. Dr. Rigg,
" Peter Thompson,
" Dr. Waller,
" William L. Watkinson.

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

The Law of Appeal, and Other Matters.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix XV.)

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John S. Simon for his efficient services as Convener of the Committee.

Baptized Children in Relation to the Church.—The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee as follows: The Committee after careful consideration of the Reports from the Synods is convinced that, in the face of the variety of opinions expressed, it cannot advise further legislation. At the same time it would urge that full advantage be taken of the opportunity afforded by baptism to impress upon parents their supreme obligation to teach and bring up their children for Christ; and that, inasmuch as all baptized children have been received into Christ's flock to be trained in the doctrines, privileges, and duties of the Christian religion it is incumbent on the Church, and especially on its Ministers, to extend to them the largest possible measure of pastoral care and systematic attention.

The Committee further recommends that as heretofore, but in greater measure, use be made of Children's Sunday as an opportunity for winning for Christ all children within our reach; and that greater efforts be made either by Ministerial or Junior Society Classes, or by visiting the Sunday schools, to instruct the young in the great doctrines of the gospel.

New Connexional Hymn-Book.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to continue the work.

3. The following is the Committee: The Rev. John Shaw Banks, President of the Conference; W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary;

CHARLES H. KELLY, Book Steward; WILLIAM L. WATKINSON, Connexional Editor;

Rev. Dr. Allen,

Mr. Thomas Healing,
„ John T. Lightwood,
„ Frank Megarry.
„ H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
Dr. Richard T. Smith,
Mr. Thomas Tombleson;

with power to invite others who may be considered especially qualified.

Two members are also appointed by the Methodist New Connexion Committee, and two by the Wesleyan Reform Union.

Secretaries: Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK (B), Dr. ARTHUR E. GREGORY, JOHN TELFORD, B.A.

4. New Tune-Book.—The following are appointed a Committee to prepare a suitable Tune-Book: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Charles H. Kelly, Book Steward; William L. Watkinson, Editor;

Rev. Nehemiah Curnock (B),
„ Dr. Arthur E. Gregory,
„ Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D.,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ John Telford, B.A.,
„ Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.,
Rev. Wesley Woolmer,
Mr. Charles J. Dale,
„ Edmund S. Lamplough,
„ Frank Megarry,
„ Sir George Smith;

with power to add to their number.

The Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK (B) is the Convener.

Educational Efficiency of Candidates for the Ministry.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference recognises the special obligation which devolves on Superintendents of Circuits to do whatever may be in their power to influence desirable young men of all social classes to give themselves to the sacred work of the Ministry of our Church, particularly those whose circumstances in life are such as render it specially difficult for them to enter on the work of local preachers by reason of the want of village work in the Circuits in which they reside, or for other reasons; and directs that a question be inserted in the Order and Form of Business for District Synods in respect of the performance of this important duty.

3. The Conference adopts the following scheme for the Preliminary and July Examinations:

(I.) Preliminary Examination.

(1) The Examination shall include:

(a) One three hours' paper on the English Bible, requiring a general knowledge of Scripture History, and of the nature and contents of the Old and New Testaments. (N.B.—The use of the Revised Version is recommended.)

The object of the paper will be to test a Candidate's familiarity with the Bible itself, but the following text-books are recommended as helpful:

Cambridge "Companion to the Bible," §§ I., II., III., B2, IV., V.; or Oxford "Helps to the Study of the Bible," §§ I., II., IV., V., VII., XIV.–XXV.; Maclear's Shilling Books of O.T. and N.T. History.

(b) One three hours' paper including the following subjects:

(i) An Exercise in English Composition. Four alternative subjects shall be set, from which the Candidate shall choose one. Not more than three-quarters of an hour shall be spent upon this exercise. The subjects will be varied in character, and will represent topics in which preachers should be interested. In marking, regard will be paid to quality rather than quantity.

(ii) English Grammar and Easy Analysis.

(iii) English History and General Geography.

(iv) Arithmetic up to Decimal Fractions.

The questions will be of an elementary character, to be more precisely described in the syllabus supplied to intending candidates.

(2) The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers, to be annually appointed by the Conference. The three Ministers for the ensuing year are the Rev. Josiah Banham, Thomas J. Choate, and James Critchison.

(3) The maximum for paper (a) shall be 100, and for (b) 100; the marks to be reported separately. The maximum attainable shall be printed against each question. In paper (b), 25 marks shall be assigned to each of the four sections; viz. (1) English Composition, (2) English Grammar and Analysis, (3) English History and Geography, (4) Arithmetic. The marks gained in paper (b) shall be subject to a deduction, not exceeding 10, for faulty spelling.

(4) Exemption from paper (b) shall be granted as heretofore. All Candidates must take paper (a). The marks and exemptions shall be reported to the Synods.

(5) Rules (5) and (6), on page 333 of the Minutes of Conference (1901), shall be extended so as to apply to the new paper (a); but in both papers the minimum for a satisfactory examination will be one-half, instead of one-fourth, as hitherto, of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole paper; and no Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the Preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Synod unless in the judgment of the Synod he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

II. JULY EXAMINATION.

(1) To correlate the Preliminary and the July Examinations a change of terms is advisable. There will now be four papers in all, which may bear the following titles:

(A) THEOLOGICAL: Part I. (on the English Bible), taken in April.
Part II. (on Christian Doctrine), taken in July.

(B) LITERARY: Part I. (Composition, Grammar, History and Geography, and Arithmetic), taken in April.
Part II. (General), taken in July.

Candidates in July shall be graded on the combined marks of Parts I. and II. The grades obtained severally in the Theological and the Literary Examinations shall be reported to the Conference. The scheme of marking is described below.

(2) The written Examination Papers at the July Committee shall each be set for three hours, as follows:

(A) THEOLOGICAL, Part II.

The questions set shall test the Candidate's knowledge of the leading doctrines of Evangelical Theology as taught in our Church. Special importance will be attached to accuracy in quoting Scripture; and it will be assumed that Candidates have carefully studied Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

(B) LITERARY, Part II. The paper will include:

(α) English Language and Literature.
(β) General History.
(γ) Mathematics:
Higher Arithmetic,
Algebra to Simultaneous Equations,
Euclid, Bk. I.
(δ) Elementary Science and Logic.
Alternative questions will be set in various subjects.
(ε) Latin and Greek.
(ζ) French and German.

This paper is designed mainly for Candidates who have had a higher education, but it is expected that all Candidates shall answer as many questions as possible.

[Should any scheme of re-arrangement be adopted in the Theological Institution whereby students would be allocated according to the nature of their previous training, this second part of the Literary Paper should provide the material on which the Allocation Committee can work. It would probably be found useful if the papers of those Candidates who are accepted and sent to the Institution were sent after Conference to the Tutors of the Colleges to which they are assigned.]

(3) Exemption from the Literary Paper, Part II., shall be granted to all who have passed the Matriculation Examination at the University of London, or some equivalent examination. The claims of any such examination to be recognised for the purposes of this rule shall be decided soon after the May Synod by the Theological Institution Sub-Committee of Studies; and those examinations which they shall approve shall be specified in the list for subsequent years.

(4) No change shall be made in the arrangements for setting and marking the two July papers.

(5) The following scheme is adopted for combining and grading the marks in the above papers for presentation to the July Committee:

A. Theological Examination—

Maximum 300 (Part I., 100; Part II., 200).

250 and over = grade 1*		130 and over = grade 4
220 „ „ 1		100 „ „ 5
190 „ „ 2		75 „ „ 6
160 „ „ 3		50 „ „ 7

Under 50 = 0.

B. Literary Examination—

(a) Those who are not "exempt" from Part I. will be graded according to the scale given above for the Theological Examination.

July (Part II.) only; Maximum 200.

150 and over = grade 1*		60 and over = grade 3
120 „ „ 1		30 „ „ 4
90 „ „ 2		Under 30 „ 5

(6) The Conference directs that a Manual be prepared for intending Candidates, containing the Conference rules, a full syllabus of the Examinations, specimen papers, and advice as to reading and other preparation. The following are appointed a Committee for this purpose: The Rev. J. Alexander Clapperton, M.A., Dr. Findlay, Dr. James Moulton, J. Conder Nattrass, B.A., B.D., Frederic Platt, M.A., B.D., John G. Tasker, and H. Lefroy Yorke, M.A., B.D. Dr. James Moulton, Convener.

Foreign Honorary Degrees.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee to examine the whole question of foreign honorary degrees, and their recognition in the Minutes of Conference.

2. The following is the Committee: the Rev. J. Willis Britton, Dr. Davison, Dr. Findlay, Henry Haigh, Charles H. Kelly, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., George Marris, Dr. James Moulton, Dr. Stephenson, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. Dr. James Moulton is the Convener.

Methodist Law, and other matters.—1. The Conference appoints a Standing Committee to consider Pastoral questions which concern the laws of the Connexion, and other matters relating to Methodist legislation and administration which require special attention.

2. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. John Shaw Banks, President of the Conference; W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary;

Rev. Dr. Allen,	Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.,
„ Joseph Bush,	„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ Albert Clayton,	„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ George Fletcher,	„ Dr. Randles,

Rev. Dr. Rigg,

„ H. Arnaud Scott,
„ John A. Sharp,
„ John S. Simon,
Rev. Dr. Stephenson,
„ W. Henry Thompson,
„ Dr. Waller,
„ Charles E. Wansbrough,
„ Owen Watkins.
„ Thomas E. Westerdale.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON is the Convener.

Nomination of Ministers to Departments.—1. The Conference appoints a special Committee to consider the difficulties arising out of the position in which the nomination of ministers to Departments is placed by the change in the Order of Conference Sessions.

2. The following is the Committee: The Rev. JOHN SHAW BANKS, President of the Conference; W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Samuel Chadwick,
„ James Chapman,
„ Albert Clayton,
„ T. Galland Hartley,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.,
„ Jabez Ingram,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
Rev. Dr. Randles,
„ Enoch Salt,
„ Alfred Sargent,
„ John A. Sharp,
„ John S. Simon,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ W. Henry Thompson,
„ Owen Watkins.

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Convener.

Administration of Sacraments by Probationers.—The Conference directs the Stationing Committee, year by year, to prepare a list of appointments in which permission should be granted to Probationers to administer the Sacraments. In cases of special emergency application for a dispensation shall be made to the President of the Conference, through the Chairman of the District.

Local Preachers' Meetings.—The Conference directs that in every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament.

SECTION III.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED PARTLY IN THE REPRESENTATIVE AND PARTLY IN THE PASTORAL SESSION.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL: THE QUESTION OF MANAGEMENT.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference, whilst not contemplating any immediate change, is of opinion that it is desirable that the School should be placed under the management of a single Head, either Ministerial or Lay, and resolves to give effect to this opinion on the occasion of a favourable opportunity.

3. The Conference resolves that steps be taken to obtain the consent of the Charity Commissioners to such an alteration in the Deed as will admit of the appointment of one Head, either Ministerial or Lay; and instructs the Trustees to take the necessary action.

SECTION IV.

THE CONFERENCE OF 1903.

1. THE Conference to be held in the year 1903 shall meet in Camborne, on Tuesday, July 21, at half-past Nine o'clock.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall meet at 1, Coleman Street, London, E.C., on Wednesday, July 8, at Ten o'clock.

(2) The Chairmen of Districts are required to send to the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, 49, City Road, London, E.C., not later than June 13, perfect copies of the District Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1903.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

2. (1) Ministers chosen to complete the Representation of Departments in the Conference during its Representative Session: the Rev. John Bell (B), G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Dr. Arthur E. Gregory, and Charles E. Wansbrough. (See Minutes, 1877, p. 213 (d).)

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise direct.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receive an appointment at the Conference, or be sent by the President as a Supply before Christmas, the year shall count as the first of his probation, and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he be not so appointed by the Conference, or sent out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This Resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Home Mission Fund.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons —shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing, but subject to the Regulations in regard to the probation of Students who have completed their term of three years. (See above, Section 3.)

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

(14) A proportion of the Missionary Students shall be trained in the Home Branches of the Theological Institution, and the vacancies so created at Richmond shall be filled by Candidates for the Home Work.

(15) Not more than one-third, nor fewer than one-fourth, of the Candidates allocated in each year to the Richmond Branch shall be Candidates for the Home Work; and an equal number of Candidates for the Foreign Work shall be distributed among the Home Branches.

(16) All Students for the Foreign Work who, having completed their term, may be placed on the List of Reserve, shall be provided for at the Richmond Branch.

(Minutes, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1891, 1897.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

7. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—(1) A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

(2) A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

8. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287, 288.)

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises; and shall be followed by a conversation on the state of the work of God. The doors shall not be open to visitors until after the Sacramental Service. (Minutes, 1898, p. 360; 1901, p. 110.)

14. Open Session.—An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on one evening of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422.)

15. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

16. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

17. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial. — In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

18. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

19. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

20. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Minutes, 1900, p. 230.)

21. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

When a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

22. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

23. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

24. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

25. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.) See Standing Order 1 (3).

26. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

27. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(7) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

28. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

29. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

30. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

31. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 15 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291.)

32. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred, without discussion:

(1) All cases, needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

33. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

34. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to their respective Affiliated Conferences. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

35. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

36. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

37. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

IV. The Stationing Committee.

38. Election of Representative in District Synod. — The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

39. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) As soon as possible after the Annual District Synod, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representatives to the Secretary of the Conference not later than June 1; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

(2) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 25 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(3) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(4) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1875], p. 709.)

40. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

41. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference. (Minutes, 1888, p. 316.)

42. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

43. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee may, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

44. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

N.B.—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

45. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

46. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

47. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—(1) Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered.

(2) The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1901, p. 171.)

V. Departments.

48. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate for appointment one of the three nominated by the Representative Session.

In any case of emergency which may arise during the Representative Session, involving immediate appointment, a similar course shall be taken.

In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

49. Method of Nominating Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—On the presentation of three names by the Committee of any Department, according to rule, for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall take at least one ballot; and then, if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session. (Minutes, 1892, p. 312.)

50. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

51. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

52. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

53. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

54. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

55. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

56. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

57. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

58. District Synods, 1903.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 10 and 17, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales,

Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1837], p. 224.)

59. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331.)

60. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

61. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

62. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

63. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

VIII. Chairmen.

64. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order, No. 50. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

65. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

66. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified on pp. 516-522.

67. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for mutual conference and prayer, to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

68. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

69. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

70. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

71. Neutrals in Voting.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

72. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

73. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.)

This Oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Minutes, 1896, p. 197.)

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline. (Minutes, 1897, p. 207.)

74. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

75. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

76. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

77. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

78. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

79. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—The Stationing Committee shall prepare, year by year, for the Conference decision, a list of appointments to which this privilege may be granted. In cases of special emergency which may arise during the year, application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219; 1902, p. 359.)

80. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

(2) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special Report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(3) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(4) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

81. System of Marking in Examinations.—(1) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

(2) The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

82. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

83. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

84. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are recommended to have an inspection of every Minister's house by an independent sanitary expert, at every change of Minister, and to hand a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the incoming Minister.

The Synods shall inquire, at their September meetings, whether this recommendation of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323.)

85. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a Synod to the Conference relating to a Connexional Department shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

86. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. Simpson Johnson, 49, City Road, London, E.C., not later than June 14, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

87. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

88. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

89. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them.

If the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

90. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

91. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These Resolutions, as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry at the May Synod concerning the due observance of this Regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

92. Probationers and the Lord's Supper. — Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, on their

Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

93. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

94. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

95. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connexion with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

96. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those Places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

97. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 3,

December 26, 1902; March 27 and June 26, 1903. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

98. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

99. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some Places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

100. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers for each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

101. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. Dr. HENRY J. POPE, 49, City Road, London, E.C.

102. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541 ; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

103. Trial of Trustees.—If a charge is brought against a Trustee, then there shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting before which the charge is investigated the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected ; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

104. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein.

105. Register of Trust Deeds. —A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

106. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

107. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that in some Places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Minutes, 1894, p. 323.

108. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

109. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

110. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

111. Joint Circuit Committees.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-school Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Minutes, 1891, p. 329.)

112. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the

113. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

114. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

115. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191; 1893, p. 319.)

116. Election of Representatives to the Synods.—(1) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall, at the March Quarterly Meeting, elect as members of the Synod either one or two Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the Synods in the May and September following.

(2) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the Synod; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

117. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

118. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

119. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute, for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

120. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

121. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

122. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

123. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

124. The Weekly Offertory.—The Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

125. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265, 266.)

126. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

127. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference directs that at each June Quarterly Meeting this shall be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 415-418.

128. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

129. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. Enoch Salt, 9, Lambert Road, Brixton Hill, London, S.W., not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

XI. The Local Preachers' Meeting.

130. Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, 1874, vol. xix., p. 455).

131. No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the Fifty-three Standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley, and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155).

132. All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Minutes, 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

133. Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Minutes, 1895, p. 437).

134. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Minutes, 1895, p. 314).

135. Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit.

(This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.)

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers Meeting concerned. (Minutes, 1895, p. 436).

136. Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Minutes, 1898, p. 250).

137. The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155).

138. Before any place is taken off the Plan the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall be obtained. (Minutes, 1895, p. 439).

XII. Sunday and Day Schools.

139. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at anyone of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

140. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The senior Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

N.B.—Where there are more Superintendents than one, should any difficulty arise as to which Superintendent should be counted the senior, the point may be determined at the meeting when the election of Representatives takes place. The word "senior" is intended to refer to seniority as Superintendent of the School, not to seniority in age.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the annual Teachers' Meeting.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the annual Teachers' Meeting, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

141. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

142. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1885, p. 278.)

143. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

In connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers shall be held, under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

SECTION VI.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

ADDRESS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Representatives of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, assembled in our Annual Conference, record our most heartfelt thanks to Almighty God for His great mercy in having spared your Majesty's life to this kingdom and empire; and we offer our most devout and earnest prayer that a complete convalescence may in His mercy be speedily vouchsafed.

The Conference also assures your Majesty of the loyal and affectionate sympathy which have been felt by the Wesleyan Methodists throughout the empire in your Majesty's recent affliction.

The Conference further expresses the deep and tender sympathy of the Wesleyan Methodist Church with her Majesty Queen Alexandra and the other members of your Majesty's Royal House during the grave anxieties through which they have recently passed.

For your Majesty's well-being and happiness, and for the honour, peace, and prosperity of your Majesty's reign, we shall not cease to offer our prayers to Almighty God.

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Conference,

JOHN S. BANKS, President.
MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

MANCHESTER,
July 22, 1902.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Brethren Beloved in the Lord,—

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." We give thanks to God for the manifest tokens of His favour which have been bestowed upon us during the past year.

The number of our Church members has shown a most gratifying increase; and the generosity of our people, especially of the poor, has been remarkably manifested in their contributions to the Twentieth Century Fund. The gathering of the Œcumenical Conference last September furnished striking evidence of the spiritual unity and the vast influence of Methodism throughout the world, while it brought home to all the solemn responsibility which rests upon us for so submitting ourselves to the Spirit of Christ that we may fulfil the mission which He has entrusted to us. For all these signs of His presence and favour we give humble and hearty thanks to God.

The circumstances of the present time unite to press upon our attention the spiritual conditions of our national and public life. We have shared the general sorrow of the nation for the illness of his Majesty the King, and its thanksgiving for his recovery. We pray that the lessons of this chastening may be learned by both King and people, and that its result may be seen in a spiritual and moral uplifting of the national life.

In common with the whole empire we give thanks to God for the restoration of peace, and for the indications which encourage the hope that the terrible strife which has raged so long will be followed by a reconciliation of races in South Africa, inspired by Christian motives and strengthened by mutual respect. The duty is laid upon us of offering unceasing prayer that this prospect may be realised, and that there may be poured out upon all the abundance of that Spirit of Christ of which magnanimity, brotherly kindness, and forbearance are unfailing characteristics.

The crisis through which the empire has passed has revealed in a marvellous way the strength of the bonds which unite all sections of the British race throughout the world. The unity of the empire has been found to rest upon spiritual rather than material foundations, upon that wonderful sympathy of mind and heart and purpose which belongs to us as our heritage from the past. Of that heritage the influence of our Protestantism, with its ideals of freedom and progress, is a vital part; while not a little must be attributed, under God, to the great spiritual revival of Methodism, and to the warmth and intimacy of the spiritual fellowship which has been established by it in all parts of the world. The revelation of this great brotherhood, and of its willingness to make great sacrifices in the common cause, lays heavy responsibilities upon the Christian Churches, and suggests vast spiritual possibilities for the future. Not least is this the case in respect of Methodism, alike because of its position in all parts of the empire, of its connexional organisation, and of its aggressive spirit. It is for us carefully to watch over those spiritual elements of our common life, which are the divine source of our imperial greatness and define its providential purposes in the world. Our duty is to devise means by which this common spirit may be utilised for the supreme objects of the kingdom of Christ upon earth. Who can exaggerate the importance of turning to account the sense of brotherhood which inspires all portions of our race for the purpose of co-operation in well ordered missionary enterprise throughout the world, and for the treatment in the Christian spirit of the innumerable spiritual and moral problems which arise within the empire itself?

With the restoration of peace our country is enabled once more to consider those problems of spiritual, moral, and social importance which war of necessity thrusts into the background. It is daily impressed upon us that we are on the eve of momentous changes in many departments of our national, commercial, and industrial life, and that these changes will call for the most earnest attention on the part of Christian men. The vast increase of scientific knowledge and its many-sided application to the various needs of our practical life have well nigh annihilated both time and space. The whole world stands in closer relationship to us at the present time than did the various parts of this country to one another in the days of John Wesley. The closeness of our intercourse, the immense powers now possessed for the production and distribution of wealth, and the almost worldwide co-operation and competition for these ends bid fair to revolutionise the conditions of our industrial and commercial life. We are hastening, as never before, to a goal which no man can foresee. The changes which are taking place greatly quicken the activities of life, increase its pressure, and multiply its anxieties. The progressive nations of the world seem threatened with the sway of commercialism carried on in the spirit of war. In our own country the public mind alternates between moods of easy self-confidence and nervous apprehension. We are adjured with almost prophetic earnestness to seek national efficiency, and those who exhort us sometimes seem to forget that the sources of efficiency are pre-eminently spiritual and moral, and not merely intellectual and administrative. This state of things points to the danger of a period of practical materialism, when the interests of brotherliness and of human progress may well be sacrificed to considerations of both greed and fear, when the weaker classes and races may be exploited for the benefit of the stronger, and when multitudes may live under such conditions of hurry and mental absorption as to endanger both religion and all the higher qualities and ends of spiritual character. It is important to bear in mind the simple fact that all these changes are brought about, not mechanically, but by the state of human desires; that the prevalence of commercialism means the dominance of the commercial spirit. The crowding out of the spiritual can only take place when the spiritual is so far enfeebled that it no longer claims its own. The force of the definitely anti-Christian movement of the past century appears largely to have spent itself; but it may be succeeded by a yet more deadly indifference to the supreme questions of human life, because men are engrossed in its material concerns.

The most urgent need of the times is that of a great spiritual movement, issuing from a revival of religion in the broadest and truest sense evangelical. The greed of gain can only be exorcised by "hunger and thirst after righteousness," the materialism of life by the gift of "righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." Evil cannot be cured by negative protests, but must be dethroned by the accession of good. Mammon, with its attendant vices of self-indulgence and cruelty, will be cast down only when Christ reigns. He fulfils by His saving grace all human powers, and gives the means and incentive to all efficiency, individual or national. He enables men to utilise all advance in every field of human thought and power in due subordination to the highest ends of life, and counteracts all evil by bringing about the true heirship of spiritual men over every realm and in all relationships of life.

We entreat you to offer unceasing prayer that God will of His great mercy bestow such a spiritual revival upon the world. Such prayer, however, involves the realising faith which enables us at once to co-operate to the full with the will of God. We are called, therefore, by the most constraining motives to set forth Christ in relation to the pressing needs of the present day. In the first place by strong and courageous teaching. The power of such teaching is not intellectual, but lies in the simplicity and fulness of our experience of Christ as the gracious Redeemer, who, in saving us from sin, satisfies our spirits and calls forth those spiritual powers by which every relationship of life may be fulfilled and every interest of life served—in love, dutifulness, and unselfishness. Thus to proclaim Christ as Lord of the broadest human issues, because He is the Saviour of the human heart, is the great evangelical message needed for our times. That message cannot be uttered in word only; it must be in deed—by our strenuous and united action to realise the kingdom of Christ throughout the whole range of human life. In the manifestation of this spirit is the cure for worldliness. Worldliness cannot be completely defined by external practices, or destroyed by external commands and prohibitions. The excessive pursuit of amusements that are often hurtful is one of the most serious evils of our times, and needs to be steadfastly resisted. But the essence of worldliness is the spirit of inordinateness, the spirit which prefers the lower to the higher, which sets the objects of self-will or of self-indulgence before the fulfilment of the purposes of Christ. An unjust gain does this not less than a frivolous pleasure. The world cannot be conquered by ignoring the ordinary desires of human nature or the complex interests of men and women bound together by divine ordinance in the many-sided ties of human society. The highest loyalty to Christ involves the fullest recognition of the legitimacy of all that is truly natural, since He is its Creator and its end. To recognise the place and to order the service of all such natural desires and such human concerns is the task of the most spiritual Christianity of our times. Only by accomplishing it can we gradually ensure the social conditions which are necessary to spiritual well-being and prevent our national prosperity from being gained at the expense of multitudes who, in city slums and under economic disabilities, are the victims rather than the heirs of our civilisation.

And our spirit must in the fullest sense be missionary. Religion must not lag behind either politics or commerce. If the statesman and the capitalist must, in the worldwide range of their interests, become catholic, still more must the Christian. The missionary outwent the discoverer in the past; he must not be left behind in the future. That which belonged to the venturous heroism of Christianity in the past is indispensable to its very existence in the present. As the world becomes a common market-place, it must, above all, become a Christian commonwealth, else the most sacred interests, divine and human, will be betrayed. Our loyalty to Christ will be measured by the extent to which we rise to the greatness of this calling and live as a missionary people, seeing to it that wherever the empire-builder or trader goes there also is to be found the messenger of Christ. On the other hand, the building up of a worthy Christian civilisation at home has direct effects in promoting the success of foreign missions which it could not have in the past, when the relationships of nations were more remote.

Only by the manifestation of such a Christianity, deep in its experience of Christ, lofty and wide in its ideals, fearless in its teaching, unworldly in its life, can the materialism of our times be overcome, and can the unparalleled forces of the present be mastered and turned, as they must be, to serve the advance of the kingdom of God.

God has given to Methodism, by its spiritual genius and history, special qualifications for taking part in this great task. Its strength has always lain in experimental religion, and the world, of both thoughtful and practical men, has come to be of its opinion in attaching the utmost weight to experience. Its religion has been affectional, shown forth in a tender and zealous enthusiasm for God, which made it the great awakener of religious impressions in a godless time. It has known from the first how to unite depth of spirituality with breadth of sympathies and a practical aim. Its simple and missionary catholicity has made the saying "The world is my parish" peculiarly its own. In its more vigorous forms it has continued to enjoy remarkable favour with the common people, and it has extended its influence among all the Anglo-Saxon peoples. The stress which has been laid upon Christian fellowship continues to give it unrivalled advantages in promoting and educating the highest temper of Christian life. It has striven to be faithful to "the truth, as truth is in Jesus," without being fettered by a spirit of narrow dogmatism. Hence it has passed peacefully through many crises of thought and opinion which have caused painful divisions elsewhere. With God's blessing it will do so again. It has united order and elasticity, has combined local freedom and worldwide expansion with a connexionalism which is unique. It may be confidently affirmed that the forms of our modern thought and the tendencies of our modern life are greatly more favourable to the expression of that which is essential in Methodism and to the reception of its influence than were those of the eighteenth century. If we are faithful to our calling, and to the present guidance and promptings of the Holy Spirit, there is every indication that Methodism is only about to reveal its full and many-sided content. There is every indication further that, if that possibility be realised, the result will be the manifestation of a Christian life and activity fitted in a peculiar degree to turn aside the evils of the present time, to develop a worldwide evangelism, and to disarm dangerous tendencies of theology and ecclesiasticism by a fuller display of the simplicity, the power, and the comprehensiveness of the gospel of Christ.

We owe it both to God and to our fellow-men to preserve and to develop with the utmost care that special type of Christian life and organisation which it has pleased God to create in Methodism. We must seek increasingly communion and co-operation with all the Churches of Christ, while having the fidelity to hold fast and to cultivate the special gifts bestowed upon us which are so important for the salvation of the world. According to the measure of our faith will this union of distinctiveness and catholicity be possible. In the same spirit we must safeguard our position from any encroachment from outside. In protecting our rights, and those of our children, we are simply seeking to make good the conditions under which our duties can be discharged. It becomes inevitable sometimes that, in pursuing this course, we should be plunged into controversies which have political aspects. The necessity is the more painful when we are brought into conflict with men who, while we may think them mistaken, are as conscientious and as anxious to do the will of Christ as we are ourselves. In all such disputes we must endeavour, as far as possible, "to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." At the same time we must not flinch from any contention or effort which may be necessary, both to ensure that our opportunities of giving full effect to the truth that is in us be not unjustly invaded and to promote the wider interests of the cause of Christ.

If our calling is to be fulfilled, certain spiritual dangers at present threatening us must, by the grace of God, be overcome. Our growing social prosperity may constitute a very serious peril. And this not merely because of the general fact that the possession of riches involves the temptation to worldliness of spirit, but because of those special conditions of our times to which reference has already been made. These conditions threaten, not least of all, a Church, the bulk of whose members are engaged in commercial and industrial pursuits. The more arduous tasks of commercial enterprise may very well, unless we are most watchful, become so absorbing as to destroy the higher ideals and the finer temper of our Christian life. Such a result would not merely injure the influence of those who themselves should be leaders in the Church, but would have the fatal effect of hindering the young people growing up in our homes from hearing and obeying the higher calls of Christ. The true test of prosperity in the Church is not the number of its adherents, the multiplication of its institutions, or even the generosity of its contributions, important as all these things are. It is to be found in the simplicity and power of its faith in Christ, in its entire consecration to His purposes, in its spiritual capacity to receive and to declare at all costs His message to the times. Such blessings are possessed only by those who are unworldly in life, and their unworldliness is measured, not so much by the things from which they abstain, as by the Christlikeness of the affections and purposes which satisfy their hearts and inspire their lives. Only when men are absolutely surrendered to Christ, and have no thought save for the accomplishment of His purposes in the world, can there come to them the veracity of mind which enables them to discern the meaning of His truth for themselves and for their generation, the strength of character which enables them to set it forth in deed, and the devotion which urges them forward to capture the strongholds of evil in His name. We cannot return to the outward simplicity of our forefathers in the faith. The complex conditions of our modern life involve more various duties than fell to the generations of the past, if only because, in days of democratic government and administration, each has his measure of responsibility for those conditions of the common well-being, which in days gone by were either controlled by the few, or were neglected to the spiritual and moral hurt of the generations which have followed. But our place in the armies of Christ is lost unless the spirit of our devotion be as simple and as whole-hearted as was our fathers'.

> Vessels, instruments of grace,
> Pass we thus our happy days
> 'Twixt the mount and multitude,
> Doing or receiving good.

This was the ideal of life which they were enabled by God joyfully to realise throughout their lives. It was because they realised it by being "filled with the Spirit" that they were the means of transforming the England of the eighteenth century, of quickening all the Churches of Christ, of awakening the spirit which has created our modern philanthropies, and of turning aside the danger of a destructive revolution. Let us pray unceasingly to God that the same spirit of devotion may enable us to hear as clearly in our days the call of God, to enjoy as fully a deep and living experience of Christ, and as graciously to set Him forth in all provinces of our life. Otherwise the gift that is in us will not be stirred up. We shall fall back upon an indolent imitation of the past, or perhaps be led into an equally guilty betrayal of it. The majority may sink into contented and inglorious ease, satisfied with the vicarious and ill-supported devotion of the few, and with remedies for spiritual and social evils which only touch their fringe, because we have not the self-sacrifice to attempt or desire more. In that case the noblest chapters of the modern Acts of the Apostles will record the triumphs in foreign missions, in Christian thought and life, of other Churches than our own. And the world will miss the revelation through us of what is contained in that secret of scriptural holiness made known to our fathers, and yet unexhausted in its significance for the spiritual needs of the present time.

The manifold tokens of God's blessing vouchsafed to us in the recent past are a divine indication that this evil shall not befall us. But that it may not it behoves us to betake ourselves to God once more in unceasing prayer for a renewed baptism of the Holy Spirit. And we must resolutely guard those institutions and observances which are needful, if spiritual influences are to be deepened and preserved. It is, above all, necessary to watch over the spirit and practices of family religion, and to safeguard the observance of the Lord's Day by the cultivation of a sober liberty which will make it a day of inward refreshing. No pains should be spared to maintain the vigour and attractiveness of our Church fellowship. Thoughtful attention should be given to our Sunday-school teaching, and to the conditions under which it is carried on, in order that it may hold its own and may more completely attain its spiritual ends in days of great educational improvements. Intelligent efforts should be made to familiarise our people, and especially the young men and women among us, with the progress and urgent needs of foreign missions, and with the most hopeful endeavours which are being made at home to minister to spiritual destitution and to remedy social wrongs. Such efforts should aim at strengthening the sense of the solidarity of the whole Church in all such enterprises in order that the spirit that desires to emulate and to support them may be quickened in all. We most earnestly beg you to co-operate heartily with the proposal to hold conventions in aid of foreign missions throughout the country during the coming year, and by your increased contributions to roll away the reproach which at present rests upon us that we have not kept pace with other Churches in our efforts on behalf of this noblest cause.

Care should be taken to awaken interest in, and to give support to, the great moral movements of our time, so that the full force of our Churches may be enlisted to destroy the danger and disgrace of intemperance and lust. And with wide sympathy our people should be encouraged to bear their share in those general movements, such as work among soldiers and sailors, by which the religious public attempt to do their duty to those whose service to the commonwealth renders them peculiarly liable to both physical and moral danger. In particular let us manifest this spirit as our army returns from South Africa. The period of relaxation and rejoicing after the hardships of the campaign must be attended by serious temptations; let us do what we can to lessen these, both in the immediate and in the remoter future. In all such matters we must not shrink from bearing our share of responsibility according to our power.

Finally, brethren, we "commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified." If we have spoken to you of impending dangers and of ever growing calls, it has not been to dishearten but to encourage you, for to the true soldier there is no encouragement so great as to be called upon to "war a good warfare." "Who is sufficient for these things?" is the cry of each succeeding generation, as it faces the tasks entrusted to it by God. "Our sufficiency is of God," is the reassuring answer, which is always made by simple and childlike faith.

Let us be true to our Master and Lord; truly conservative in spirit, yet ever courageously welcoming necessary change. Let us yield ourselves to Him that He may fill us with His light and love, and may make us the means of the conversion of multitudes, of the building up of His people in the graces of the spiritual life, and of extending His kingdom throughout the earth.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN S. BANKS, President.

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

We gladly accept the opportunity afforded by our Annual Conference to greet you in the name of our Lord and Master, and to renew the assurance of our affectionate and unabated interest in all that concerns your welfare.

It has been a great joy to receive the gifted, cultured, and honoured President of the Conference, the Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D. His ability, scholarship, and devotion had already endeared him to us. This appreciation has been intensified by the charm of his presence, and by the dignified and delightful discharge of the duties of his exalted office.

We much regret that the ex-President, the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., whose conduct in the chair of our Conference is lovingly remembered, has been unable to revisit us; but we have heartily welcomed the Rev. John Shaw Banks and the Rev. William T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D. By their counsel and effective public services they have worthily represented you and enriched us. The expression of your goodwill has been further enhanced by the esteemed presence of your lay representative, Mr. Henry Bisseker. We have given him a brotherly welcome, and have listened with pleasure to his helpful message.

The conditions under which we prosecute our labours in this country are already familiar to you. The wisdom of the serpent and the harmlessness of the dove are qualifications we have learnt to prize. New and subtle phases of the difficulties which confronted our fathers present themselves to us. Nevertheless we toil steadily and cheerfully on. The history of our efforts as a Church is bright with proofs of the possibilities within our range to-day. Upon such memories we base great hopes. The people of this land are still rich in capacity for saintliness and service. Although much of our success goes to enrich other Churches and other lands, yet we are thankful to be able to report an increase of 257 in our membership. To you the gain may seem small, to us it is precious and significant.

The past year has been a period of steady progress in every department of our work. "In quietness and in confidence" has been our strength. The more aggressive aspects of our work have been well maintained by the vigorous life and sacred enterprise of our City Missions. Through the agency of the Central Ireland Mission and our General Mission, the gospel message still rings out to crowds of willing hearers in the fairs and markets of our southern and western towns. The work of the Colporteur, as he carries the word of God and religious literature to the homes of the people, is another hopeful feature of our attempts to win "Ireland for Christ."

Our efforts to train our children in Christian truth and to enlist our young people in Christian service have been earnestly sustained through the instrumentality of our Sunday schools, Christian Endeavour Societies, and kindred organisations.

We continue to watch very carefully our educational interests. Our opposition to a State-endowed Sectarian University is strong and abiding. We rejoice in the growing success which distinguishes our Colleges in Dublin and Belfast.

Our attempts to combat one of our country's greatest foes—intemperance—have been blessedly stimulated within recent months. At last, many who fill responsible civil and religious positions have become alarmed by the rapidly increasing consumption of intoxicating liquor and the readiness with which licences for its sale have been granted. From the judicial bench and from the altars of many Roman Catholic churches impassioned protests and appeals have been delivered, with the result that the magistrates of our land are now banding themselves together in an earnest resolve to restrict the issue of new licences, and to regulate more carefully the conduct of the trade. We have hailed the Children's Bill as a precious boon, and we eagerly await the enactment of further helpful legislation now impending.

The success of our Twentieth Century Fund has greatly enheartened us. Our people have nobly responded to the call to lay at the Redeemer's feet this splendid contribution, so that His glory may be more abundantly manifested in a better equipment and a wider sphere for our future "work and labour of love." The 52,000 guineas aimed at have been promised, and a sum of £47,540 already paid. For this highest financial achievement of Irish Methodism we are devoutly grateful to God.

While mindful of the trust committed to us, we are deeply interested in all that appertains to your welfare. As fellow-subjects we have shared your joy in two prominent events which have so happily synchronised—the proclamation of peace in South Africa and the anticipated Coronation of our King. Our loyal devotion to the Throne of this vast empire has been evoked afresh by these great national rejoicings. As fellow-workers in the cause of God, we are intensely interested in your larger sphere, your inspiring opportunities, your manifold activities, and your able administration. The splendid increase of membership which you report has given us much joy, and has led us to praise God that He has so highly honoured your efforts.

We have watched with earnest attention the progress of your Twentieth Century Fund. We rejoice in the success of your magnificent effort to raise this princely sum for the furtherance of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in home and foreign lands.

Your educational interests have been much on our hearts of late. We have shared in the anxiety created by the dangerous aspects of the proposed Education Bill. With you we strongly deprecate any attempt to place your schools at the mercy of High Church interference, or Papal domination or control.

We have noted with warm satisfaction your intensified zeal and enterprise in relation to the needs and operation of your Foreign Missionary Society. The objects of this Society are equally dear to us, and we trust we shall ever be ready to co-operate with you in more earnest prayer, more self-sacrificing liberality, and more aggressive effort.

Since the last Conference one of our brethren in the full work of the ministry and nine of our supernumerary ministers have entered into rest. With one exception they had been permitted to fulfil a long and honourable period of service.

Seven young men have been ordained to the full work of the ministry, and nine candidates have been received on probation.

The following highly esteemed brethren have been chosen as our representatives to your Conference at Manchester: The Rev. Wesley Guard (whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation), Caleb S. Laird, M.A., William Y. Northridge, and Mr. Frank Megarry, J.P.

We pray that a rich blessing may attend all your deliberations, and that God may "make all grace abound toward you, that ye, always having all-sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

CALEB SHERA LAIRD, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1902.

BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

The warm-hearted message of greeting presented to us by your honoured representatives has been received with great pleasure, and we affectionately reciprocate all your good wishes.

We never forget our close spiritual unity and kinship with you. Under God's good Spirit it was the same apostolic man in Ireland as in England who went through the land with the glorious certainty of the Witness of the Spirit, and left behind him the Societies of Christian believers which have crystallised into the Methodist Church. It is a pleasure to recognise in you the traits of our origin; to rejoice in your strong adherence to the serious duties of Christian citizenship, your willingness to be a people apart in your protest against public evils, and your persistent attachment to what is best in the old Puritan tradition.

We are interested in the efforts and success of your City Missions, and in the development of colportage and open-air preaching. Wesley was bold enough, when excluded from the Churches, to preach in the highways; you and we, his spiritual children, have roofs under which to preach, but our spiritual ancestry impels us still to go to those who need us most, and to preach in the open air. The great masses who appear to be carelessly outside the desire for public worship appeal to us as to you, and we are publicly committing ourselves to renewed activity in this matter. We are using our best equipped and gifted men in this work. We realise how difficult is your share in the enterprise, since you have to labour amidst a population prejudiced by a form of Christianity ostentatiously alien from your own. We pray that your difficult work in this department may be done with all wisdom, and may be attended by great power in the winning of souls.

Your new enterprises in Dublin, as well as your older missions in that city and Belfast, are signs of your vigour and success, which we especially welcome. Our own Conference is being held in the hall of a most extensive and blessed Mission, whose amazing fruitfulness assures us that the old gospel is as effective under the new conditions of great cities as it was a century and a half ago amidst the colliers of Kingswood or the miners and fishermen of Cornwall. We join you most heartily in the determined crusade against the degradation of strong drink, and rejoice in the prospect of some improvement in legislation on this matter. You and we are one in our need of constant watchfulness over the heritage of freedom won for us by our fathers. We are grateful for your fellow-feeling in our educational difficulties. You will have heard how unmistakably we have declared our opinion of the Bill on this subject now passing through Parliament. The point of danger with you is different, but the principle is the same; we reciprocate your sympathy, and continue our opposition to the endowment by the State of a Sectarian University. Our Secondary schools and yours alike are prosperous and successful. We are hoping to share in the increased efficiency which is to be enforced on all such institutions.

In this, our Twentieth Century Fund will give us great assistance. We believe we shall realise the vast amount aimed at, and it is with deep thankfulness to God that we recognise the beautiful self-denial and generosity of the multitudes of our people. We are being kept from undue self-gratulation by the necessity of including the accruing interest before actually realising the amount. We earnestly desire that the result shall be all spiritual. May your own striking generosity in raising a like fund be crowned with a continuance of the blessing that has attended the process of its ingathering.

Our Conference has been deeply stirred by a sense of the need of a far larger gift in prayer, money, and men to Foreign Missions. We realise profoundly that the main object of the Church's existence is to mission the world with the gospel, and we are earnestly setting ourselves to bring this home to the consciences of our people as well as to our own. We have rejoiced in the young men whom you have sent during recent years to our great mission fields, and trust for a continuance and growth of Irish Methodism in the absorbing campaign for spreading the Saviour's kingdom.

Your request that the Rev. Wesley Guard shall be appointed your Vice-President has been gladly granted. We are happily familiar with his presence and his graceful speech. Your other representatives, lay and ministerial, were cordially welcomed.

We have deputed the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., Marshall Hartley, Thomas Rippon, and Mr. J. Bamford Slack, B.A., to accompany the President on his visit to your next Conference.

And now we "commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

As we meet in our Annual Conference we find all our deliberations overshadowed by the painful dispensation of Providence which deprives our Churches of the faithful, eloquent, and gentle administrations of the Rev. James Wood, one of our best beloved brethren. One of our younger colleagues is also laid aside for a time. Evidently our brethren have not spared themselves, and they suffer for it.

Certainly, as in all warfare, so in ours, we must expect to see our ranks thinned by death or disease; nevertheless we feel our losses, and cannot avoid some emotion as we number the men of zeal and experience who have fallen in our front ranks within the last few years. But, thank God! we are cheered by the goodly number of young ministers who have shown in various directions valuable capacities for work and promise of great usefulness.

Many of us, young and old, have tried to break new ground and inaugurate new methods of work; but those have had most apparent and immediate success who have turned their attention to the careful shepherding of our young people. Many conversions have taken place in various places, north and south, and the young converts are being gathered in groups, which already tell very favourably on the piety of our elder members.

Yet we cannot but repeat our ever-recurring lament that we find it so difficult to reach the men. Public opinion in France takes it for granted that religion is useful for women and children—a weakness of little minds; but that a man should not allow himself to be troubled with such superstitious beliefs as faith in God or the immortality of the soul.

The universal frequenting of the public-house and the strong influence which it exerts are a huge barrier to the success of the gospel. One of the problems we have to solve, in our villages and towns alike, is how to gain even a hearing for our message. Yet the signs of the times are favourable: the relations between Church and State stand now in France in the very forefront of practical politics; the last General Election has brought about such a tension between the Roman Catholic clergy and the Republican Government that ecclesiastical, and therefore religious, questions have become the burning topics of the day. There may at any moment arise such events that our nation will have to listen to the voice of God calling France once more to light and life through the gospel. A crisis in our national evolution may be very near; we know that we can rely on your prayers and interest in these momentous times.

We gather from the reports of your District Synods that God has favoured you with a large increase of members, and we have heard with joy of the blessing of God on your various activities. May you enjoy such extensive revivals that all your Societies may find their growth renewed!

It would be difficult to express our relief at the cessation of hostilities in South Africa. May God hasten the day when war, all manner of war, shall cease unto the ends of the earth! In the awful calamities that have overtaken the West Indies, in the fluctuations of joy and sorrow throughout all nations, we find a strong call to receive more fully that kingdom that cannot be shaken, and to worship Him, King of kings and Lord of lords, before whom every knee shall bow in heaven and on earth. May His kingdom come in abundance of spiritual riches for your great empire, for our nation, and for the whole world!

We have watched with solemn feeling the shadow of death which the Almighty caused to fall around the Throne at a moment so unlooked for. We are thankful that the shadow has been lifted, and that the British nation can rejoice in the spared life and returning health of its sovereign, for whose salvation we earnestly pray.

In concluding our sessions, crowned with true edification and brotherly love, we nominate the Rev. Matthieu Gallienne, B.A., as our President for next year. We have appointed as our representative to your Conference in Manchester the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., a well-beloved brother, whose work in France has been manifestly owned of God, and whose retirement would be a great sorrow indeed if we did not think it only a matter of one year.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JULES GUITON, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1902.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We have received with much pleasure the Address which you have sent us, and heartily reciprocate your fraternal greetings. It has afforded us much satisfaction to welcome amongst us your representative, Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., whose work is so well known and highly esteemed.

We sorrow with you in the retirement from active service of your greatly gifted brother, the Rev. James Wood, who has served you nobly and well. For him and for your younger colleague, laid aside by sickness, we offer our earnest prayers.

We are glad to know that pioneers are still to be found among the brethren of the French Conference; we would remind you that pioneer work is essential, not merely to the well-being, but to the very existence of our Church. Vitality may express itself in many ways; but it always shows itself in direct onslaughts on the kingdom of darkness. At the same time we are entirely of opinion that a progressive Church must be always pastoral. The shepherding of the young is one of the most important and delightful fields of Christian service. We shall do well to take care that we are pastoral as well as evangelistic, and that we do not allow our members to slip away from us for want of earnest and affectionate supervision.

We are not greatly surprised to hear that you find it difficult to reach the men. You are fighting a great battle against tremendous odds, and have often doubtless reminded yourselves that the countries in which Roman Catholicism is the dominant force do not grow men to whom questions of religion are of paramount importance. Protestantism develops true manhood, and our experience in England is that only the Churches whose Protestantism is most thorough attract men in any large numbers. Even in France this holds good, if we are credibly informed that not many men are to be found in the Roman churches. Superstition ends in atheism, and unintelligent demands upon faith terminate in darkness and despair.

Referring to the disturbed condition of French ecclesiastical affairs, we express our earnest desire that these events may turn out for the furtherance of the gospel and for the spread of evangelical truth everywhere.

We sympathise with you in your comment as to the disastrous influence of the public-house. In the slum neighbourhoods of our great towns and cities we have begun to realise that we cannot save the people unless the Churches make a home for them, and we are attempting to solve this problem by counteracting the social mischief of the public-house by the social influence of the Church.

We are glad that you are encouraged by the manifest signs of God's presence in our midst. The past year has been one of rich and constant blessing. Thankful for the past, we look forward with enthusiasm to the Connexional year upon which we soon enter. Our beloved President, in a memorable address delivered to this Conference, emphasised the vital importance of evangelistic preaching, and this, we rejoice to know, is being more and more practised.

The cessation of the South African War is a cause for profound thanksgiving to God. We doubt not that the establishment of a lasting peace will tend to the great and abiding advantage of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We greatly appreciate your reference to the mercy of God in preserving to our nation the life of his Majesty King Edward, and we join with you in prayer that his reign may be made a blessing to his subjects.

We welcome your choice of your President for next year. We are at one with you in opinion as to his fitness to guide the counsels of your Conference.

And now, dear and honoured brethren, we commend you to the All-wise for wisdom and to the Omnipotent for strength, and earnestly beseech for you His continued guidance and grace.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1902.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your letter of affectionate greeting, assuring us of your continued interest in our work and your prayers on our behalf, has been cordially received by the Conference; we appreciate your sympathy with us in these days of protracted trial.

The continuance of hostilities still limits the operations of our Church, and many of the Circuits which were broken up at an early stage of the war are still Circuits in name only. The disturbed state of the country generally has most disastrously affected many of the congregations in the rural districts.

We view with serious apprehension the additional problems which the Churches of this country must face in the immediate future. We fear that not the least of the evils resulting from this long and terrible conflict will be the spirit of unrest begotten in thousands of our young men, of indifference to divine things, and that general lowering of moral tone which comes from the life of the camp and the active service of the field.

Our resources will be taxed and our faith tested by the new order of things arising in our midst; for we must not only take our share in meeting the spiritual necessities of new comers, but also in combating those evils which already many are seeking to introduce from the older centres of civilisation and to graft upon the younger life of our new communities. Our responsibilities are great; "who is sufficient for these things?" "Our sufficiency is of God."

We have been greatly encouraged to face the future with renewed hopefulness by the unmistakable signs of the divine Presence in our midst during the past year. Notwithstanding the disheartening conditions under which many of our brethren have lived and worked, we are able to report a membership of 66,436 European and native, with 27,224 on trial, and 18,349 in junior classes; thus showing an increase of 4,000 in full membership with the Church. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ," "the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforteth us in all our affliction."

The Conference has had to deal with the grave financial condition into which the very successes of our work have brought us; and we view with apprehension the possible results of the steps which it has felt compelled to take in order to avoid an increase of debt; viz. the reduction by nearly one-half of all the grants needed for the carrying on and extension of our work. How this drastic, but apparently necessary, measure will affect that work, especially in the purely missionary aspect, we dare not forecast. Our trust is in Him, whose kingdom we seek in all things to advance, that He will suffer no permanent injury to follow.

Owing to the impossibility of pressing the claims of the Twentieth Century Fund upon our people in many of the disturbed districts of the country, the Conference has felt justified in extending the time for closing the Fund to the end of the present year.

We have been exceedingly gratified at the reports presented by the Girls' High School and the Kingswood College for Boys at Grahamstown. These schools have more than fulfilled the expectation of their promoters, and steps are being taken to increase the accommodation of both. We are convinced that these excellent institutions will prove a great blessing to the Methodism of South Africa in retaining the young people of many of our best families within our Church. Other educational schemes are in progress in the Orange River Colony and Natal, which we feel assured will be of great benefit to our Connexion in the future.

Three European and six native brethren have been ordained during the present Conference. The results of their term of probation give promise of a useful and honourable ministry.

The Rev. Philip Tearle and John P. Back have been appointed our ministerial representatives to your Conference; we are assured you will heartily welcome them after many years of faithful and earnest service in this country. We have also much pleasure in associating with theirs the names of two most honoured laymen, Mr. William Palmer, J.P., and the Hon. James L. Hulett, both from the colony of Natal.

We mourn the loss by death of two of our European and one of our native brethren: viz. W. Shaw Davis, who for more than thirty years laboured in our native circuits with great devotion and signal success; Thomas Oldman, one of the most promising of our younger ministers; and J. Stegmann Dlakiya, who passed away in the midst of an active and faithful career.

We have nominated the Rev. Nendick Abraham as the President of our next Conference. He is a brother greatly beloved, whose praise is in all the Churches; his saintly character and his ability as a preacher of the gospel of our common Lord mark him as a worthy successor of those who have hitherto filled this high office. We confidently hope that you will ratify our choice.

And now, in reliance upon the grace of our divine Lord, we pray for you and for ourselves unbounded blessing and great spiritual prosperity to our common Methodism throughout the world.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

EZRA NUTTALL, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1902.

HONOURED AND BELOVED BRETHREN,—

The Conference receives your affectionate greeting with much satisfaction and thankfulness.

We are filled with joy that the deep shadow under which you addressed us is removed, and we are able to greet you under the genial sunshine of peace. In the accomplishment of this happy result, for which both you and we have earnestly prayed and anxiously waited, we thankfully recognise the gracious intervention of the Prince of Peace, and we believe that, by the mercy of God, a new and glorious era has dawned upon all the Churches of South Africa, which will be attended by unexampled prosperity in the work of bringing men to God and the building up of the Church of Christ. We earnestly join with you in prayer that the amicable relations which have supervened upon the late prolonged and disastrous war may be maintained, and that under the reign of our gracious King Edward VII., now so happily restored to health after an alarming illness, we may be "godly and quietly governed."

Your kindness to our soldiers on active service during the recent war will long be remembered by us with gratitude, and we can never forget your tender solicitude on behalf of the sick and wounded. Such acts of mercy bind our hearts to yours in enduring affection.

Most fully have we appreciated the trials and apprehensions to which you have alluded in your address. Your resources have indeed been taxed and your faith tested, but we are confident that the Great Head of the Church, who ever brings good out of evil, and has come to the help of His people in establishing such an honourable peace, will continue to assist you in solving the financial and religious problems which lie before you in the immediate future.

We heartily rejoice with you in the remarkable signs of progress which your address reports, and to which your representatives, Rev. Philip Tearle and Sir James L. Hulett, referred in their admirable and effective speeches to the Conference.

Much enthusiasm was aroused by the announcement of your noble efforts in connexion with the Twentieth Century Fund. It is evident that the hand of the Lord is with you, that the spirit of enterprise is largely developed among you, and that you are ready to enter the doors which will be opened by the new and happy order of things in South Africa.

We mourn with you the loss of three esteemed and devoted brethren: W. Shaw Davis, Thomas Oldman, and J. Stegmann Dlakiya. May the Lord of the harvest send forth labourers, good men, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, to continue their useful work!

The Conference heartily ratifies the choice you have made in the nomination of the Rev. Nendick Abraham as President of your next Conference, and prays that his year of office may be attended by much happiness and prosperity.

We shall watch with the greatest interest all the departments of your work during the coming year, and will not cease to pray that abounding success may be vouchsafed to your earnest labours.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

WEST INDIAN WESTERN CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1902.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

Assembled in our eighteenth Annual Conference, we send you cordial and affectionate greeting. We are deeply grateful for your reply to the Address of our Conference of 1901, and for the assurance of your constant solicitude for us in the midst of our difficulties, trials, and bereavements.

Your words of sympathy, and especially your authorisation of a public appeal by the Missionary Committee on our behalf, have nerved and strengthened us in our resolve to stand at our posts, bear our burdens patiently, and sustain the bitter struggle with adverse circumstances; for we feel assured that when a clear and sympathetic statement of our position and needs is officially made to the British Methodist public, there will be a ready, generous, and adequate response to your appeal. We are still looking confidently for that assistance you have led us to expect, and which we now require more urgently than ever, and earnestly hope that it will not long be delayed.

The strain upon us is great, and is being keenly felt by all. The health and spirits of many of our ministers are being seriously affected, and it is to be feared that it is also impairing the spiritual life of many of our people. At present we are passing through a period of unexampled commercial depression, and the majority of our members are in deep poverty. In consequence—though amazingly liberal and amongst the most generous of the world—they cannot now support the work as once they did; and our trusts are becoming more and more embarrassed through our inability to raise the interest due upon our debts.

We are seriously concerned about the question of candidates for our Ministry. For some years we have only received one. If more were to be accepted by us the difficulty would be to train them, now that we have been compelled to close York Castle; and we recognise that it is very undesirable to send out untrained men into the work. We have no alternative, therefore, but to look to you for assistance in the training of our candidates, and the filling of vacancies created by the return of men to England and by others becoming supernumeraries.

We are fully conscious of the great drain upon your resources caused by the late Boxer rebellion and persecution in China, and the war which still drags its weary course in South Africa. You have our heart-felt sympathy in all, and we hope and pray that these things may turn out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel.

In spite of our many and great difficulties, our people on the whole are wonderfully patient, and are loyal to Christ and our Church. And whilst it would be manifestly unfair to compare them with other and more favoured lands who have centuries of civilisation and Christianity behind them, yet we are devoutly thankful for the progress and power of the gospel amongst them. There are instances, not a few, known to most of us, of lives as bright, pure, and beautiful, and experiences as rich and real, as can be found in any land.

This year we report 21,756 full members, with 1,840 on trial, and 6,621 junior members. This is an increase on the year of 171 full members. Though not a large one, we are gladdened and heartened by it, indicating, as we believe it does, a turn in the tide of our affairs.

We have regarded with great pleasure the progress of your Twentieth Century Fund, and now rejoice with you over its triumphant success.

Your appointment of the Rev. W. Clarke Murray, D.D., as our President for another year has afforded us great satisfaction. By his faithfulness, energy, and devotion he has rendered to our Church invaluable service; and this appointment indicates, we believe, that you recognise this equally with ourselves. We would again nominate him as President for our next Conference.

And now, Fathers and Brethren, we pray that upon all your deliberations there may rest the spirit of wisdom, and that you may continue to abound in every good word and work.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference,

WILLIAM J. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE WESTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1902.

HONOURED AND BELOVED BRETHREN,—

Your Address has caused us deep concern, and we have given your affairs most attentive consideration.

We recognise with gratitude to God the signs of your patient continuance in well-doing and the spiritual progress which enables you to report an increase in membership. We are thankful for every proof of your loyalty to Methodism and of the willingness of your Church members to contribute to the utmost of their ability to the maintenance and advancement of the Master's work. We regret the financial embarrassments and commercial depression from which you are now suffering, and earnestly hope that you may soon witness the desired improvement in industrial conditions.

We are, however, persuaded that the serious difficulties to which your Address refers will require special action, such as our Missionary Committee has found itself obliged to suggest. After careful and most anxious deliberation, that Committee has been driven to the conclusion that the only way in which the Methodism of your islands can be really assisted, and indeed saved, is by a return to your former position, when you were under the direct control of ourselves and our Missionary Society. We are well aware that such a course is beset by difficulties and objections, but your situation at the present seems to be so grave that it is the only course we can possibly advise.

We do not see how our people can be expected to raise a fund for your help without at least some guarantee that you will not again require such help; nor do we see how it is practicable for you, under existing conditions, to carry on your work with the needful efficiency and economy.

Your Address to us sufficiently shows that you cannot train or even furnish the candidates you require for the work of the Ministry. This matter is of the most vital import to the welfare of your Churches, but it cannot in any sense be adequately dealt with by the means and opportunities now within your reach.

Already the Eastern West Indian Conference has manifested a desire to abandon its present Constitution and to come once more within our immediate jurisdiction. It is not for us to take action; we cannot do more than invite the West Indian Conferences most attentively and prayerfully to consider the whole question with all that it involves. But should you by a decisive vote request to be once more regarded as Mission Fields, our Missionary Committee will be instructed to consider the details of the course proposed, so that a comprehensive resolution, to become operative forthwith, may be submitted to us at our next Conference. A special West Indian Fund will still be absolutely necessary both for the liquidation of your existing debts and for the support and development of your work, as our Foreign Mission Funds are already more than pledged to the maintenance of our work in other fields.

We most heartily accept your nomination of the Rev. W. Clarke Murray, D.D., and appoint him to be your President for 1903.

We rejoice to be able to assure you that, though the claims on our people are many and great, we have unceasing evidences of their devotion to our Church and to Christ. Your expressions of continued brotherly love towards ourselves are most welcome and cheering. You will believe that at all times we seek your truest welfare. The Lord fill you with His grace!

The Lord direct you by His counsel! "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and we pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

EASTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902.

Beloved and honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

Once more the assembling of our Conference affords us the opportunity of sending you our heartfelt greetings. Your intelligent appreciation of our situation and its increasing difficulties and your sympathy with us in our distress encourage us to hope that your Missionary Committee, to whom you have remitted our case for kindly consideration, will shortly be in a position to grant us the relief which the rapidly growing poverty of our people renders more than ever necessary.

We rejoice with you that in such a year of exceptional excitement and unrest at home you have had a large increase in your Church membership, and that through the sanctified enthusiasm, liberality, and devotion of British Methodism you have brought your Twentieth Century Fund so near its completion.

We are sorry to report a small decrease of members in the year, but are glad to speak of a manifest increase in the piety and devotion to God of our people.

We are also pleased to state that we have accepted this year three candidates for our Ministry, two of whom have been sent into immediate work.

Knowing as we do the place we hold in your affectionate regard, we are sure you will rejoice with us in these tokens of the divine favour. We deeply regret we have not been able to accomplish more than we have done. The work of the past year has been carried on in the face of unprecedented difficulties. With the steady decline in value of our staple products and the want of remunerative employment for thousands of our people the year has been one of special trial; but the steadfastness of our people, their unabated loyalty to Methodism, their cheerfulness in the day of adversity, their readiness to do what they can to sustain their ministers, are abundant proof that God still blesses "our work of faith, our labour of love, and our patience of hope."

We therefore do not yield to discouragement. In dependence upon God, and relying on your sympathy and promised help, we are resolved to be faithful to the great trust you have committed unto us, and to go forth to another year's labours and struggles confident that God will never leave nor forsake us. In this season of great anxiety we desire a continued interest in your prayers for ourselves and people.

Pending any action you may be pleased to take respecting our appeal for help, we have again nominated the Rev. David J. Reynolds as our President for the ensuing year.

Assuring you of our continued esteem, we commend you and your work to the unfailing blessing and constant care of Him who is the Head over all things to His Church.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. REYNOLDS, President.
J. R. F. TULL, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE EASTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1902.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We respond most heartily to the Address and greeting sent by your Annual Conference, and assure you of our continued interest in your welfare.

We rejoice with you in the tokens of divine blessing that have rested on your Churches, as evidenced in the increase of piety among your people, and the offer of suitable young men for the work of the ministry.

We are also glad to learn that, under the pressure of extraordinary difficulties, your people are loyal to their Church, and not only patient, but cheerful in the day of adversity; and that you yourselves are resolved to go forth to another year's labours and struggles with unabating confidence in the abiding presence of God.

We share your regret at the slight decrease in membership which you report, and trust that you may soon have again, under the divine blessing, the joy of abundant increase.

We cannot forget the awful calamity that has overtaken you, in common with others, by the volcanic eruption in the island of St. Vincent. The immense sorrow and suffering of your people and the destruction of Church property have deeply moved our hearts and awakened the practical sympathy of our Churches. We pray that God may comfort you in your tribulation and soon make it apparent that

> Behind a frowning Providence
> He hides a smiling face.

We also greatly deplore the fact, which you report, of "the steady decline in the value of your staple products and the want of remunerative employment for thousands of your people"; but we rejoice that increased attention has of late been given to this question, and trust that ere long brighter days may dawn for the commercial interests of the islands.

The financial condition of your Church and Conference continues to evoke our deepest sympathy. Our Missionary Committee, by the direction of the last Conference, has during the year given most careful and anxious consideration to this subject. As the result of their prolonged deliberation, they have drawn up a series of resolutions, which embody their views as the only possible way in which they can come to your relief, and save the Methodism of the West India Islands.

The substance of these resolutions will be forwarded to you for the consideration of your Conference at its next annual meeting. They are upon the lines already suggested by yourselves, and involve the abandonment of your Constitution and the return of your Districts to the jurisdiction of the Missionary Committee and our own Conference.

We have much pleasure in confirming the nomination of the Rev. David J. Reynolds as your President for another year.

We greatly prize the expression of your esteem for us and for our work, and "pray always for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902

TO THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA, 1902.

Honoured and beloved Brethren,

From our Annual Conference we send you hearty greetings. We grasp hands with you across the seas, and wish you God-speed. Our sympathetic intercourse promotes healthy sentiment in both sections of Methodism. Your successes encourage us in our work. Your joy in the Lord Jesus is our joy also.

Since your last General Conference, Canada and all the colonies have become more intimately associated with us in our national life. The spontaneous outburst of your patriotism in the hour of our need won the heart of Britain. The death of our aged and beloved Queen—"full of days, riches, and honour"—excited equal emotion in Canada and England. The peace in South Africa has been welcomed by both these provinces of the one empire. The proposed Coronation of our King evoked similar expressions of loyalty from you and from us; and the mysterious intervention of divine Providence in postponing the event chastened our common thoughts. We were thus reminded that the only abiding throne is the throne of Jesus our Lord, and that the prosperity of nations is permanently assured by their acknowledgment of His claim and their submission to His sway. We are bidden to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness," in the confidence that then whatever is desirable for our own national greatness shall be added. May we effectually learn this lesson!

During the past year we have had the pleasure of welcoming many of your distinguished members to the Œcumenical Conference in London. On such occasions we realise that Methodism, notwithstanding all its divisions, is essentially one. The sense of united strength and of corresponding responsibility becomes intensified, and with brightened hopes we anticipate the fulfilment of our common Founder's aspiration for the evangelization of the world.

The visit of your distinguished representative and General Superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Carman, brought inspiration to all who came under the influence of his addresses and sermons. We were glad to have the opportunity of fraternal intercourse with him. He won our admiration and affection, and carried home with him our best wishes for the prosperity of the great Church over which he presides with such signal ability.

We rejoice to hear of the unqualified success which has attended your effort to raise a Twentieth Century Fund, and we trust that the work to which it will minister may be abundantly prospered. Our own attempt to raise a similar fund, occurring as it did at a time when our national resources were severely taxed by the war, is now approaching its completion. Our success has not yet been absolute, but we have raised a very large amount, and the self-denial of the members of our Church has been manifested in a remarkable manner. Great generosity has also been shown throughout British Methodism by the efforts that have been made by the various Circuits to qualify themselves for securing assistance from the Central Fund as soon as its distribution shall commence. Our Chapel Building Department reports a proposed unexampled expenditure amounting to £625,000; so that a very large sum will be raised in order to meet the grants expected from the Twentieth Century Fund. Never were our Churches so full of enterprise in material advancement, in the erection of edifices for religious, social, and educational activities. Universal attention has been provoked by the purchase of the Westminster Aquarium as a suitable site for Methodist Buildings in one of the most prominent positions in London. This bold step has been taken not for ostentatious display, but for the glory of God and the good of men in the better equipment of our Church for carrying on the great work which has been committed to us. Universal Methodism in days to come will have an unrivalled central position in the metropolis of the world.

Our social work has become increasingly important and extensive during the last few years. We have erected large buildings for the promotion of such work in many provincial centres—notably in Manchester, Leeds, Newcastle, and Edinburgh—and others are projected in various places on a very large scale, such as the Leysian Mission in London with a contemplated expenditure of at least £100,000, and the new premises for the Birmingham Mission, where the outlay will probably be equally large. We have to rejoice not only in financial liberality, but also in the zealous devotion of the workers at all our mission centres. Godly men and women, many of them of good education and social position, devote themselves in increasing numbers in the service of Christ in the slums of our cities and among the most depraved and degraded of our population. This noble work is the means of blessings to thousands who are thus led to hear, and in many cases accept, the grand old Methodist doctrine of a present, free, and full salvation.

Our Sunday schools, numbering 7,379, are vigorously maintained. We have 130,688 Sunday-school teachers, with 971,223 scholars. Our Bands of Hope report a membership of 437,454, and our Temperance Societies continue to form and to guide public opinion with energy and wisdom. Altogether the work among the young people of our Church gives us abundant cause for gratitude and encouragement.

The recent war has brought into prominence our efforts on behalf of soldiers. The Government has willingly and gratefully recognised our success in this direction, and has offered to place Wesleyan Methodist chaplains in positions similar to those which are occupied by chaplains from other Churches. Negotiations are at present in progress which will undoubtedly secure for us a more effective influence among our gallant soldiers and sailors.

We have to report with gratitude an increasing devotion to the great cause of Foreign Missions. The time has fully come for taking a new departure in this part of our work, and we are striving to fix the attention of our people on the free entrance to vast fields of labour that is now offered in all parts of the world. The enthusiasm of our fathers on this subject must be rekindled, and we who were at one time in advance of all the Churches must again take the lead. The spirit that is so vigorous in our Home Missions must also extend to the regions beyond. The world beckons us as it never did before, the means to reach it are ever increasing, the wealth of the Churches has grown enormously, and our evangelistic zeal must become proportionately and practically greater.

We watch your methods of service with intense interest. We see that they closely correspond to our own, and that they are as varied as the exigences of time and of circumstances require. John Wesley laid down few rigid rules for Christian organisation and Christian work. He wisely sought to follow the leadings of divine Providence. He went where he was wanted; he went first where he was wanted most, and he ever adapted his machinery to the work he desired to do. He had but one remedy for human need—namely, the living water of the gospel of Life; and through both old and new channels he brought that remedy to his fellow-men. He called to his aid Christian statesmanship and ingenuity. He did not wilfully abandon old methods; but if these proved inadequate, he quickly provided new ones. Christian inventiveness was not exhausted in the days of early Methodism. We, like our fathers, have to bring out of the rich treasury of sanctified intelligence, in this respect as in other respects, "things new and old." We "sow beside all waters," and we cannot doubt that under the divine blessing the harvest will be great.

We are thankful that our numerical increase during the last year was reported as 8,243, with an additional membership in junior society classes of 4,962. There are many hindrances to spiritual success among us as among yourselves, and our advance is not so rapid as we desire it should be. But "the best of all is, God is with us"; and we are sure that you will join us in the prayerful cultivation of that intense religious experience which can only be wrought by the indwelling power of the Holy Ghost.

This Address will be presented to you by one of the Ex-Presidents of our Conference, the Rev. Walford Green, whom we commend to you as our representative. He is a brother greatly beloved by us all, and during a long and honourable career he has rendered distinguished service to our Church. He will assure you of our cordial sympathy and affection, and we shall anticipate hearing from him on his return home good news of your prosperity.

May the Lord guide you in all your deliberations with the wisdom which cometh from above! May He bless you "with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ"! And may He establish the work of your hands to the glory of His name for ever!

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THE Committee of the Connexional Sunday-school Union rejoices that the numerical returns are more satisfactory this year than for the past three years. There is a substantial increase in every important column of the Schedule. Twenty Districts report increases of 8,686, fourteen Districts report decreases of 2,520, showing a Connexional increase of 6,166. The morning attendance has increased 2,581, the afternoon, 12,857. Scholars above fifteen years of age have increased 2,774, Members of Society, 3,027, and Junior Class Members, 5,020. No report of so healthy a character has been given for many years. The loss reported in 1899 was 5,380; in 1900, 1,989—total loss, 7,369. The total number of scholars now on the registers makes good the losses of two lean years, except 1,203. The most satisfactory aspect of the Report is the increased average attendance both morning and afternoon, the number being only 485 under the largest afternoon average attendance ever recorded. The whole question of shrinkage is dealt with in a separate report to Conference.

The Committee is thankful for marked improvement, but longs for larger increase and richer harvests. The results of the year's work are cheering in a high degree, but we look for the time when the membership of our Church shall be yet more largely recruited from our Sunday schools, and our work in its branches shall be more skilfully done.

The great Convention of Sunday-school Workers, held in Wesley's Chapel, London, in October last, extending over two days, has proved of great value. Representatives came from distances extending from Cumberland to Cornwall, and from Kent to South Wales. The Address of the President, Rev. Dr. Davison, was of a most timely and helpful character, and has been widely circulated.

Many Circuit Conventions have been held during the year, and the Committee believes that, as a result, tone and character of work have greatly benefited.

The Committee feels strongly that much greater care should be given everywhere to our School Libraries and Libraries for Teachers. Out of 7,379 Sunday schools, 2,610 only have Libraries; and though many of the schools destitute of Libraries are very small, yet there must be many hundreds of large schools which make no provision for forming in their scholars the taste and habit of reading. Even many of our Teachers do not know of the existence of books on Class Management and Method which are now prepared and sold at a cheap rate. The Union has published, since the last Conference, a First Course of Infants' Class Lessons, by Mr. JAMES BAILEY, which will supply a long-felt need.

Notwithstanding the Free Library movement in our large towns and cities, the Committee urges our Sunday schools everywhere to furnish their Libraries with the sort of books which our scholars in the Intermediate Classes ought to read, and to put a little more intelligence and zeal into this branch of our work. Recent investigations have shown how easily accessible to our boys and girls are publications of the most blighting kind, and the only way of overcoming this insidious evil is by supplying them with literature both pure and instructive.

The Committee affectionately appeals to the Ministers and thoughtful Officers and Members of our Church to press upon our Teachers' Meetings and School Committees the unspeakable importance of using our own Catechisms, and no others, in all our schools. Our Church has a unique advantage in the possession of Catechisms of ideal excellence, and though the Committee has rarely presented a report to Conference in recent years, without urging this matter upon our Officers and Teachers, yet it feels the subject is so vital to the best interests of our children and young people, that it would fail in its duty to the Connexion if it did not again most respectfully and affectionately appeal to the Conference to specially commend the subject to the attention of the Ministers of our Church. The Union spares neither money nor labour to provide all sorts of attractive helps for teaching the Catechisms intelligently, and the Tablets are found serviceable to those who cannot or will not teach the Catechism in any other way. The New Brief Catechism should be introduced where the other Catechisms have fallen into desuetude.

Reports of the most cheering kind have come to hand as to the great blessing of Children's Sunday. The organised efforts of many schools, preceded by united prayer and Conferences of Teachers, were richly crowned, and many Senior Scholars were gathered into the Church. The Committee earnestly hopes that services of an evangelistic character, specially adapted to our children, will be held annually in every School.

The Committee believes that our Sunday-school Workers have no need to be discouraged by the criticism which they have had to face during the past two years. There is, however, the deepest need of consecration and a more thorough equipment for the work, and it is hoped that larger numbers of Teachers and Senior Scholars will avail themselves of the courses of reading and examinations prepared by the Union.

The Business Department is satisfactory. The Lantern Department has done well, and especially in its branch of work for "Drift Children" and Sunday Evening Mission Services.

Pleasant Sunday Afternoons and Adult Bible-classes.

The returns, as now presented, were reported to the Quarterly Meetings in March, to the Synods in May, and each Schedule bears the signature of the Superintendent Minister.

The Committee of the Connexional Sunday-school Union has carried out the instructions of the Conference in securing the above returns, which show substantial increases under each head. This is all the more noteworthy when considered in the light of the Sunday-school returns, which show a gratifying increase of Scholars above fifteen years of age.

Special Report upon Numerical Returns of Sunday Schools.

The last Conference remitted the following suggestion from the Bristol and Bath District Synod to the Sunday-school Union Committee for consideration during the year and for report to the Conference of 1902:

"That in view of the importance of Sunday-school work and its relation to the Church, and of the decrease of Scholars reported last year by several of the Churches, including our own, this Synod recommends the Conference to direct the attention of the Sunday-school Union to the facts above named, and to request that a Special Report upon the question be prepared and presented to the Conference of 1902."

The Conference received the Report of the Sunday-school Union Committee, and directed that the following suggestions of the Committee should be printed in the Minutes of Conference; viz.:

1. It is most important, especially at the present time, that the Church should give to its Sunday schools its best talent, and the influence of its most consecrated and cultured workers. Under the divine blessing all successful work depends upon the character of the workers; but this is specially the case in the Sunday school, and therefore the greatest possible care is needed in the selection of Teachers.

2. It is most desirable that an effort be made everywhere to help our Teachers by suitable counsel when new Teachers are appointed; by Preparation Classes conducted by Ministers and others; by securing the co-operation of our trained Day-school Teachers, to give specimen lessons and hints on class management; and by reviving and keeping up the Teachers' Monthly Prayer Meeting.

3. Effective visitation should be carried out by the Teachers themselves where possible; and where this is not possible, by visitors appointed for the purpose. The losses through lack of visitation are enormous.

4. Our District and other visitors should be requested to canvas for our schools. We must seek the children, and do a more missionary work among the neglected children of our towns and cities.

5. It is desirable that Circuit Unions should be established wherever suitable officers can be found to work them.

6. The holding of well organised Circuit Conventions will often be found helpful.

7. Great emphasis needs to be laid upon the improvement of our plant and apparatus everywhere. It is not only in the villages that our work is hindered by unsuitability of buildings, the school premises in many of our large town Circuits are badly planned, badly ventilated, badly lighted, inconvenient, and disgracefully furnished; sanitary arrangements and lack of class-rooms are little less than a scandal.

8. The Committee is grateful for the evidence disclosed in the returns that our people are awaking to the serious importance of improving our Staff, Plant, and Methods, as well as keeping up our numbers, and it gratefully thanks the District Education Secretaries and Sub-Committees for their co-operation during the year.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

The very generous response made to our appeals the previous year enabled us to begin last year with a balance due to the Treasurers of only £228 11s. 5*d.*, and this amount was met by a few special gifts. This year we carry forward no debt on current account, or under any other heading except for the sum of £12,744, which has been already expended in anticipation of the Twentieth Century Fund grant.

The Ordinary Income of the year 1901–2 is the largest we have ever recorded, being £26,340, an advance of £1,638 15s. 8*d.*, leaving us a small balance in hand.

Our success is largely due to the increase made by the Y.L.U., which has this year raised a gross total of £2,323, being a net increase, after paying expenses, of £1,511 on the amount raised during the previous year.

During the year 268 new children have been received into our care: 161 have gone to situations—106 in England, 55 in Canada; 8 have died. We have now in residence 1,243 children, being an increase of 54 in the year.

The most interesting development of our work this year is probably the opening of Chadwick House. This house and its long garden have been specially adapted for the care, comfort, and convenience of crippled and afflicted children. We have had no lack of patients, and, indeed, have been compelled to place some in our small Bungalow Hospital a few hundred yards away. Many of our patients need little more than kindness, good food, and, most of all, plenty of fresh air. Others are with us only that they may be tenderly watched over through the brief months or years that it is possible for them to live.

We have already nearly thirty crippled boys and girls at Alverstoke, several of whom may live to manhood and womanhood, but can never hope to earn their own living unaided. We opened Chadwick House avowedly as an experiment. The experiment has more than justified itself, and we could have filled it with urgent cases three or four times within the year. The problem which now presses upon the Committee is how to make such provision as will enable us to give our disadvantaged children the education and technical training which will fit them, at least partially, to earn their own living, and to put heart and hope into their lives by enabling them to feel that they are not only happy in their lot, but filling a useful place in the world. What we need is, in the first place, a small children's hospital where we could give rest, nursing, and surgical aid. Then we must provide for special teaching, for many of our children cannot be taught in class, even if they were strong enough to attend school. Our mission has always been not only to those who want us, but to those who want us most; and we believe that we may not only minister to many of these afflicted children, but may also train Christian women who will act as nurses, having special fitness for this branch of Christian service. This is one of the most important features of the scheme, as it will give an opportunity of training devout Christian nurses under evangelical influence, which is rarely, if ever, to be obtained in large public hospitals. From the beginning The Children's Home has been a Training School for Christian Workers, and there is no greater need than for consecrated and qualified labourers in this section of the great Master's vineyard.

A different, but hardly less important, work has been commenced during the year. Hitherto we have been obliged to confine our work within certain very elastic limits; but we have not as a rule been able to receive girls of seventeen years old and upwards. Yet we found many girls of this age who were unable to obtain respectable situations because they were absolutely untrained, who were in the most grievous moral peril, and were often in the most shocking surroundings. For obvious reasons we could not bring such girls into our ordinary families, and yet without some training it was not to be hoped that they would ever achieve even a moderately respectable position. We therefore yielded to appeals made to us, and in some instances sought out girls whose cases had in one way and another come to our notice, who might be saved from ruin if they were received in time. We make special provision for them, giving them elementary training in household work and good manners. Work for this class of girls and for others whose case is even more sad, has been placed under the care of a Ladies' Committee, and is known as the Girls' Aid Department. We not only receive such girls as these for training, but we visit girls who come to London and need kindly oversight and an introduction to Christian friends. We make inquiry as to situations to which girls are coming, and in several instances have been able to warn country girls and their friends against iniquitous or undesirable offers. A fuller account of this enterprise is given in the special report of the Girls' Aid Committee.

Another quite different development has been the opening of a second Village Home, at Chadlington, in Oxfordshire, where we have about twenty girls, many of them very delicate, living in the pleasant open country, and gaining health and intelligence day by day. We are abundantly satisfied with this little community, now numbering over fifty children. It is wonderful what abundant fresh air and the simple joys of country life will do for the pale, unhealthy, and prematurely old children of our great towns.

At the close of the year we acquired an addition to our property which will be of the utmost value, a house in which we can place our children when first received into the Home. This house we shall regard as more elastic than others, and we trust that we shall now be able to receive children much more promptly than we have done hitherto. We have often grieved our friends, we have much more often and much more intensely grieved ourselves, by the long delay which has been absolutely necessary in the case of many children passed by the Committee for admission. The Receiving House will add considerably to our annual expenditure, probably from £700 to £800, but it will enable us to take urgent cases without delay.

We have changed none of the great principles upon which The Children's Home was founded. We have only followed the guiding Hand along the road which from the first we knew must lead us farther than we understood.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We report 4,953 Bands of Hope, with 437,454 members; an increase of 149 Bands and 10,286 members; and 1,870 Temperance Societies, with 107,148 members; an increase of 105 Societies, with 7,742 members. These increases, large as they are, would be much larger but for the lapsing of a considerable number of Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies, a leakage which might be greatly diminished if there were a more constant and vigilant oversight of this department of the work of our Church. Such oversight would be secured by the general establishment of Circuit Unions.

The Committee has heard with surprise that in some of our Bands of Hope the members have never been asked to sign the pledge. According to our constitution, the signing of the pledge is an essential condition of membership in our Bands of Hope, and we appeal to those who are responsible for the organisation to take steps for the correction of this laxity of administration where it exists.

We have to record with deep sorrow the death of Alderman W. D. Stephens, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, concerning whom the Committee has placed upon its Minutes the following resolution:

"The Committee records its deep sense of the loss sustained by our Church and the whole Temperance movement, in the death of Alderman W. D. Stephens, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, who was for many years a member of this Committee, and who was one of the most popular and successful Temperance workers in the kingdom. Few platform speakers have ever surpassed him in the hold which he had upon large audiences. With great skill in apt illustration, and a wonderful gift of humour, he held his hearers spell-bound, and was most welcome to audiences which he frequently addressed; the great gathering on Saturday nights in the Central Hall, Newcastle, never being willing to have his speech omitted from the programme. Mr. Stephens not only excelled as an advocate, but he gave much patient personal work to the rescue of the fallen, and only the Great Day will reveal how many broken and ruined men and women were raised up again into a life of hope and prosperity by his tender and watchful help. The Committee expresses its deep sympathy with the bereaved family, and earnestly prays that by the contagion of Mr. Stephens' example many may be led to devote themselves with the same zeal and love to the work of Christian Temperance."

We are thankful for the effects produced by the Royal Commission in the impression made by its Report upon public opinion, and by the legislation which is being enacted through its influence. The Children's Bill, though seriously weakened in its passage through Parliament, is a great boon to the nation, and the Licensing Bill, which seems likely to become law during the next few weeks, is, in our judgment, a measure of great value. This Bill was heartily supported by the May Synods, and by our Connexion generally, and we greatly rejoice in this evidence that the nation is awakening to the necessity of grappling with the evils of the liquor traffic.

The Committee continues its exertions on behalf of Sunday Closing, and in this work we have always been closely associated with the Central Association for stopping the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on Sunday, of which Mr. R. W. Perks is the President and Dr. Randles the Chairman. We commend the Forward Movement of the Association to the warm support of the Methodist people.

We note with great satisfaction the manifest awakening of public opinion as manifest in the increased vigilance of the licensing justices, in the action taken in Glasgow with respect to barmaids, in the Temperance Policy of the London County Council in which its Chairman, Sir John McDougall, has borne so distinguished a part, and in many other ways which we have not space to mention.

The Pledge-Signing Crusade of the Free Churches has accomplished a great work. The number of new pledges reported to us as having been taken by our organisation alone in connexion with this Crusade is 40,154.

The Committee expresses its gratitude to Lady Henry Somerset for her kindness in speaking at the May Meeting and the Conference Temperance Meeting. No one can measure the value of the services which have been rendered to the cause by this noble lady, who has aided the movement not only by her patronage, but also by a brilliant advocacy, by untiring zeal, and constant personal service.

We cannot close this report without referring with regret to the retirement of Dr. Marshall Randles from the full work of the Ministry. Dr. Randles took a foremost place in the establishment of our Connexional Temperance organisations, which owes much to his judicious councils. We hope and anticipate that he may yet be spared for years of useful service to the Church, and to this department of it, in the less public sphere into which he now feels compelled to retire.

APPENDIX VI.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. CHAPELS OPENED DURING THE YEAR.—Springfield Hall, Wandsworth Road (Second London District). This Hall will cost upwards of £14,000, and is the work of the District. To be undertaken forthwith, a Chapel at Waltham Abbey in the Tottenham Circuit, and a Hall at Deptford (the work of the Third London District), to cost about £23,000.

2. SITES SANCTIONED by the Committee are held at Denmark Park (Mostyn Road), Wallington (Sutton), Bushey (Watford), High Street (Sydenham), Balham (Tooting), Abbot's Park (Canning Town), Greengates (Canning Town), Highgate (Highgate), Plumstead (Woolwich), Northwood (Watford), Seven Kings (Stratford), East Ham (Canning Town), East Ham (Barking), Wealdstone (Great Queen Street), Harrow (Great Queen Street), Sutton (Sutton), Finchley (Finchley and Hendon), Tooting (Tooting), South Wimbledon (Tooting), Eltham (Third London District), Acton (Ealing and Acton), Hanwell (Ealing and Acton), Cranbrook Park (Stratford), Edmonton (Tottenham), Purley (Croydon, London Road), Radlett (St. Alban's).

Temporary Iron Chapels or School Chapels have already been erected on most of these sites.

Twenty other localities where Chapels are needed have been brought under the notice of the Committee.

3. TEN GRANTS have been voted for Ministerial supplies; viz. at Gospel Oak, Blackhorse Road, Manor Park, Hither Green, Kensal Rise, Herne Hill, Wandsworth Road, Thornton Heath, Cheshunt, and Cricklewood.

	£3,489	14	0		£3,489	14	0

The Gross Profit on the year's working amounts to £1,158 8*s.* 6*d.*, to which if the balance on last year of £64 11*s.* 4*d.* be added, £1,222 19*s.* 10*d.* remains to be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms; viz. the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest; in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of Profits.

On Monday, March 3, the Sixth Annual Examination was held, the Examiners being the Rev. Charles O. Eldridge, B.A., and the Rev. R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A. The text-books were: Section A, St. John, xiii.–xxi., Cambridge Bible for Schools; Section B, Brooks' Lectures on Preaching, chaps. i.–iii., or Dale's Living Christ and the Four Gospels, i.–iv. Of the 157 who presented themselves, 41 took honours, 69 passing in the first division, and 36 in the second. Only 11 were failures, two of them being the result of misunderstanding. The following is a list of the passes:

The concession in regard to the purchase of useful and helpful books is more and more appreciated by our Local Preachers. The gross value of the purchases for this year amounts to £961 16*s.* 9*d.* as against £877 10*s.* last year, and £476 11*s.* 6*d.* the year before.

A book list is issued by the Committee, containing books suitable for the reading and study of local preachers, which can be had under the Committee's concession as to price.

Descriptive notes on the books in the list have been prepared with great care, and will be very serviceable in helping and guiding the brethren in their selection of books.

APPENDIX XII.

THE WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

Abstract of Report.

The year has been one of considerable difficulty. The Training House in London having been sold, temporary arrangements were made for the students, and the difficulties of carrying on the work of training have been exceptional. The students have worked diligently and with a good measure of success, and give promise of great usefulness in their after-work. The Leicester Branch has been undisturbed in its good work.

A grant was allotted from the Century Fund for the Wesley Deaconess Institute, to be paid out of the allocation for Home Missions. By a remarkable series of events, a large and commodious building, originally erected for a school, was purchasable at a price very far below its original cost. By the liberality of two gentlemen the purchase was made possible. The Home Mission Committee warmly approved the purchase, and agreed to devote to it any Grant received from the Century Fund.

The building will provide Central Offices for the Institute, rooms for the Warden, accommodation for twenty-seven Students in Training, residence for the Deaconess-Evangelists and other Deaconesses requiring rest, and accommodation for large gatherings of Christian workers which are likely to be stimulating and suggestive to the students.

During the year sixty Deaconesses and eight second-year Probationers have been employed in forty-two Circuits and seven Missions; also two in the Transvaal, one in New Zealand, and two in Ceylon. Sixteen students have been in residence during the year.

For several years past two Deaconesses have been working with great success at Johannesburg, and requests for the appointment of several to other posts in South Africa have reached us. In the expected developments of Christian work in those regions, Wesley Deaconesses may fulfil an important part, and with no cost to the Institute beyond that of their training.

The Committee feels the great necessity for securing an adequate income. It earnestly appeals to the women of Methodism to become Associates of the Order, thus helping it by prayer and contribution, and to intelligent Methodists generally, who realise the importance of women's Christian work, and that it is best done systematically and under the full control of the Church.

APPENDIX XIII.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

Report of the Executive Committee.

The Fund in General.

The Executive Committee prefaces its Report with the cheering announcement that in response to the appeal of the Hull Conference, £1,041,000 has been promised by the Members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church and by friends and adherents at home and abroad, for the maintenance and extension of the work of God in the Twentieth Century. Of this amount £52,500 is under the control of the Irish Conference, and £20,000 is, according to the resolutions of the Conference, retained in the Mission Districts in which it has been contributed. If interest on deposits to the end of the year be added, the Million Guineas which it was originally intended to raise, will be secured at that date. For such a result—achieved amid the distractions of the last four years—every Methodist and Friend of Methodism in the United Kingdom and Mission Districts will be devoutly thankful.

The Executive Committee also reminds the Conference that the generous donations which have been made to the Fund, have already called forth in the Circuits promises of even greater magnitude to local enterprises which would probably not have been undertaken without the inspiration and incentive given by the Twentieth Century Fund.

The Fund at Home.

The total amount received towards the £1,000,000 allocated to those departments of Methodist work under the immediate control of the British Conference is £892,348 11*s.* 4*d.* made up as follows:

Remittances from Circuits and Supplementary List amount to . . .	792,423	17	9
Children's Shilling Subscriptions . .	4,023	10	4

Interest up to June 30	34,655	8	7
The total amount received from all sources	£892,348	11	4

The number of Circuits which have completed their recorded Promises and Aims is 449. Of these, 357 Circuits have exceeded their Aims.

Outstanding Promises.

The following table shows the number of Circuits, arranged in the order of Districts, which have not yet completed, and the amount still due:

District Aims.

The Connexion is indebted to the District Synods and Committees which, on the suggestion of the Executive Committee, have recorded District Aims in advance of the total amount of Circuit promises. In some Districts the aim agreed upon will not be fully realised, but in others it will be realised, and in some exceeded. When the final report is published, it will be found that the Fund has benefited to the extent of more than 100,000 guineas, from efforts made to meet these generous estimates of District obligations.

Several Districts report a total of Circuit promises equal to the Children's Fund standard of District Financial ability.

The Deficiency.

The balance required on June 30, to complete the Million sterling allocated to the purposes of British Methodism is £107,651 8*s.* 8*d.* Of this amount £46,000 is due from the Circuits, and £35,000 in personal promises (some of them conditional on the completion of the Million). Assuming that these two amounts will be paid in, £26,651 remains to be provided for.

Scheme for meeting the Deficiency.

Being debarred by a resolution of last Conference from making further appeals to the Connexion, the Executive Committee has considered and now presents to the Conference a scheme which will (1) secure, without making any further call on the Methodist Church, the completion of the Million sterling by accumulation of interest on deposits, and (2) provide for an early commencement of the important and pressing work of administration.

The attention of the Conference is called to the fact that up to June 30, the total amount of interest accrued upon deposits was the large sum of £34,655 8*s.* 7*d.*

As the sum of £848,000 is now invested in British and Indian Government Treasury Bills, or deposited at Banks, all bearing 3 per cent. interest, it is evident that during the administration of the Fund, which, so far as certain departments are concerned, must necessarily extend over a considerable period, there will be large accumulations of interest. Moreover, the total expenses of organising and collecting the Fund will be much less than was anticipated. The Executive Committee is of opinion that the interest which will be earned by the investment of the Fund during the period of distribution will more than cover the deficiency of £26,651 needed to make up the £1,000,000, and also meet the expenses of the Fund. The Conference is therefore asked to authorise the Executive Committee to retain the principal funds under its control until such time as by accretions of interest and by the payment of the balance of Circuit and other promises the Fund shall amount to £1,000,000.

The Executive Committee also asks for authority at its discretion to make grants on account to the Committees appointed to administer various branches of the Fund, and to reserve power to charge interest on such grants until £1,000,000 stands to the credit of the Fund.

In making these suggestions, the Executive Committee has in view important local schemes of Church and School extension, some of them involving the expenditure of large sums, the raising of which must tax to the uttermost the generosity of our people.

Circuit Promises and Aims.

The above-named proposals are based upon the confident anticipation of the speedy fulfilment of Circuit Promises and Aims. The returns from and resolutions of the Annual Synods, and the fact that the few Circuits which seem "weary in well doing" are asking for the largest possible grants, justify the confidence of the Executive Committee. With the sanction of the Conference, the Officers of the Fund will continue to regard each Circuit as responsible for an honourable discharge of its recorded Promise or Aim.

Probable Date of Administration.

If the anticipations of the Executive Committee in regard to the speedy fulfilment of all outstanding promises be fulfilled, and its proposals be adopted by the Conference, the Administration of the Fund may begin in January next.

In presenting this, their Fourth Report, to the Conference, the Committee once more places on record its profound thankfulness to Almighty God that He has inspired the Methodist people in this and other lands to attempt and accomplish this work in humble dependence on His guidance, and for His honour and glory.

APPENDIX XIV.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION COMMITTEE ON THE RE-ORGANISATION OF ARMY AND NAVY WORK.

THE following is the Report of the Sub-Committee appointed to consider the whole question of the Army and Navy work in its relation to the Home and Foreign Missionary Committees respectively :

1. With a view to the unity and efficiency of our Army and Navy work, it is desirable that it shall as far as possible be administered by one Department only.

2. As the work is essentially Home Mission in its character, it shall be treated as a section of the Home Mission Department, but on the understanding that so far as the work abroad is concerned, the Home Mission Committee shall act in consultation with the Foreign Mission Committee.

3. That the control and direction of the work in detail shall be undertaken by a Board of Managers, which, for the purpose of continuity, and to meet the requirements of legal documents, shall be officially designated the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. This Board shall be appointed by the Conference on the nomination of the Home Mission Committee, and shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference, the officers of the Home Mission Fund, the officers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, the Secretary and General Superintendent of the Army and Navy work, the Secretary of the Army and Navy Committee in Ireland, six Ministers and six Laymen being members of the Home Mission Committee, and six Ministers and six Laymen specially selected by the Home Mission Committee on the ground of their knowledge of Army and Navy affairs, but not necessarily members of the Home Mission Committee. The General Superintendent of the Army and Navy work, to be appointed by the Conference, shall be Secretary of the Board of Managers.

All Minutes of the Board of Managers shall be presented for confirmation to the Home Mission Committee.

4. The work of the Department shall include :

(a) The entire control of all Ministers specially set apart to labour in Garrisons or Naval Stations at home or abroad.

(b) The general oversight of Army and Navy work in all places at home and abroad done by Ministers in Circuit work or on Mission Stations, on the lines laid down by the resolutions of the Conference.

(c) The general oversight and control of all Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes both at home and abroad.

5. The financial support of the work shall be provided as follows:

(b) Local Income, Offertories, Class Money, and Subscriptions.

(c) The Home Mission Fund, augmented by contributions to be specially collected for Army and Navy work.

(d) In all cases in which Probationers are appointed to Army and Navy work, whether at home or abroad, they shall, so far as ultimate provision for them as married men is concerned, be regarded as Ministers in the Home work, and the sum of £40 per annum shall for four years be charged for each to the Army and Navy account and carried to the credit of the Home Mission Reserve Fund. On the appointment of such Minister to Circuit or Mission work at home or abroad, the sum reserved shall be paid to the Annual Account of the Home Mission Fund as compensation for the provision of a house.

6. (a) All Army and Navy Ministers shall be members of the Synods in which their garrisons or stations are situated, and shall be subject to such Synods, especially in the matter of inquiry as to doctrine, discipline, and efficiency in work, and shall act under the direction of the Board of Managers, and of the Minister appointed by the Conference to be Secretary of the Board of Managers and General Superintendent of the work. They shall also, in harmony with the Standing Order of the Conference, send in their Reports of work, and returns of the numbers of Wesleyans under their care, to their respective District Synods for consideration and report. These Reports shall be forwarded with the remarks of the Synod thereon to the Secretary of the Board of Management.

(b) All Chaplains in Great Britain shall meet together at least twice in each year with the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, the Secretary and General Superintendent of the Army and Navy work, and such other persons as the Board of Managers and Home Mission Committee may from time to time appoint, for conversation and consultation as to the requirements, the actual discharge, and the prospects of their work.

7. The Mediterranean Stations shall be constituted a separate Section and shall be visited annually, if possible, by the General Superintendent, and by such other person or persons as may be appointed by the Board of Managers, with the sanction of the Home Mission Committee. The Senior Minister appointed shall preside at an Annual Meeting of the Chaplains to be held for consultations and review of the work in this Section.

APPENDIX XV.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAW OF APPEAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

At the Conference of 1901 the Committee was re-appointed (1), with instructions to complete the "Directions to Class-leaders"; and (2), to consider the following suggestion from the Leeds District: "This Synod recommends Conference to so amend The Order and Form of Business in District Synods that points of Discipline under Question III., section 3, which have become obsolete, shall not appear therein."

I. Directions to Class-leaders.

The Committee has prepared the following Introduction to the Compendium of Later Regulations which appears in the Class-Books.

Introduction.

All Christians will agree that to spread Christianity through the world is the one thing which the world needs. It is now all but universally admitted that the greatest spiritual force in modern times for the spread through the world of the life of genuine Christianity has been the Methodist revival, of which John Wesley and his brother were, under Providence, the chief instruments. This fact the standard historians of our country confess and declare with one consent. And in the Methodist Church, as the organised result of that revival, the inner secret of power has unquestionably been the Class-meeting. By the Class-meeting fellowship, the fruits of preaching and all other public services are gathered in and safeguarded. There is a vital force in this network of spiritual fellowship which has done more than anything else since the days of primitive Christianity to keep alive the spirit of Christian witness and service, and to maintain and diffuse godly life and activity amongst the members of the Church. Everything in Methodism as a living and working Church does, in fact, depend mainly upon the life and efficiency of the Class-meeting; and the working force of the Class-meeting depends mainly upon the Class leader.

No other Church possesses such an organ and instrument of spiritual power and influence as the Methodist Class-meeting. Not a few of the most eminent Ministers in other Churches have longed to obtain and use in connexion with their own Ministry some equivalent means of instruction, oversight, and quickening; but as yet the Methodist Class-meeting stands without a rival among the Churches as a unique instrument of godly and Christian instruction and quickening.

It is one great means of maintaining the vitality and energy of the Church in its contact with men and women, with old and young, in all that relates to daily life and duty. It touches the family with quickening power; it leavens society with Christian thought and feeling; it reacts on national life as an embodied spiritual force which always makes for righteousness; it brings gospel truth and influence, the example of our Lord and the teaching of the apostles, into spiritual contact with family and civil life among all sorts and conditions of men, from nation to nation, from continent to continent.

This being so, the work of the Class-leader must be regarded as, next to the work of the "Pastor and Teacher," that upon which the life of our Church depends. The current of divine influence for our Church's work in the world depends largely, dear brethren and sisters, on your competency and fidelity as counsellors and fellow-helpers of those under your care. These are the Saviour's covenanted servants enlisted in the work of bringing the world to Christ's fold and filling the earth with the fruits of righteousness and peace. In Methodism of a true type, the spiritual condition of the Classes is the test of a growing or a declining, of a standing or a falling, of a living or a dying, Church. It is therefore to you as Class-leaders, first and most of all, that the Ministers of the Church look for the working out of the system of mutual help and fellowship which represents the organised Church life of Methodism.

The Ministers of our Church themselves need to bear in mind their primary responsibility in this great work; if they are wanting in spiritual life and energy, in diligence and fidelity, all else in the Church must suffer. At the same time, it is true that ineffective Class-leaders not only fail to sustain, but really counteract the spiritual power and activity of the Ministers. Ministers look to the Class-leaders as their best and most directly responsible fellow-helpers in the spiritual work belonging to their office, without whose true-hearted co-operation the whole of the Church life must be more or less hindered. There should be, therefore, a complete partnership of the Leaders with the Ministers in the oversight of the Members of the Church, in order that, as St. Paul teaches, all the body may be "fitly framed and knit together through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part," thus "making increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love" (Ephes. iv. 16).

In order to secure and maintain such a life of united Church fellowship as has now been described, it is evidently needful that the spiritual fellowship of the Class-leaders themselves, with each other and with the Pastorate of the Church, should be organised and kept alive by means of Leaders' Meetings. When periodically held, and maintained in full efficiency, such Meetings are a vital part of the spiritual organisation of the Methodist Church. Whatever relates to Church order and edification for each Society comes under the care of the local Leaders' Meeting in concert with the Ministers of the Church. The centre and spring of life for each Society and congregation is to be found in the Leaders' Meeting. So important is the office to which the Class-leader is appointed and the official Meeting into which, as such, he is introduced.

The Class-Book to which these observations, offered with all affection and with deep conviction, serve as an introduction, and which is presented to you in connexion with your appointment by the Church to the office of Leader, contains a body of rules and regulations relating to the sacred work to which you have been appointed, and we earnestly and affectionately commend them to your prayerful study.

The Book.

1. Enter the exact Address of each Member.
2. Call over the Name of each Member every week.
3. Keep your Class-Book properly marked up to date.
4. Bring your Class-Book to the Leaders' Meeting.
5. Make up your Book at the end of the Quarter.

Marking the Class-Book.

1. Against the name of each Member who is present enter the weekly money received; and if no money is paid, insert P, signifying Present.

2. Against the name of each Member who is not present insert one of the four following letters, according to circumstances:

S. When the Member was unable to attend through Sickness—personal, or in his family.

D. When the Member was unable to attend because of Distance.

B. When the Member was unable to attend through pressure of Business—his own, or his master's.

A. When the Member was able to attend, but did not attend.

In the Class-Book, therefore, A stands for wilful and deliberate absence; and this mark ought never to appear against the name of a Member except for this one cause. In this sense, a man may not be "absent" though he is not present.

The Meeting.

1. Be in the Class-room before the time.
2. Begin exactly at the time appointed.
3. Select the Hymns beforehand.
4. Let the Opening Prayer be short and specific.
5. In conducting the Meeting, combine variety in method with unity of purpose.

The Members.

1. Do not allow them to rest short of scriptural conversion.
2. Be not over anxious to count new-comers as Full Members.
3. Feed your Members out of the Holy Scriptures.

4. Find something for your Members to do.
5. Receive the Class Moneys weekly, first putting down your own.

II. Order and Form of Business in District Synods.

The Committee, having carefully considered the Summary of the "Points of Discipline" which appears in "The Order and Form of Business," recommends that in future the Summary shall stand as follows:

Has he duly observed and enforced our Discipline?

Before this Question is answered, the Chairman shall read, or cause to be read, the following Regulations in regard to the observing and enforcing of our Discipline; and then make careful inquiry.

I. Pastoral.

Public Worship.

At Public Worship, on the morning of the Lord's Day, where an Order of Morning Service sanctioned by the Conference is not used, the Preacher shall read the lessons appointed for the day. At every Public Religious Service at least some portion of the Holy Scriptures shall be read before the sermon is preached; and the Conference again recommends the use of the Psalms in Public Worship (1795, vol. i., p. 340; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 622; 1901, p. 525).

Weekly Meetings of Ministers.

Ministers who labour in the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as it is practicable, in order to converse freely with each other respecting the affairs of their Circuits (1806, vol. ii., p. 348; S.O.).

Sectional Working of Circuits and Pastoral Visitation.

The Conference directs that each large Circuit be divided into sections, according to a mutual arrangement to be made by the Ministers at their Weekly Meetings; and that each Minister be held responsible for the Visitation of his own section (1847, vol. x., p. 550; 1885, p. 370).

Quarterly Visitation of the Classes.

Believing that, next to the public "Ministry of the Word," the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes is our most important official work, let us be careful each quarter to meet personally every Class, never sending the Tickets to the Leader (1885, p. 361).

In considering the regulation concerning the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes, the Committee felt that it was necessary to emphasise the direction of the Conference concerning such Visitation. The following resolution was unanimously passed, and was ordered to be printed in the report: "That whilst an Aggregate Meeting of the Members of a Society may occasionally be held with profit and advantage, such a Meeting ought not to take the place of the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes oftener than once a year."

Society Meetings.

The Societies shall be frequently met, apart from the congregation at large, and suitably addressed on the various relative duties, on the due sanctification of the Sabbath, and other appropriate topics (1825, vol. vi., p. 65).

Society meetings should be held more frequently than of recent years. If not on every Sunday evening, as in earlier Methodism, they should be held once a month, or, at least, twice a quarter; and should be appointed on the Plan, that they may not be overlooked (1889, p. 409).

Leaders' Meetings.

From the beginning, Leaders' Meetings have been found essential to the pastoral care and spiritual prosperity of our Societies, and also to the orderly transaction of their financial concerns. Where Leaders' Meetings are frequently held, the work of the Leaders is done more perfectly. And by a minute examination of the ClassBooks, in the presence of the Leaders, we learn who are the sick, the careless, or the lukewarm; and then, in making pastoral visits, we are prepared to go "not only to those who want us, but to those who want us most." Let us, therefore, see to it that Leaders' Meetings are held regularly, and as often as practicable, not only in the towns in which Ministers reside, but also in the principal country places (1826, vol. vi., p. 168; 1885, p. 360).

Class meetings.

The Conference cherishes an ever-deepening conviction of the value of that spiritual fellowship with each other which our people have been wont to maintain in a regular attendance on our Class-meetings. The Conference, therefore, exhorts all our Ministers to watch over our Class-meetings with holy jealousy, and to use every effort to maintain them strictly in all their efficiency, directing both their public instructions and their private pastoral influence toward this object with unceasing diligence (1855, vol. xiii., p. 110).

Class-leaders.

As much depends, under the blessing of God, on the piety, zeal, and devotion, the scriptural knowledge, and Christian temper of our Class-leaders, and also on their intelligent and hearty approval of the Doctrines and Discipline of Methodism, let us, before nominating a new Leader, satisfy ourselves, by previous inquiry and personal examination, as to the character and qualifications of the person proposed. Whenever a new Leader, nominated by us and accepted by the Leaders' Meeting, is first introduced to the Meeting, let us take that opportunity of stating the duties which belong to the office. And in particular let us urge upon our Leaders the vital importance of seeing or communicating with each of their Members once a week (1885, p. 361).

Roll of Membership.

The Conference recommends that a Roll of Membership, compiled from the Class-Books, be kept for every Society, the names of Members standing in their several Classes; and that the lists be corrected, if possible, quarter by quarter, or at least once a year. The Superintendent shall be responsible for seeing that the Roll is duly kept (1900, p. 230).

Examination of Local Preachers.

Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the "Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History," and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar (1874, vol. xix., p. 455; 1895, p. 438; S.O.).

Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher, he shall have been twelve months on probation (1876, vol. xx., p. 156; 1895, p. 437).

No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the Fifty-three Standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley, and his Notes on the New Testament, and until he has passed a satisfactory Examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained (1876, vol. xx., p. 155; 1895, p. 437; S.O.).

Pastoral Address.

The Superintendents are directed gratuitously to furnish every Steward, Local Preacher, and Class-leader, in their respective Circuits, with a copy of the Pastoral Address of the Conference to the Societies (1821, vol. v., p. 251).

The Superintendents are directed to appoint, at each principal Chapel in their Circuits, a special Society Meeting for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations (1838, vol. viii., p. 360; S.O.).

Resolutions on Pastoral Work.

A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented by the Book Steward to every Preacher on Trial on his first appointment to a Circuit (1885, p. 183; S.O.).

The "Resolutions," as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read in the stead of the "Liverpool Minutes" at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September (1885, p. 183; S.O.), Probationers and the Sacraments.

Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements in their Circuit Plans for securing to their Colleagues who are Probationers proper facilities for partaking of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (1844, vol. x., pp. 91, 92; S.O.).

No person shall be permitted to administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper but a Minister in Full Connexion (1811, vol. iii., p. 221).

In view of the difficulty of providing a proper administration of the Lord's Supper in some Circuits, the Stationing Committee shall every year consider the cases in which it may be desirable to allow Probationers to administer the Lord's Supper. The power already vested in the President to deal with cases that arise during the year on the recommendation of the Chairman of a District shall still continue (1900, p. 230).

Any application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments, unless already granted by the Conference, shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District (1902, p. 392 ; S.O.).

Preachers on Trial, who shall be deemed proper to be appointed for this purpose by their respective Superintendents, shall be allowed to administer the Holy Sacrament of Baptism. But this permission shall extend only to private administration, in cases where children cannot be brought to the house of God, and where there are circumstances of great emergency which will not allow the administration to be conveniently delayed (1829, vol. vi., p. 513).

Strangers and the Lord's Supper.

As regards Strangers occasionally attending our services, who desire to participate with us in the Communion of the Lord's Supper, they may reasonably be expected to assure the Minister of their fitness, by explaining to him that they are Members of another Church, or for what reason, not being Members of any Church, they desire to be Communicants. And such occasional cases can be met by the issue of a special Note of Admission by the Minister (1889, p. 412).

Engaging in Secular Concerns.

If any Minister be employed in, or carry on, any trade, he shall, on proof thereof, be excluded from the Itinerant Plan ; as we judge that such a pursuit of private emolument is incompatible with our ministerial duties (1804, vol. ii., pp. 239, 240).

II. Administration.

Making the Circuit Plan.

The Circuit Plan for the Ministers and Local Preachers shall be made by the Superintendent or his Colleagues (1811, vol. iii., p. 221 ; 1895, p. 435).

Changing Stewards.

The office of a Steward ceases at the end of the year, and no Steward shall remain in office above three years in succession, except in some extraordinary case. Every Superintendent shall take care that the Stewards be annually changed or re-elected in every Circuit (1811, vol. iii., p. 221; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

Appointment of Circuit Stewards.

Circuit Stewards are to be appointed at a Quarterly Meeting; the nomination being with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Meeting (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

Names and Addresses.

The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting, and immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synods (1871, vol. xviii., p. 402; 1881, p. 302; 1892, p. 311; S.O.).

Registration of Baptisms.

Proper Books, with printed forms, for the Registration of Baptisms shall be provided, and the necessary record regularly made, and signed by the officiating Minister, whenever the Sacrament of Baptism is administered in our Chapels (1841, vol. ix., p. 251).

Legal Settlement of Chapels.

If not already legally settled, Superintendents shall take immediate steps to secure the due settlement of Chapels and Schools (1866, vol. xvi., p. 567).

Register of Deeds and Documents.

A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book, and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting for the purpose (1891, 259; S.O.).

Annual Examination of Trust Accounts.

Superintendents are required to examine once a year the accounts of each Trust within their respective Circuits (1866, vol. xvi., p. 568).

Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

A United Meeting of the Treasurers and Trustees of the several Trust Estates shall be annually held in every Circuit on some day to be fixed at the December Quarterly Meeting (1866, vol. xvi., p. 568).

N.B.—This United Meeting is not to be a substitute for the Annual Meeting of the Trustees of each separate Trust.

APPENDIX XVI.

REVISED REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTION, ETC., OF THE CONFERENCE, ADAPTED TO THE CHANGED ORDER OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS.

I. Relation of the Representative to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

1. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (1889, p. 291).

2. The Conference in its Pastoral Session shall have power to consider and decide . . . all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Conference in its Representative Session, so far as questions of finance are concerned.

3. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference in its Pastoral or its Representative Session, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively.

4. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the Session of the Conference to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

II. The Representative Session of the Conference.

1. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen, acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference and of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen.

(1) The Ministerial members of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives are present, shall be, in addition to the President and all other members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Synod their intention to attend the Conference:

(i) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference who is not a member of the Legal Conference.

(ii) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain who are not members of the Legal Conference.

(iii) Eight Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference, to be chosen by the Missionary Committee.

(iv) If in any year any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(v) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Synods in Great Britain, as follows:

The Ministerial Members of each District Synod shall elect by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express their desire to attend the Conference, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent the District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen (1886, p. 199; 1890, p. 324).

N.B.—The newly elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(2) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(i) One-fifth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers for the time being of the following General Connexional Funds, namely, the Missionary Society, the General Chapel Fund, the Ministers' Children's Fund in both its sections, the Home Mission Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Extension of Methodism Fund, the Children's Home, the London Mission, the Temperance Committee, and the Local Preachers' Committee.

N.B.—In future appointments not more than one Lay Treasurer of any Connexional Fund shall be an ex officio Member of the Representative Session of the Conference.

One-third of the remaining number elected by the Conference shall retire annually, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference (1880, pp. 334, 335).

(ii) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Synod in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Synod, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing, by and from its own members by open vote or by ballot, after nomination by Lay Members of the Meeting, a Representative or Representatives, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created (1893, p. 319).

(iii) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen.

2. For Order and Form of Business to be transacted by the Conference, see Appendix XVII.

3. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Synod to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for such Ministers and Laymen. The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances at the discretion of the Conference.

III. Formal Constitution of the Conference.

The constitution of the Conference shall be the first business of the Conference. The retiring President shall occupy the chair until his successor is elected.

A. Elections to the Legal Conference.

1. All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its Representative Session, and such vacancies shall be filled up by election by the Legal Conference on the ground of seniority (1899, p. 241).

N.B.—A list of Senior Ministers in Full Work shall be prepared at each Conference, and printed in the Agenda, and the vacancies in the Legal Conference shall be filled by ballot of the Hundred (Journal, 1814; 1899, p. 241).

2. The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the Meeting of the Conference in its Pastoral Session, and such vacancies shall then be filled up by election by the Legal Conference after nomination (1899, pp. 241, 242).

3. In regard to these vacancies the Legal Conference shall formally declare by separate vote that certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference, cease to be members of the Legal Hundred, and that their places have to be filled up (Journal, 1877).

N.B.—This provision for the retirement of Supernumeraries at the end of two years does not apply to Ministers elected to the Legal Conference earlier than 1877 (see Journal, 1877).

4. All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a Member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years (Journal, 1814, 1815, 1869).

5. Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal Hundred, another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form.

B. Nomination and Election of the President and Secretary.

1. All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right to vote in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the ensuing Conference.

2. The nomination of the President and Secretary shall be made by ballot vote by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference.

3. The number of one hundred Members of the Legal Conference having been completed by the filling up of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without dispensation, the Legal Conference shall proceed to choose its President and Secretary.

4. The Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the person nominated to the office of President and the person nominated to the office of Secretary by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference (1899, p. 242).

5. If the Legal Conference shall at any time negative either of the nominations of the preceding Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative

Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister for the office in question; and the result of that nomination shall be submitted to the decision of the Legal Conference.

6. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of President be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of President in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

7. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of Secretary be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of Secretary in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

8. If, in the event of the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of the President, the Minister nominated by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference to the office of Secretary should be chosen to be President of the Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall nominate another Minister by ballot vote to the office of Secretary of the Conference, and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

APPENDIX XVII.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

THE Conference adopts the following ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

(a) Previously to each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connexion with the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers. If necessary, the Committee may meet again in the Conference town on the Monday afternoon or evening preceding the Conference.

(b) The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Monday evening preceding the Conference.

I. Representative Session.

The Representative Session commences on the Tuesday of the first week of the Conference.

1. APPENDIX XVIII.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

THE Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. No other class of business is transacted. The Company already insures nearly nine-tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £16,700, have been made to the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Reserve Funds of the Company exceed £75,000, being ten times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1902, has been £7,648 7*s.* 2*d.*, and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends £2,345 1*s.* 10*d.*; total, £9,993 9*s.* The total outlay for Losses, Expenses, etc., amounted to £5,475 18*s.* 8*d.*; and the Grant to the Worn Out Ministers' Fund, to £1,700.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PROBATIONERS

IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS

UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

L. M. S. Chronicle*:—"Mr. Joseph Tucker, of 79, Newington Green Road, the well-known Foreign and Colonial Outfitter, has recently issued a new Illustrated Price List. This is specially designed to help missionaries and travellers to select suitable outfits at the lowest possible cost. Mr. Tucker appears to be a universal provider, and the large number of testimonials he has received from missionaries all over the world testifies to the high standard of his business."

The Life of Faith*:—"Missionary friends and others preparing to go abroad will do well to get a Price List from Mr. Joseph Tucker, 79, Newington Green Road, N., from which they will learn how they can readily procure all they require for their passage and outfit. For many years now we have known Mr. Tucker in connexion with this special line of business. He has given welcome and most satisfactory help to many travellers—ourselves amongst the number."

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Bible House—146, Queen Victoria Street, London.
President—The Marquis of Northampton.
Secretaries—Rev. J. H. Ritson, M.A., and Rev. A. Taylor, M.A.

THIS Society has been the direct or indirect instrument of issuing the Scriptures in over 360 languages and dialects. Translations and revisions are now in progress under its auspices in over 100 languages and dialects. It constitutes the chief Arsenal from which every Foreign Mission draws weapons and supplies for the Holy War. The Wesleyan Missionary Societies of Great Britain and her Colonies draw on it for versions of Scripture for over 40 Languages. Its own 743 Colporteurs, employed in some 30 different foreign countries, sold over 1,350,000 copies of the Scriptures last year. Moreover, it maintained 620 Native Christian Bible-women in the East in connection with nearly 50 different Missionary Organisations.

During the year 1901–1902 the Issues of the Society amounted to 936,706 Bibles, 1,364,116 Testaments, and 2,763,599 Portions or separate books of the Bible—a total of 5,067,421 copies. Thirty per cent. of the circulation was in English and Welsh. The Society spends £10,000 a year in grants of Scriptures to Religious and Philanthropic Agencies at home. The Society has opened up new fields in the Republics of the Andes and Bolivia, as well as in South Africa and Mongolia. The total Issues of Scriptures since 1804 have been over 175 million copies.
